Worship—Bishop Tullis led the Conference in the "Service for the Opening of the Session and An Office for Admission of Ministerial Candidates," assisted by the Reverend George Watson, Superintendent of the Florence District. The group that was proposed was elected Deacon by vote of the Conference (see listing in Section VI as reported by the Board of the Ordained Ministry); they were then presented to be admitted On Trial (Probationary Membership). The group that was proposed was elected Elder by vote of the Conference (see listing in Section VI as reported by the Board of Ordained Ministry); they were then presented to be admitted into Full Connection.

Organization—Doctor Allan R. Broome, Conference Secretary, made motions on the organization of the Conference.

A. Bar of the Conference: Dr. Broome made the following motion: "I move that all five sections in the front of the auditorium be recognized as the Bar of the Conference, each section extending back through Row Z." That motion was adopted.

B. Agenda: Dr. Broome made the following motion: "I move that the printed program which has been circulated before Conference as part of your pre-Conference material be adopted as the official Agenda for this Conference Session with the provision that the times designated for each item on the program become a fixed Order of the Day and that the Presiding Bishop have the authority to make necessary adjustments in the various business items of the Conference in accordance with the Conference Calendar and at his discretion." The motion was adopted.

C. Official Roll of the Conference: Dr. Broome made the following motion: "I move that the registration cards which were signed at the Registration Desk beginning Monday, May 29, 1978, be declared the official signed attendance of this Conference, and that these be used as the Official Roll for both the clerical and lay members of this Conference." The motion passed.

Courtesies and Introductions—The Reverend Charles Graves, minister of Bethel Church, Co-Host with Wofford College for the 1978 Conference Session, introduced the Mayor of Spartanburg, the Honorable Franklin Allen, who spoke words of welcome to the Conference. The Reverend Theodore H. Walter, Superintendent of the Spartanburg District, brought words of welcome and instruction to the Conference. Doctor Joab Lesesne, President of Wofford College, spoke words of welcome to the Conference. Mr. Marvin Rogers, Cokesbury representative, spoke words of welcome from The United Methodist Publishing House. Following Mr. Rogers welcome, a check was presented to Bishop Tullis for the Conference pensions program from The United Methodist Publishing House; the check in the amount of $12,289.13 was presented by Mrs. Cynthia Littlejohn.

Personal Privilege—Doctor Allan R. Broome, Secretary of the Conference, spoke to the Conference about the position of Conference Secretary and submitted his resignation from the post effective immediately. He expressed to the Conference words of gratitude for the support given him as Conference Secretary across the years. Bishop Tullis expressed gratitude to Doctor Broome for his service to the Conference.

Motion—The Reverend DeArmond E. Canaday moved the acceptance of Doctor Broome's resignation with regret, and that the Conference proceed to elect a new Secretary by a majority vote. The motion was adopted.

Motion—The Reverend J. Chad Davis moved a resolution of gratitude to Doctor Broome with a rising vote and applause. The motion was adopted.

Nominations—The Reverend Ted R. Morton, Jr., Executive Director of Greenwood Methodist Home, was nominated for Conference Secretary by the Reverend William K. Coble. The Reverend Matthew D. McCollom was nominated by the Reverend Washington Kearns. The Reverend Angelin Wallace was nominated by the Reverend Willis Goodwin.

Motion—The Reverend Ed Ellis moved that the nominations be closed. The Ellis motion was adopted. The Reverend Angelin Wallace declined the nomination in favor of the Reverend Matthew McCollom. The vote was taken. Bishop Tullis then asked Doctor Broome to announce the ballot. The Reverend Ted R. Morton, Jr. was elected Conference Secretary for the remainder of the Quadrennium. Mr. Morton then joined Bishop Tullis and Doctor Broome on the stage.

Committee on Standing Rules—The Committee on Standing Rules made its report with the Reverend Hawley Lynn making the presentation. Proposals for change were made in order to perfect the documents before the Conference concerning the Standing Rules. The proposals were presented but were to be voted on at a later time. Mr. Lynn proposed a change in SR 124 (Page 255, 1977 Conference JOURNAL). The proposal related to line 2 and suggested that the words "at least one youth" be stricken. At the end of the paragraph the following wording would be added: "In addition to instances where youth membership is required by the DISCIPLINE, youth members should be included in the membership of all boards, councils, committees, and commissions wherever possible." This proposal was accepted. H. B. Harrell then proposed the addition of a SR 105 which would read: "When issues or motions arise from the floor of the Annual Conference on the last day of the Conference which have not been presented before the Conference by way of inclusion in the pre-Conference Journal information, debate and voting shall be delayed three hours and a vote shall be required for an approval." This was referred to the Committee on Standing Rules. Following this proposal, the Reverend Archie Bigelow made a proposal that under Section III, Rule 141 c, the following words be added: "...not to include more than $50 packing expense." This was accepted by the Committee. The Reverend Ed Ellis then moved that the proposal of the Standing Rules Committee concerning the election of clerical delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences be added to the proposal being made by the Board of the Laity concerning the election of Lay Delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. Doctor George Whitaker moved to refer the entire matter to the Committee on Standing Rules, and the motion for referral was adopted.

Camp Study Committee—The Reverend Richard McAlister presented a substitute resolution for the report published in the pre-Conference reports. The Conference agreed to hear the presentation of the substitute report. The Reverend Robert Stillwell presented the report.

Amendments—The Reverend James Nates made a motion to amend Item 4 of the substitute report. The motion was to "Add following the first sentence (ending with the words 'the responsibility of the task force') these words: These responsibilities shall include at least the following: 1. To develop a philosophy of camping in South Carolina through the United Methodist Church; 2. To recommend an organization and a method through which to fulfill this philosophy. The task force shall report to the Conference Council on Ministries. The Conference Council on Ministries shall make a progress report at the 1979 Annual Conference and a final report, with recommendations, to the 1980 Annual Conference. The Council on Finance and Administration shall fund the task force in the amount of $1,000.00 per year to commence with the formation of the task force." The Camp Study Committee accepted the Nate's amendment and moved the adoption of the substitute report as amended.

Amendment—Mrs. Lois Burkhalter made a motion for an addition to the section of the report concerning the composition of the Board of Directors of the Methodist Camp (Section I. A., Page 2 of the substitute report). The motion stated "Add the words 'two of which shall be women'." The Burkhalter amendment was accepted by the Committee and added to the report.

Point of Order—Doctor Allan R. Broome raised a point of order concerning the right of the Annual Conference to transfer Methodist Camp property. He noted that in the substitute report there was a recommendation for transferring the title of the property from the Board of Education to the Annual Conference Board of Trustees (Section II, Page 4 of the substitute report). Bishop Tullis ruled that a mere resolution of the Conference cannot transfer the property and proper legal documents must be accomplished to transfer title to the property.

Substitute Motion—Doctor Spencer Rice made a motion to substitute for the Section II item the following statement: "We recommend that the matter of the title to the South Carolina United Methodist Camp be referred to the Conference Board of Education for the purpose of recommending to the 1979 Annual Conference what disposition is to be made of the title, and that this recommendation be worked out in consultation with the task force provided for in Section IV of this report." The Rice substitute was seconded.

Substitute for the Substitute Motion—The Reverend DeArmond Canaday made a motion offering a substitute for the Rice substitute motion. The motion stated: "We recommend that a lease to the South Carolina United Methodist Camp property be drawn up by the Conference Board of Education and granted to the Board of Directors of the South Carolina United Methodist Camp; we further recommend that legal title to all Camp property then be transferred from the Board of Education to the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the terms of the lease remaining in tact. The motion was seconded and discussed. On vote, the motion was lost. A vote was taken on the Rice substitute, and the motion was passed. Bishop Tullis announced that the remaining part of the report would be considered at the first business session of the Annual Conference tomorrow morning.

Announcements and Benediction—Announcements were made by the Secretary and sympathy was expressed to the family of Doctor Claude Shuler upon the death of his father. The Reverend Ted H. Walter gave the closing prayer and benediction.

First Day—Monday Evening

May 29, 1978

An Order for the Administration of the Sacrament of Holy Communion and the Memorial Service—The Service of Holy Communion and the Memorial Service were held in the Spartanburg Memorial Auditorium at 8 p.m. The sermon was delivered by the Reverend Granville A. Hicks, and Bishop Edward L. Tullis and Doctor William H. Willimon were the Celebrants of the Holy Communion, assisted by other Elders of the Annual Conference. An offering was received for "the Missional Priority on Hunger."

He requested that this be studied by members of the Annual Conference and particularly by the Committee on Nominations.

Bids have been sought from a number of insurance carriers; from 27 companies who initially expressed interest in the program, only three remained to the conclusion of the bidding process.

The insurance program will pay 100% of all eligible expenses over two thousand dollars up to an unlimited amount of expense. In the category of "Retired Ministers" the coverage is reduced to a lifetime maximum of $15,000 for each eligible insured and their dependents. Under the changes made, the "stop-loss" figure for the insured is set at $550.00 per benefit year.

Reports 4 through 8: There were no changes in these reports.

Report 9: The request to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration is for an item of $531,595.00 to be apportioned to the Churches of the Conference. The premiums for the ministers were set at $60.00 per month for Categories 1 through 5 (Section 2a) and $40.00 per month (Sections 2b and 2c). A new category, "the actuarially retired minister under age 65" will have a premium charge of $93.00 per month.

An addendum was made to Report 9 as follows: The Commission on Insurance made the motion "that the insurance program adopted by the 1978 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference become effective the final day of the Session, June 1, 1978, and that the rate structure adopted by the 1978 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference become effective July 1, 1978."

No further action was taken at this time.

Report of the Study Committee on Communications—The Reverend Thurman Vickery, Chairman of the Committee, was presented for the report. Mr. Vickery introduced Mr. John Allgood who presented the report. Mr. Allgood read a legal opinion from Mr. M. L. Meadors, Conference Chancellor, which stated: "In my opinion, Plan A of the 'Report of the Study Committee on Communications' is contrary to the purposes and authority of the Charter of THE ADVOCATE. In the absence of any previous surrender of the Board's prerogatives and authority, its functions cannot be summarily assigned to another group simply by adoption of a Resolution or Report by the Conference. It is my opinion that the Board of Trustees would not be affected in its legal actions or its functions by the adoption of either of these reports, without the concurrence and acquiescence of the Board itself. The Board is legally constituted as an eleemosynary corporation through its Charter from the State of South Carolina, with the powers and authority granted to such corporate bodies by statute."

Mr. Allgood stated that in the light of this legal opinion, the Committee wished to offer an amendment to the report.

Amendment—"We recommend that the Committee to Study Communications and the Board of Trustees of THE SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE meet immediately following this Annual Conference to examine and determine ways by which THE ADVOCATE Charter may be amended in order to implement 'Plan A' for a wholistic communication system in the South Carolina Annual Conference by January 1, 1980. We further recommend that once the substance and means of the necessary legal modification of THE ADVOCATE Charter has been determined, the Board of Trustees of THE ADVOCATE shall see that the modification is legally accomplished and shall make a report on their action to the 1979 Annual Conference."

Bishop Tullis stated that the amendment could not be considered until the Conference was ready to vote on the plan and adopt one of the recommended courses of action. Bishop Tullis suggested to Mr. Allgood that the proposed amendment be held until such time as it was needed.

Mr. Allgood read for the Conference the recommendations of Plan A.

Amendment—The Reverend James C. Campbell made a motion to amend Plan A as follows: "Under 'Recommendations,' number 1, page 2, column 1 (in the printed report) delete 'Conference Council on Ministries, South Carolina United Methodist Communications (SCUMC) shall be accountable to the Conference Council on Ministries (CCOM) for programming and promotional services and to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) for financial services,' and substituting, 'Annual Conference.'"

The Reverend James Hood asked if the Campbell amendment is legal. Bishop Tullis stated that he could not make a ruling where no action had been taken by the Conference. Mr. Hood then spoke in favor of the amendment; other speakers for and against the amendment were heard. The Reverend A. McKay Brabham called attention to the book: DISCIPLINE, paragraph 726.5.A, regarding the communication functions of the Council on Ministries.

Vote on Campbell Amendment—Following discussion of the Campbell amendment, a vote was taken and the amendment was adopted.

Discussion of Plan A—The Reverend Claude Evans spoke against the Plan A proposal. The Reverend Harry Mays called attention to the financial difficulties posed by Plan A of the report, difficulties that would have to be addressed before the Conference Budget is adopted.

Amendment—Mr. Spencer Robinson, Hopewell Church, Rock Hill, made a motion to delete the provision set forth in the Plan on Page 2, Column 1, Item 2, detailing the composition of the Board of Managers. On vote the amendment was passed.

The motion was passed.

Amendment—Judge Richard Fields made a motion to amend Plan B as follows: "Under 'Recommendations,' Page 5, in the last paragraph, following the words 'To implement this Plan, we recommend,' substitute for all that follows the following words: 'That the Annual Conference authorize $ 2,000 from the Council on Finance and Administration to be used by the Conference Council on Ministries Committee on Communication for the purpose of seeking professional assistance in implementing the Plan and drafting of the proposed contractual agreements between THE ADVOCATE and the Committee on Communications.'" The amendment was adopted by vote of the Conference.

Amendment—The Reverend James Hood made the following motion to amend Plan B: "On page 4, Column 2, Paragraph 2, Line 5, place a period after the word 'newspaper' and delete the rest of the sentence." The motion was seconded and Mr. Hood spoke in favor of his motion.

Substitute Motion—The Reverend McKay Brabham made a motion to substitute the Hood amendment with the following: "Retain the original statement by adding to Line

5 the word 'in' so that the sentence would read 'publication of a weekly Conference newspaper, and in the interpretation and promotion of General and Annual Conference programs, etc.'" On vote the Brabham substitute was passed.

Amendment—Mr. Harry Kent made the following motion with reference to the recommendations of the Conference Committee on Structure: "On Page 4, third Paragraph, in the first sentence, delete the words 'through its Communications Coordinator; and in the last part of that paragraph delete the words 'and coordinating and unifying public media messages and information about Conference programs.'" The amendment was passed.

Amendment—The Reverend James Hood made a motion to delete the entire paragraph on Page 5, Column 1, which begins "That the Communications Coordinator shall be responsible. . . ." The Hood amendment was adopted.

Debate of the Plans—Bishop Tullis stated that since the perfecting of the two Plans was now concluded, the Conference could proceed to debate the Plans as amended.

Point of Order—The Reverend Joe Alley called attention to Conference Standing Rule 62, and made the point of order that action on this Plan (B) could not be taken because it is in conflict with the Standing Rules. Bishop Tullis responded that this was a consideration of a "legality" and the point could not be taken until a vote had been taken on the proposed Plan.

Motion to Suspend the Rule—The Reverend Omega Newman made a motion to suspend the Rules in order that the Conference might take action on the proposed Plans. On vote the Rules were suspended.

He also described the "Bishop's Award of Excellence" to recognize outstanding Scouting Troops, Posts and Packs in United Methodist Churches. The Commission responded that it was not done on an "across the board" percentage of increase. Mr. Davis made the motion that the increases be based on a figure of 6% for each classification. The Commission responded in support of the motion but indicated there would be a need for additional funding in view of the fact that last year's funding was not adequate and a deficit is anticipated for the coming year. Discussion followed.

Amendment—The Reverend Joseph Sowell made the motion that the additional money to pay the proposed 6% increase come from the Equitable Salaries reserve fund. The Sowell amendment was passed. On vote, the Davis motion was adopted.

Mr. Jenkins expressed appreciation to those who had assisted the Committee on Nominations in its work during the year.

The Wednesday evening session of the South Carolina Annual Conference was held at Bethel United Methodist Church, Spartanburg. The Ordination Sermon was delivered by Dr. James T. Laney. His topic was "A Workman, Unashamed," the text was II Timothy 2:14-26.

These persons were ordained by Bishop Tullis, thereby answering Disciplinary Question 34. (See Section VI, "Business of the Annual Conference" for names of persons ordained Elder).

Report 3—The Council on Finance and Administration recommended nonconcurrency on the Brabham motion to create a line item under this report to give THE SOUTH CAROLINA METHODIST ADVOCATE 1% of total net funds. Doctor Brabham spoke in support of the motion he offered. On vote, the Brabham motion was approved.

The Council on Finance and Administration then recommended the elimination of the Budget item providing operational support for THE ADVOCATE. Bishop Tullis suggested that this be handled when that item was reached in the report.

Mr. Adams reported that the Council on Finance and Administration recommended concurrence on the resolution to increase the Equitable Salaries allocation from $100,000 to $150,000. Report 3 was edited to reflect this change.

Mr. Adams reported that the Council recommended concurrence in the resolution to provide for the District Administration Fund with $2,484 to cover the cost of insurance and pension premiums for the District Superintendents. The total for this item would be $2,484 for the year.

Report 3, as amended, was approved by the vote of the Conference.

Report 4—The Reverend Harry Mays made the motion that Report 4 be amended by changing Item 8 in Section II which provides $25,000 for THE SOUTH CAROLINA METHODIST ADVOCATE. Doctor McKay Brabham requested the floor to oppose the motion.

Point of Order—Doctor George Whitaker called a point of order that the motion was in the process of being voted when Doctor Brabham called for the floor. Bishop Tullis sustained Doctor Whitaker's point of order.

Point of Order—The Reverend DeArmond Canaday called a point of order by noting that two speakers on each side of the issue had not spoken. The Bishop did not sustain the Canaday point of order. Questions for clarification were raised and answers were provided regarding the Brabham motion and the Budget item for operational support. On vote the Mays motion lost. Mr. Adams moved the adoption of Report 4, and it was approved by vote of the Conference.

Report 5—Mr. Adams reported the addition to Report 5 of three items: Item P, for Camp Board of Directors, $1,200; Item Q, Task Force on Camps, $1,000; Item R, Council on Ministries Communications Plan B, $2,000; this produced a new total of $268,712 for the Council on Ministries and its agencies. Report 5, as amended and corrected, was approved by vote of the Conference.

Motion to Reopen Report 5—Mr. Adams made a motion to reopen Report 5 for the addition of one item. The motion to reopen was approved. The Council on Finance and Administration recommends the addition to Section 4, Report 5, and item "I" in the amount of $1,000 to cover a deficit in the Study Committee on Communications account. The Conference voted approval of the recommendation.

Report 6—Mr. Adams noted editorial corrections in Report 6 in order to include the item for THE ADVOCATE in the amount of $173,143, bringing the total for line items to $452,710. The Council on Finance and Administration recommends the changing of the World Service and Conference Benevolences item to read $1,090,540. The increase in the Budget approximates 10%. Mr. Adams moved that the report be adopted as amended. The Conference voted to adopt the report.

Report of the Board of Church and Society—Ms. Bettye Washington, Chairman, presented for the report. Ms. Washington reported on efforts to raise funds for special cases and then called on the Reverend Don Britt, Secretary, to present the Board's recommendations. Mr. Britt read the Board's recommendations (See Section VIII, "Reports of Boards" for details of the report). Mr. Britt made a motion to adopt the recommendations.

Motion—Col. Ray Smith, Pendleton, made a motion to amend the report by adding a new item. The motion stated: "I would like to amend the Board of Church and Society Report by adding a number eleven. We affirm the rights of freedom of religion and speech for before the General Conference, which it does not. I would rule that every point where the Standing Rules repeat items that are already in the DISCIPLINE the Standing Rules are out of order. I would further say that the Standing Rules then must be re-written by the next session of the Annual Conference so that they deal only and specifically with rules that are uniquely the prerogatives of the Annual Conference."

A Second Point of Order—Dr. Broome then raised a second point of order concerning the report adopted from the Study Committee on Communications. Dr. Broome noted that on page 4 of the report the word "charged" was used in addressing instructions to a corporate body (THE ADVOCATE). The point of order concerns whether the Annual Conference can give such a "charge" to a legally incorporated body. Bishop Tullis responded that he had consulted with the Conference Chancellor, Mr. M. L. Meadors, and that the Chancellor stated that the Annual Conference cannot give such a "charge" through a mere resolution.

Mr. Broome offered the suggestion that the word "charge" as it appears in the Communications Report be changed to read "be responsible for."

Motion to Reconsider—The Reverend Chad Davis made the motion that the Conference reconsider the Communications Report for the purpose of making the change in the word "charge." The motion to reconsider passed.

Motion—Dr. Broome made the motion that the wording "be responsible for" be substituted for the word "charge." The motion passed. By vote the Conference re-adopted the report as amended.

Report of the Board of Education—Bishop Tullis recognized the Reverend James H. Nates, Chairman, for the report of the Board of Education. Mr. Nates called on the Reverend Robert Still for the report of the Committee on Camps and Conferences. Camp and conference leadership were introduced by Mr. Stillwell.

Committee on Higher Education and Campus Ministry—Mr. Nates expressed appreciation for the support provided by the Churches, for the colleges and campus ministry. Motion—Mr. Butch Harrell, St. Paul Church, Florence, made a motion to amend the introduction to the report of the Board of Education, at page 67 of the pre-Conference reports by deleting the word "unfortunate" in the section on "A Financial Word," and to place a period following the words "Wesley Foundation," deleting the words "and has substantially communicated to our senior colleges our decreasing concern for higher education." The Committee accepted the motion.

Mr. Harrell raised the question of whether there was a recommendation to increase the size of the Committee which had been described as too small to do a significant work. Mr. Crooks, Chairman of the Committee on Higher Education and Campus Ministry, responded that some additional persons had been elected to the Committee, but they were not members of the Board of Education.

On vote of the Conference the persons nominated as Trustees of Epworth Children's Home, Greenwood Methodist Home, and The Methodist Home, Orangeburg, were elected.

Point of Order—The Reverend Cellis Woodard, Greeleyville, raised a point of order concerning the eligibility of Dr. Mike Watson and Mr. Edward Fersner to be nominated for and elected to two year terms on the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Home, Orangeburg; they were originally elected in 1971 and have only one year of eligibility remaining according to the Standing Rules. The response was made by Mr. Bynum that this was correct and that the Board would change the nomination to a one year term for these two persons.

REPORTS OF BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

The Cabinet Speaks to The Conference

Delivered by the Reverend C. J. Lupo, Jr., Superintendent, Greenwood District, South Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church, to the Annual Conference Session on May 30, 1978, at Spartanburg, South Carolina.

For a number of years, we have looked forward to an Annual State of the Church Address by the resident bishop. We have also had an annual report from the District Superintendents—but in reality, as a rule we asked one D. S. going off the cabinet to do the work for the whole.

The 1976 Book of DISCIPLINE calls for an annual report of the Cabinet to the Conference. As you know, the cabinet includes the bishop and the district superintendents, and the "program cabinet" also includes the Director of the Council on Ministries. This year Bishop Tullis appointed a committee of three to be responsible for getting this report together. The committee included Dr. John W. Curry, Sr., the Rev. Ernest M. Heape, and myself. We sought—and received—input from the total cabinet, and hereby express to them our appreciation for their help, while we absolve them from responsibility for items omitted, or any errors we have unintentionally made.

We cannot, in the time allotted to this report, give a full reporting on many significant items of accomplishment; neither can we document in detail needs and concerns for the future. We shall, therefore, try with words to paint with a broad stroke at least the outline of some of our major affirmations and concerns.

OUR CONNECTIONAL SYSTEM

We felt it a priority item to say something about our connectional system. Through various mergers, we have lost the word 'episcopal' from our denominational title. The word never meant that we were 'episcopalians', but that our form of church government was 'episcopal', having bishops. Even before there was a formal denominational structure, John Wesley stationed his preachers and determined where they would serve—and when. And some of us remember he advised and required them to move pretty often, observing that in about 6 weeks they could tell a congregation everything they knew! With the official organization of Methodism in America and the election of Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury as bishops, our patterns were established. We are now—and were then—part of a system that involves an appointive, itinerant ministry. The bishop has authority to appoint pastors to their place of service, and the words 'traveling elder' remind us of what it means to itinerate—to move around.

Today this aspect of our connectional system is under attack. Some pastors say they have been 'hurt by the system', when they see their peers move ahead of them to a larger church with a bigger salary. Not so often do some of them seem to recognize that others of their peers may still be at even smaller and perhaps less prestigious places.

This points up the fact that when we criticize the system, we often do not understand our setting. South Carolina is predominantly a rural state; we don't have many large, truly urban centers; and we have far more small churches than we do large ones. It is just not possible for every minister to be appointed to a station church in the city!

One of the attacks on our connectional system is to be found in a tendency to move toward a 'call' system, in which a local church seeks to pick its pastor and to determine absolutely the length of his stay. But a 'call' system doesn't really mesh with a connectional system that promises every local church will have a pastor (of a sort), and every pastor who is a member of the Annual Conference will have a church . . . (also of a sort).

A further attack on our connectional system comes from individuals and groups who do not like some action of the General Conference, of some General Board or Agency, or even of the Annual Conference. Some, in resistance withdraw or move their membership; some withhold their funds.

While our connectional system has been under attack, there are some very positive things to be said about it on the whole. Let us, then, speak briefly about some of the present strengths and manifestations of it.

First, remember and glory in the fact that every local United Methodist Church is linked to the whole church. Norman Dewire, General Secretary of the General Council of Ministries, writes: "Is the world a collection of nations? Is each nation a collection of states? Or, is there more? What about the Church? Is it just a collection of people in diverse places? THANKS BE TO GOD . . . there is more!" (World Parish, March, 1978, p.1)

There are more than 39,000 local United Methodist Churches, and more than one-half of these have less than 200 members. But through districts and the annual conference, and delegates to the Jurisdictional and General Conference, and area representatives on General Boards, we are linked together — all of us a part of something much bigger than any of us, and together able to support programs and institutions that by ourselves we should be too small and weak to undertake.

The cabinet is a visible expression of connectional Methodism. Bishops are described as General Superintendents of the Church, and district superintendents are described in the last DISCIPLINE as extensions of the general superintendency. This doesn't make us who are district superintendents little bishops — not at all, but it does help to spell out our functions.

Specifically, the district superintendent relates to the Annual Charge Conference, to the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, to the District Board of the Laity, the District United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men, and in multiple other ways he is visible in working relationships with pastors and lay people as one who helps connect the local church to other churches nearby and far away.

The cabinet appoints a representative to the various boards and agencies of the annual conference — not to try to determine their actions, but to help keep the cabinet abreast of the currents and needs of the conference, and to offer cabinet perspective on various matters to be considered and decided. Unless the Standing Rules provide otherwise, this representative is a 'courtesy' matter, offering a kind of ex-officio membership status, giving us a voice, but not a vote.

The cabinet, of course, is involved in the making of appointments. The gathering of profiles — from pastors and churches, the gathering of evaluations and the evaluation of evaluations, and consultation with pastors and pastor-parish relations committees where moves are likely — all this preceded even initial work on appointments. The cabinet wishes to express appreciation for the cooperation of pastors and Pastor Parish Relations Committees as we have begun the use of more detailed instruments to help us in this process of trying to place pastors where they may be engaged in fruitful ministry. We remind pastors and committees that the purpose of evaluation is to help make ministry more effective — not just to change pastors! Our tools (instruments) may need refinement, and our skill in using them needs to be improved, but we feel we are making an honest effort to keep faith with the requirements of the DISCIPLINE, while we are also trying to treat people as persons, to deal responsibly with individual pastors and their family needs and their growth in ministry, and the needs and challenges of local churches.

We would say one more word under the heading of our connectional system, and that is about morale. We are concerned that on occasions a pastor affirms and feels good about his next appointment when first he learns of it — and then some fellow pastor asks, "Why did they do that to you?", and his whole attitude changes. And likewise, Pastor Parish Relations Committees sometimes respond favorably to the next pastor being proposed until some person (lay or clerical) calls on the telephone and says, "Man they surely did fix you up!"

Our Book of DISCIPLINE (par. 419) wisely reminds us: "Members in full connection with an Annual Conference by virtue of their election and ordination are bound in special covenant with all the ordained members of the Annual Conference. They live with their fellow ministers in mutual trust and concern and seek with them the sanctification of the fellowship." What an ideal! We call on all of you to help us make this a reality in South Carolina.

MISSIONAL PRIORITIES

Having considered our connectional system, we wish now to address ourselves to the "Missional Priorities" adopted by the General Conference of 1976. The quadrennial theme is "Committed to Christ—Called to Change," and the priorities adopted are "evangelism, world hunger, and the ethnic minority local church."

We are now at the mid-point of the quadrennium. Many sermons have been preached on the theme "Committed to Christ—Called to Change." Perhaps it is time for us to examine our lives and our churches and to inquire "What has happened—besides the sermons preached?"

You see, these priorities are not options, to be chosen or rejected. The missional priorities lie at the very heart of what it means to be the church. As Emil Brunner once observed, "The Church exists for mission as fire exists for burning".

People have often debated (without much profit to anyone) the meaning of evangelism. Some would make it so narrow as to apply only to a certain type of preaching during an annual revival meeting; others make it so inclusive that it covers everything we do. But most of us know that at the heart of its meaning is the idea of sharing and proclaiming the Good News of God's love as made known to us in Jesus Christ. D. T. Niles once defined evangelism as "one beggar telling another beggar where to find bread".

The assumption here is that the first beggar has found bread—and found it nourishing—satisfying. And we would remind you that meaningful evangelism is not something to be taught: in school, seminar, or workshops. Techniques can be taught, but real, meaningful evangelism must be based on the evangelist's own personal dimension of faith, his own personal Christian experience. The experiences of various persons do not have to be duplicates, but they do need to be genuine.

We would remind you that evangelism is not synonymous with church membership growth, but we would also note that this often is a result if evangelism is effective.

Too many of us have for too long excused our failure to gain new members by saying, "I am not going to play the numbers game", while all around us other denominational or sect groups reach out to people and gather them in for numerical growth.

The need is still around us. Near every local United Methodist Church, near every Methodist parsonage, in your neighborhoods and communities, where you work—there are persons who have made no commitment of their life to the Lord Jesus Christ, and who have nothing to do with the Church. We can still say, as did our Lord, "The fields are white unto harvest".

Thankfully, our South Carolina Conference has been in the list of the few conferences in recent years to experience a net gain in membership. At a recent session of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council on Ministries, it was reported that from 1973-76, the South Carolina Conference had a net increase in membership of 7,010, or 3.03%, which led all of the conferences in the Jurisdiction, and places us near the top of all conferences of our church. We can't boast about these statistics, but they at least point us in the right direction.

Significantly, the General Conference also placed heavy emphasis on the Church School, and we express our concern that we work to strengthen the Church School program as something vital to effective evangelism, and crucial for Christian nurture.

We have not outlived the Great Commission at the end of Matthew's Gospel: "Go ye therefore into all the world and make disciples of all nations". This is still our task.

World hunger is another of our missional priorities. In a sense, in South Carolina, we anticipated this with a tremendous response to the tragedy of human hunger by a Lenten fasting program in 1975, after which $229,658.00 was sent to the Conference Treasurer for World Hunger. In 1976, we received $204,217.00; in 1977, the amount was $185,866.00. All these figures are combinations of various offerings which support programs to combat hunger. Admittedly, it will be harder for us to keep up the interest in this for the long pull if there are no major droughts in India and no highly publicized, mass starvation in places like Bangladesh.

But the needs remain, and we must do more than feed the starving; we must try to remove some of the root causes of hunger. And we in the church—clergy and laity alike—need to check on our own life-styles to make certain they are consonant with Christian stewardship.

The third missional priority is the ethnic minority local church. What can we do to strengthen it?

Almost at once, there were those who saw this as a back-tracking or merger, a retreat from a movement toward a genuinely inclusive church.

But the other danger was to lose the heritage and tradition—the rich contribution made to our total life by the ethnic minority churches—black, hispanic, oriental, and native American.

In South Carolina, the main focus is on the black church. Here we have a tremendous need to upgrade church buildings and parsonages for our black members and constituents. We need also to be engaged in a vigorous program of recruitment and training so that all of our churches may be served by a fully-trained, full-time resident pastor.

Again, South Carolina responded to some of these needs even before the General Conference. We adopted a forward-looking program called "Partnership in Church Extension", and rejoice in the nearly 3000 members who have joined and supported it and made possible some exciting things in church development and church extension. But we haven't finished the job, and we need to give new attention to the enrollment of thousands more persons who will contribute $10 per call, three times a year, for Church Extension in South Carolina.

In our conference, we have not done much about Advance Specials in this area, but we should receive new stimulus from the fact that 50% of an Advance Special for Ethnic Minority Local Church Missional Priorities may be retained in the annual conference, to be applied to ethnic minority specials recommended within the state.

In 1977, the South Carolina Annual Conference engaged in a capital funds campaign for Claflin College, and local churches accepted Fair Share Goals in the amount of $1,976,194. To date $456,349 has been received in payment, and on April 12, ground was broken for a new Health and Physical Education Center on the Claflin campus.

The Annual Conference of 1977 gave its approval to a creative discipleship program, by means of which the salaries of full-time residential black ministers may be up-graded, while the local church and its leadership are engaged in a program of training and ministry.

We haven't finished our tasks in this area—not by any means—but neither have we given up in despair, and we challenge you to remember the importance of this missional priority even as we thank God for the enrichment of our life together by the heritage of both groups antecedent to our merger.

E PLURIBUS UNUM

Most of us are familiar with the Latin phrase imprinted on our coins, "E Pluribus Unum"—one from many. Can't we say the same thing about our church? Just as there are many states, but one nation, so there are 73 Annual Conferences, but one United Methodist Church. But it really is broader than that.

We have a pluralism in theology, for most assuredly we do not all think alike theologically. We are not a "confessional church", requiring adherence to a credal statement before membership can be recognized. Rather we remember—and often quote—John Wesley's response to an inquirer, "If your heart is as my heart, give me your hand".

Likewise, we have a diversity in liturgical styles: some pastors use the clerical collar, while others use an academic gown, and still others a business suit—and sometimes that quite colorful! Some use printed collects and prayers of confession, while others pray only extemporaneously, or following habit patterns that get entrenched. Some pound the pulpit and shout; some speak in a conversational voice.

And, though we know that labels often lie, we throw these about: conservative . . . fundamental . . . liberal . . . charismatic . . . non-charismatic. Yet, we all, somehow, are one.

We also experience diversity in regard to social action and political involvement, and attitudes regarding both. Here, some say we should observe a "hands off" policy and not get involved. Others criticize those who hold back and remind us of the saying about Paul and Silas when they reached Thessalonica: "Those that have turned the world upside down have come to our city". (Acts. 17:2)

Let us remind ourselves that our Wesleyan Heritage is on the side of social action and involvement. Some social historians credit the Wesleyan revival with saving England from a bloody revolution.

At the same time, in many—if not most—of our churches, we have a ministry to divided opinion groups. Some will be pro-labor and some pro-management; some pro and some anti ERA, etc.

We call on you to keep several things in mind:

1. Only the General Conference can speak for the United Methodist Church. The Council of Bishops cannot; the General Boards and Agencies cannot; the cabinet cannot. Indeed, we cannot speak for the Annual Conference. We can speak to you, but we can only hope you listen—and you must determine your own response.
2. Leadership must lead. An editorial in a daily paper recently suggested that religious leaders shall poll their constituencies before they make a statement or take a stand. We dare to suggest that leadership can't always wait on consensus for action, for popular plebiscite before moving ahead. Time after time, during their journeyings after the Exodus from Egypt, the children of Israel murmured against Moses and wanted to turn back—better to go back to slavery than to endure their present state! And prophet after prophet in the Old Testament was repudiated by political and religious leaders and even the people. Yet they addressed God's word to the people of that day. As we continue to support the human rights' struggle in behalf of the dignity and worth of every human being, we shall face situations involving women and ethnic minorities, and situations like South Africa and our corporate involvement there, and relationships between management and labor. It is crucial that we maintain support for the integrity of a free pulpit so that the prophetic word for our day will not be silenced.

At the same time, we need to engage in meaningful dialogue with attorneys, physicians, physicists, and others who are asking about values and ethics. Important questions about the meaning of life and the will of God are being asked by intelligent leaders in many other disciplines. And here, it seems, we not only have dialogue with—enter into conversation with these persons: we must be willing and able to bear witness to our faith, to give intelligent reason for the faith that is within us. Perhaps this becomes evangelism in a new mode.

ITEMS BRIEFLY NOTED

Time requires me only to list a few more items, without developing their themes.

We are concerned about recruitment to the ordained ministry. We know we are not the one to do the calling: God is. But we may need to give attention in order that some of the best minds and most able persons may consider the ordained ministry and respond positively if they are called.

We have a real concern about the sacredness of the family, and feel this needs to be stressed again and again. We are deeply concerned by the growing number of ministerial families that experience failure and end in divorce, and know that there are others who are living in a kind of quiet desperation. We are not ready to point any accusing fingers of blame, and probably no good would come of it if we did. But we do call attention to the fact that there may be some stresses and tensions peculiar to parsonage families, and we call on Pastor Parish Relations committees and local church members to be as supportive of their parsonage families as they possibly can, and we call on ministers and their spouses to consider the seriousness of their covenant in marriage, and to give proper attention to the nurture of family relationships.

In the third place, let us note (with some repetition) that the local church is where the action is. Chad Davis put it: "Without the local church there would be no need for the Conference". Therefore, we suggest the following:

- A. Training must be geared to the needs of all sorts and sizes of churches—not just the large church—not just the station church.
- B. We shall need to give increased attention in the future to parish and charge lines. Specifically, we would encourage a greater use of the Larger Parish or Cooperative Ministries plan. Circuits may need to be realigned, and in some instances mergers of churches need to take place. One reason is for effective stewardship of personal resources, to provide a pastor with an adequate work load. The other is financial: One expert has estimated that with the present rate of inflation, by 1984, a congregation of 300 will be needed to support a truly living church. Consider the escalation of utility costs, and you wonder how long a church of 15 persons can afford to heat and cool the sanctuary for one hour on Sunday morning, when there is another Methodist congregation 5 miles away.

CONCLUSION

Finally, we acknowledge that this report will not solve all the problems (it may solve none!); this session of the Annual Conference will not do all that needs to be done. So, we proceed with an unfinished task. We sense a real need for more of us to recover and live out the 'servant' role—not only as ordained ministers, but all of us as followers and servants of Christ.

We would remind us all of the objective of the South Carolina Annual Conference, as adopted for the balance of this quadrennium: "To share in word and deed the truth that, through Christ, we are God's people, and related to all humankind, with an imperative to enable a more fulfilling life for all people everywhere".

Our motivation cannot be power and fame, prestige and position. Dr. John W. Curry, Sr., retiring cabinet member, put it this way: "Victory is not won from the barrel of a gun, but at the insistence of a power of love". And his words reminded me of a sentence written by a classmate in seminary many years ago. Jack Parrish, a deceased member of this conference, wrote in a paper for Dr. G. Ray Jordan these words I have never forgotten: "If the atomic bomb is ever to be shackled, its chains must be forged in the foundry of love". Is that really different from the word in Zechariah 4:6? "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the Lord of Hosts."

So may God's Spirit work in us and through us, empowering us to do his will, for the glory of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

COMMITTEE ON ANNUAL CONFERENCE STRUCTURE

The Annual Conference has charged the Structure Committee with responsibility for recommending structure changes to the Annual Conference. Since some of both Special Committee's proposed structure changes are in conflict with the overall structural reorganization of the 1975 Annual Conference Structure Report, the Committee on Annual Conference Structure recommends the following alternative structures for Camps and Communications of the South Carolina Annual Conference:

- A. The Committee on Annual Conference Structure recommends there be a Board of Trustees of the Methodist Camp composed of twenty-four (24) elected members of whom sixteen (16) shall be lay persons and eight (8) shall be clergy persons. There shall be at least one (1) lay person from each district. There shall be no more than one (1) clergy person from a district at the time of election.

The Board shall be amenable to the Annual Conference and shall promote, give oversight to, coordinate and implement all policy on camping throughout the South Carolina Annual Conference.

The Board shall hire the camp superintendent and shall write job descriptions for the superintendent and other staff positions as needed. The camp superintendent shall be responsible for filling other staff positions, subject to approval of the Board.

The Board shall maintain proper care of the Methodist Camp facilities.

The Board shall work with the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration to insure adequate funding to implement and promote its programs and to underwrite any future property developments.

The Board shall be responsible for developing an annual budget, including setting personnel salaries, travel expenses for staff, etc. The Board shall set camp fee rates, and shall authorize and receive an annual audit.

The Board shall hold legal title(s) to all property under its jurisdiction.

The Board shall be related to the General Board of Discipleship, as per paragraphs 1309-1313 of the 1976 Discipline.

- B. The Committee on Annual Conference Structure recommends there be established a Task Force on camping needs in the South Carolina Annual Conference. The Task Force shall be composed of fourteen (14) members of whom three (3) shall be selected by the United Methodist Women, three (3) shall be selected by the Board of Laity, three (3) shall be selected by the Board of Education, three (3) shall be selected by the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Camp, one (1) youth shall be selected by the Youth Council and one (1) young adult shall be selected by the Young Adult Council. The Task Force shall make a progress report to the 1979 Annual Conference and a final report to the 1980 Annual conference. The Council on Finance and Administration shall fund the Task Force in the amount of $1,000 per year. The purpose of the Task Force shall be to determine the functions of camping within the total program of the United Methodist Church in South Carolina. The Task Force shall determine what facilities are needed to perform these functions. The Task Force shall also determine if these facilities are already available, or if they can be made available at the Methodist Camp. The Task Force shall present to the 1980 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference a comprehensive plan for consideration and possible adoption.
- C. The Committee on Annual Conference Structure recommends there be a Committee on Communications composed of eighteen (18) members, of whom twelve (12) shall be lay persons and six (6) shall be clergy persons. There shall be one (1) lay person from each district; there shall be no more than one (1) clergy person from a district at the time of election. For a period of transition of two (2) years there shall also be three (3) ex-officio members from the present Board of Trustees of The South Carolina United Methodist Advocate and The Methodist Center, selected by that Board. In addition, there shall be three (3) ex-officio members from the present Committee on Communications of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, selected by that Committee. The Committee on Communications shall be amenable to the Annual Conference and shall function as per paragraph 726.10 g-i of the 1976 Discipline. It shall also have the following responsibilities: public relations for the Annual Conference; coordinating and unifying public media messages and information about conference agencies' programs; planning, creating, producing and distributing audio-visual and multi-media materials; be the official news gathering and news disseminating agency for the South Carolina Annual Conference; publication of a weekly conference newspaper; and shall carry out all other communication functions relevant to the life of the United Methodist Church in South Carolina. The Committee on Communications shall be related to the United Methodist Communications as per paragraphs 1102ff of the 1976 Discipline. The Committee on communications shall employ a Director of Communications, whose duties shall include supervision of all communication activities as directed by the Committee. The Director shall also be responsible for news gathering, news disseminating, and the weekly publication of the conference newspaper. The Committee on Communications shall employ, upon the recommendation of the Director of Communications, an Assistant Director, whose duties shall include communication training, multi-media activities, and the interpretation and promotion of the General and Annual Conference programs and benevolences. The Assistant Director shall be amenable to the Director of Communications. The Committee on Communications shall provide adequate secretarial assistance to carry out the functions of communications.
- D. The Committee on Annual Conference Structure recommends that the Council on Finance and Administration fund the position of the Assistant Director by transferring those monies presently designated for the Annual Conference Council on Ministries' communication position to the Committee on Communications. The Committee on Annual Conference Structure recommends that conference benevolent funding to the weekly newspaper be continued in an amount no less than present funding, and that net proceeds from the operation of The Methodist Center be delivered to the Committee on Communications for assistance in the operation of the weekly newspaper.
- E. The Committee on Annual Conference Structure recommends that the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate and The Methodist Center become the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Center. For the two (2) year transitional period the Board shall be augmented by three (3) additional members (two (2) lay and one (1) clergy).

After the transitional period the Committee on Annual Conference Structure recommends the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Center be composed of eighteen (18) elected members of whom twelve (12) shall be lay persons and six (6) shall be clergy persons. There shall be one (1) lay person from each district; there shall be no more than one (1) clergy person from a district at the time of election.

The Board of Trustees of The Methodist Center shall be amenable to the South Carolina Annual Conference and shall hold legal title to and manage the affairs of The Methodist Center.

- F. Since the functions of the present Committee on Communication of the Council on Ministries have been assumed by the new Annual Conference Committee on Communications, it is recommended that Standing Rule 62 be deleted.

Respectfully submitted,
James F. Hood, Chairperson
Harry R. Stullenbarger, Secretary

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

REPORT NO. 1

Whereas, the DISCIPLINE of 1976, paragraph 934, provides for fixing an Equitable Salary System by the Annual Conference, therefore be it resolved: That the South Carolina Annual Conference fix an equitable salaries system according to the following scale to become effective on January 1, 1979, and continue until changed by this Annual Conference.

The Commission on Equitable Salaries looking to the future of South Carolina United Methodism recommends the following salary scale which will enable all churches and ministers to easily ascertain the Equitable Salaries Schedule:

- A. 1. The Total Equitable Compensation for Effective Members of the Annual Conference will be $11,130.
2. The Total Equitable Compensation for Probationary Members—(FULL TIME) will be $10,070.
3. The Total Equitable Compensation for Probationary Members—(NOT FULL TIME)—will be $8,056.
4. The Total Equitable Compensation for Associate Members will be $10,070.
5. The Total Equitable Compensation for Local Pastors—(FULL TIME)—will be $9,100.
6. The Total Equitable Compensation for Student Local Pastors will be $7,632.
7. If a minister has been serving a church for fifteen years in a FULL TIME capacity (EM—PM—AM—LP) $600 will be added to the minimum.

The Commission on Equitable Salaries will not assist churches who employ Assistant or Associate Pastors.

- B. The District Superintendent shall recommend the adjusted amounts which must be approved by the Commission on Equitable Salaries before payment can be made. Any person shall be considered a student pastor if he is enrolled in an accredited college or seminary for a degree.

This recommendation from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by a form provided by the Equitable Salaries Commission and completed by the minister indicating income from all sources. A second form (also provided by the Equitable Salaries Commission) completed by the church must accompany and be signed by the Chairman of the Administrative Board and the Chairman of the Pastor of Parish Relations Committee outlining the steps taken by the Charge to guarantee sufficient income including a statement indicating that the Charge has held an Every Member Commitment or a statement as to why an Every Member Commitment has not been conducted.

- C. Be it resolved that the Annual Conference through its Equitable Salaries Funds shall not pay in excess of 35 percent of the above amounts. The local churches shall be encouraged to pay the other 65 percent, but this resolution will not hinder the Board of Missions and Church Extension or other agencies of the church from making appropriations from its discretionary funds. Exception to this resolution will be allowed under the following conditions:

- (a) The church must meet all the requirements of the Equitable Salaries Commission.

- (b) The Administrative Board of the said church must declare in writing to the District Superintendent that the above requirement having been met, it cannot pay the 65 percent.
 - (c) The District Superintendent and the Cabinet must recommend this exception unanimously.
 - (d) TO BE GRANTED AN EXCEPTION, ALL ABOVE REQUIREMENTS MUST BE MET.
 - (e) Be it further resolved that $2,000 be set aside as a discretionary fund to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Salaries on application of the District Superintendent.
 - (f) Equitable Salaries Funds shall be disbursed monthly, and shall be given only to the minister involved.
- D. Be it further resolved that, in order to make possible the organization of Larger Parishes and Cooperative Ministries, and the appointment of Parish Directors of skill and competence, that the limitations of Paragraph A above shall not apply, and that the final determination of the amount to be paid from Equitable Salary Funds to Larger Parish Ministerial staffs shall be agreed upon after consultation between the Equitable Salary Commission and the District Superintendents. Agreements thus reached shall be renegotiated after a maximum period of four years with adjustments to be considered each year according to need.

EQUITABLE SALARIES FOR NEWLY SET-UP WORK—1976

SCHEDULE A

- Notes:
1. In all cases where a new work is being considered, the District Superintendents shall notify the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1 preceeding the Annual Conference session that the work is to be effected, providing the projected cost to the Equitable Salary Commission.
 2. Schedule A applies to ministers serving first pastorates.
 3. These schedules apply to probationary members or to members in full connection only. In case of the appointment of an approved supply, the salary will be the responsibility of the Equitable Salaries Commission.
 4. First full year of church's organization.
- 1st Year: The salary shall be the top amount allowed under existing Equitable Salaries Commission regulations applied to one in this category. The local church from its funds may increase this amount by not more than $300 without reducing the Equitable Salaries appropriation.
- 2nd Year: The salary of the second year will depend upon that paid the first year and may be increased by not more than $300, but the local church must assume one-fourth of the total salary paid.
- 3rd Year: The salary of the third year will depend upon that paid the second year and may be increased by not more than $300, but the local church must assume one-half of the total salary paid.
- 4th Year: The salary of the fourth year will depend upon that paid the third year and may be increased by not more than $300 but the local church must assume three-fourths of the total salary paid.

Time served in this present appointment under Schedule A does not count as a part of the four years' experience required under Schedule B.
- 1st Year: Note: First full year of church's organization. The Equitable Salary may be according to the minister's category.
Special Note: The District Superintendent may apply to the Church Extension Section of the Board of Missions for a salary that is more in keeping with the amount received by this minister in his previous appointment.

- 2nd Year: The salary depends on amount received first year. At the beginning of the second year, the newly established church must assume one-fourth of the minister's salary.

1. Except where the administrators of this salary schedule feel an extreme case of hardship exists, no salary funds will be granted to a church after the fourth full year.
 2. A "new church" may be interpreted to mean an "engulfed" situation or a relocation project, if it is determined to be a church extension responsibility by the Church Extension Section of the Board of Missions. The District Superintendent must provide a substantiating statement from the Conference Board of Missions that the engulfed situation is in reality an engulfed situation.
 3. The local church shares of this salary schedule is interpreted to mean—all sources of income from the local church.
 4. These figures are minimum and any amount of funds from any source in any guise added to these figures will be subtracted from the Conference support given.
 5. In all cases where a newly set-up work is attached to an existing charge, these become figures.

- F. If the Bishop and cabinet find it necessary to make an appointment, requiring Equitable compensation supplement beyond the regular schedule, it may be granted upon cabinet request for a term not to exceed three years in any given situation, and Equitable Salaries shall not pay in excess of 35 percent of total compensation in any instance.
- G. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that $60,000 of the Equitable Salaries Reserve be designated for salary supplement for Ethnic Minority Local Church Empowerment; that the monies disbursed over a three year period ending December 31, 1980, and that no local church or charge receive more than $800 in any one year, and then only if this amount is matched dollar for dollar, and that the ministers receiving said supplement be in the effective relationship and a resident Pastor of the church or charge served.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL PENSION STUDY COMMITTEE

At the 1977 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the members approved the formation of a special study committee that would report to the Annual Conference and to the Board of Pensions regarding our pension program.

Bishop Tullis asked the following persons to serve as members of the Special Study Committee: G. F. Beazley, Jr., W. R. Bouknight, III, Douglas Broome, E. A. Cline, B. J. Cooper, Mrs. C. R. Huston, Harry Kent, C. J. Lupo, Jr., Harold McLeod, Eugene A. R. Montgomery, and John Wood Robison.

The Committee has held four meetings. Fundamental concerns were 1) low average annuity rates which were providing insufficient retirement income, 2) an unfunded liability for past service costs in excess of $15,600,000 and 3) that many congregations in the conference were concerned about the absolute size of the annual request for pensions from the Board of Pensions and its relative size vis a vis world service and conference benevolences.

The Special Pension Study Committee, after due deliberation, recommends a campaign for pensions to net six million dollars during the quadrennium 1980-1984, the major objective of which is to provide necessary funds to help underwrite the cost of providing future pension for service already rendered (funding of unfunded liability).

The program for pension improvements would be undertaken during the period 1980-1984, with the funds to be realized outside the conference apportionments system.

Respectfully submitted,
John Wood Robison, Chairman
Harold McLeod, Secretary

THE CONFERENCE INSURANCE PROGRAM

REPORT NO. 1

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The insurance program of the South Carolina Conference is designed to provide the ministerial members of the Conference and their dependents a comprehensive plan for major medical and life insurance. The program is administered through a group plan underwritten by The Prudential Insurance Company of America and supervised by the Commission on Insurance. Eligible for coverage under the program are ministerial members of the Conference in the following categories:

- those fully employed by a church either in the effective relationship, iridicatory membership, associate membership, or full time lay pastors
- seminarians in the second and third years
- ministers who are full time employees of Conference boards, agencies, or institutions
- all district superintendents
- student pastors who are serving work within the boundaries of the Conference

Certain lay persons who are full time employees of the Conference are also provided coverage. In seeking coverage, an applicant is required to give proof of insurability. Eligibility requirements are set forth in a guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN published by the Commission. This guidebook is available free of charge from the Office of Ministerial Affairs, P.O. Box 11284, Columbia, South Carolina 29211.

Since an objective of the insurance program is to provide a plan of comprehensive insurance coverage, the requirement is made that all participants in the program enroll for both life insurance and major medical insurance.

This insurance program is continuously reviewed and analyzed by the Commission on Insurance, the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs, and the Prudential Insurance Company of America. Coverage is reviewed periodically in order to keep the program strong and in order to provide coverage that is adequate to meet the financial demands of a changing economy.

REPORT NO. 3

MAJOR MEDICAL INSURANCE BENEFITS

The major medical plan of the Conference Insurance Program provides benefits for reasonable and customary charges incurred by the insured, or a covered dependent, while receiving hospital services, treatments and supplies ordered by a physician. After a $150. annual deductible, the plan provides for payment of 80% of the first $2,000.00 of eligible expenses and 100% of all other eligible expenses over $2,000.00 up to an unlimited maximum.

The coverage for retired ministers is reduced to a lifetime maximum of $15,000.00 for the insured and each eligible dependent.

Other details of the major medical expense plan are contained in the guidebook, "Your Group Insurance Plan".

REPORT NO. 4 MEDICARE BENEFITS

Medicare is a Federal health insurance plan, administered under the Social Security Act, for the benefit of persons 65 years of age or older. The Medicare Program consists of two parts: (a) hospital insurance, designed to pay for hospital and related health services and (b) medical insurance, designed to pay for physicians' services and related medical services. Under terms of the Medicare Program, hospital insurance (part a) is provided for all persons insured under the plan. The medical insurance (part b) is an optional feature for which the insured pays a stated monthly premium.

The Conference Insurance Program is so designed that it provides certain benefits which began at the point where Medicare coverage terminates, and, in addition, makes provision for some benefits not covered by Medicare at all. Therefore, it is required that all ministers 65 or over, or whose wives are 65 or over, will enroll in the health insurance plan provided by Medicare. Further, it is expected that those eligible for Medicare will enroll in the full program (part a and part b) in order to derive the maximum benefit afforded by Medicare.

Inasmuch as insurance coverage for eligible retirees is provided for them by the Conference without cost to the insured, it is imperative that all retirees seek Medicare coverage upon attaining the age of 65. All persons who are or could be covered under Medicare should be absolutely positive that the hospital they are entering is one which participates in the Medicare program. Our plan does not pay any benefits which are or could be paid by Medicare.

A handbook explaining the provisions of Medicare is available from any district office of the Social Security Administration.

REPORT NO. 5

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

Billing: The Administrator of Ministerial Affairs sends a quarterly statement to everyone enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program. Statements are mailed in January, April, July and October. Although statements are mailed quarterly, payments for premiums may be made on monthly basis. Bank drafts and post-dated checks may be used in making premium payments, if desired.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keep his premium payments current. The Commission on Insurance has instructed the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs to cancel the insurance coverage of any participant who does not pay his premium by the end of the quarter for which he has been billed.

Ministers Serving Special Appointments: For the purpose of proper cost analysis, it is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for insurance, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. (The "institutional share" for ministers serving churches is paid through the Council on Finance and Administration appropriation directed to the Conference Insurance Program.) This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, those serving Methodist colleges and other Methodist institutions and agencies operating under Board of Trustees should they elect coverage under the Conference Insurance Program. In every case the full cost of coverage must be paid by the insured, his employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and his employer.

Premium Payments: Premium Payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account".

Application for Insurance Coverage: Eligibility for enrollment begins with recognition as a probationary member, full-time employment as a lay pastor or student lay pastor, or as a transfer from another Annual Conference, and so noted in report of the Board of the Ministry. Enrollment at any other time classes an applicant as a "late entrant". Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs. If not completed and in the hands of the Administrator within 31 days from the date of eligibility, the applicant will be classed as a "late entrant." If a health statement is then necessary for a health statement to be furnished, and in most instances, a physical examination will be required at the expense of the insured.

Claims Procedure: The cost of medical care continues to rise, therefore, the Office of Ministerial Affairs and The Prudential Insurance Company of America audit every claim with great care. Conference Insurance Program participants can render valuable assistance in the claims process by:

- (1) making certain that they have received all of the services for which they are requesting payment
- (2) supplying the documentation required to validate their claim
- (3) refraining from asking reimbursement for services clearly excluded under the terms of the insurance program

Claims must be submitted at least quarterly, but not more often than once a month.

REPORT NO. 6

COVERAGE FOR LAY EMPLOYEES

The Commission on Insurance receives, from time to time, requests from conference boards and agencies for insurance coverage for lay employees. Accordingly, the Commission has adopted the following policy in this connection.

Conference insurance coverage is available to all employees of the United Methodist Church directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference, who are not under the direction of a Board of Trustees, provided the employee (the insured) and the agency concerned bear their full share of the cost of the insurance.

Individuals making less than $5,000 per annum will be covered by $2,000 life insurance but will not be eligible for term and paid-up coverage.

Coverage under the major medical insurance shall be the same as for all other persons covered, and all provisions governing eligibility for the Conference Insurance Program shall apply.

REPORT NO. 7

COORDINATION OF BENEFITS

The purpose of health care insurance is to help meet actual expenses. In line with that purpose, the Conference Insurance Program contains a non-profit provision which coordinates our plan with other plans under which an individual is covered so that the total benefits available will not exceed 100% of the allowable expenses. Under this plan, if a dependent, employed wife is covered by another group plan, application for insurance benefits should first be made under the employee's own policy, then application may be made to the Conference Insurance Program for any additional benefits that might be due.

Strict adherence to this policy is essential if we are to maintain good benefits under our program at a reasonable cost. A detailed explanation of the "coordination" provision is contained in "Your Group Insurance Plan".

REPORT NO. 8

ELECTION OF PROGRAM ADMINISTRATOR

In accordance with Conference Standing Rule 71, Delos Corderman has been elected administrator of the Office of Ministerial Affairs with responsibility for administration of the conference insurance program.

REPORT NO. 9

- (a) $44,216.00 for administration of the program.
- (b) $487,379.00 to pay the Conference's share of the cost of the insurance program in providing coverage for eligible ministers of the Annual Conference.
- (2) That ministerial premium payments for the period beginning July 1, 1978 through June 30, 1979 be set at follows:

- (a) Categories 1-5 of Report No. 2 will be $60.00 per month.

- (d) The premium for the actuarially retired member under age 65 with dependent will be $93.00 monthly.

Participants in the Conference Insurance Program shall pay their premiums monthly in advance. All coverage shall be subject to cancellation if payments are not made prior to the end of the quarter for which the insured is billed.

Every participant in the Conference Insurance Program shall become familiar with the provisions of the program as outlined in the guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN, and further, that each participant shall maintain a file of and become familiar with the additional instructions relating to the program which may be issued from time to time by the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs, to the end that claims procedures be expedited, required administrative procedures be followed, and that the present high level of benefits be maintained.

This program shall become effective June 1, 1978, and the rate structure for premiums, when approved by the Conference, shall become effective July 1, 1978.

1. We recommend a salary of $19,375 for each District Superintendent for the year 1979. (This is an increase of 6.0%, the same percentage of increase of the "Average Salary" paid all ministers in the South Carolina Annual Conference in 1977 compared with the average salary for 1976, as computed by the General Board of Pensions.)

2. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15 percent ($2,906.25) of the District Superintendent's salary for the year 1979 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.

3. Each District Superintendent is also to have available up to $2,500 for travel in his district, $1,950 for travel outside his district (all travel expenses to be vouchered) and one-half the cost of Social Security.

SECTION 3

1. Each District Board of Trustees shall elect a treasurer from the elected trustees of said District. The treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, writing all vouchers only for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings, and not to include any utility payments. The moving expenses of any incoming District Superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $50 packing expenses. The treasurer of the District Board of Trustees shall report to his Board on all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.

2. Below are the percentages of average net funds that each church will pay to its respective District Parsonage Fund:

| District | Percentage | Amount to be Raised—1979 | Approved 1978 |
|-------------|------------|--------------------------|---------------|
| Anderson | 0.3462% | $4,500.00 | $4,250.00 |

| Walterboro | 0.9911% | 8,000.00 | 8,000.00 |

3. The District Administration Fund in each district shall be expended as follows:

| Office Expenses | $8,250.00 | Rent, secretarial salary, utilities, supplies, etc. |
| Travel | | |
| In district | 2,500.00 | |

| District Program | 3,000.00 | |
| Continuing Education | 300.00 | |

The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, but is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new District Superintendent.

4. Recognizing that different conditions exist in the several districts, a district superintendent may overspend up to $1,500 in any of the above categories of expenses, but in no case may the total district expenditures from the District Administration Fund exceed $18,484.00.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

REPORT NO. 1

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

By and large this has been a good year. The Discipline purposes and functions of the Conference Council on Ministries have been carried out. Programs adopted by the Annual Conference have been effectively implemented and evaluated. Plans are again before you coming from our boards, agencies, and the Conference Council on Ministries. But rather than dwell on specifics let me lift out a few general concerns for the future.

The Council on Ministries structural concept has a lot of positive possibilities for the building of meaningful mission and ministry on the local church, district and annual conference levels. Each year we work with this concept, we are recognizing more of the positive values and taking advantage of the possibilities offered. However, at the same time the council structural concept has some inherent aspects, which, unless we work very carefully with them now, will create real problems for us on down the road.

One positive aspect has been the capacity to more easily coordinate annual conference programs and to develop the concept of "Mission and Ministry by Objective." This continues to offer real potential for the future.

At the same time, this aspect presents two concerns. As we more narrowly focus resources to the accomplishment of specific goals, decisions must be made to bypass, with resources, concerns which are real but not as pressing. The tendency after bypassing is to forget or neglect. We must not let this happen.

The second concern is that we must have an awareness of and sensitivity to a number of persons who have an appreciation for conference goals but whose historical interest and service has been in other specialized ministries, which again are needed and appreciated but not as critical or pressing at the moment as may be those indicated by their adoption as goals.

As we continue to mature in the council concept, we must be constantly appropriating its strengths and be vigilant about developing weaknesses, as they become apparent, into strengths.

This system offers so many possibilities that I, for one, would like to see us work toward its perfection with ever greater commitment.

To do this means that we must work toward better program coordination on the three levels of program work (local church, district, and annual conference) so that each level gets the benefit of what the others are doing and the data they are gathering. To do this means that we are going to have to be very sensitive (working with DISCIPLINE regulations which have a permissive rather than mandated district council structure) to maintaining our connectional linkages so data, interpretation, and program can freely flow from level to level. To do this means funding more effective ways for promotion and interpretation which is less print media centered and more person-to-person oriented. And to do this means a continued commitment to connectional service on the part of a lot of good United Methodists across the state of South Carolina.

A special word of appreciation is in order for both our program and support staff. They have worked long and hard, traveled lonely, dark roads late at night, missed many meals and other opportunities with their families, sat through many lengthy meetings, worked with and led many church groupings, and all with a deep commitment to their Lord and the United Methodist Church in South Carolina.

Joe Alley will be missed greatly. I have asked him to include his final report to the Conference Council on Ministries in the Pre-Conference Report along with mine.

F. Oscar Smith, Jr.

REPORT NO. 2

REPORT OF THE COORDINATOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

In June, 1974, after three exciting years in youth ministry, I was assigned by the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries to work in cooperation with the Council's Committee on Communication toward development of "a total program of communication in the South Carolina Conference." I accepted that assignment with keen anticipation and gratitude for a further opportunity in creative ministry on behalf of the South Carolina Conference.

At that time I gave myself four years to reach the desired objectives: in June, 1978 I will reach the end of that four-year period. Accordingly, I have resigned my position with the Council staff and have asked for a new ministry assignment. I have done so with a deep sense of appreciation for the Council, its staff and for friends who've shared the daily struggles of developing more adequate communications ministries for our Conference.

Though history is the final judge of every creative endeavor, it does appear the efforts by numerous persons serving in Conference communications work have been solidly and lastingly productive. Founded on the firm ground of a February, 1975 Consultation on Annual Conference Communications which produced a five-year plan of development, we have moved forward on four fronts:

(1) In the area of PROGRAM AND BENEVOLENCE INTERPRETATION we have upgraded all publicity materials of the South Carolina Conference. Heavy emphasis has been placed on interpretative articles in the Advocate, with the former Concepts column and the present Council on Ministries page serving as primary vehicles. We have operated from the philosophy that interpretation is primarily a task of the local church; the Conference responsibility is to produce clear, creative materials to assist in that task.

We make no claim to having a full program of interpretation; funding is inadequate. We do feel we've been good stewards of the $3000 annual allotment for this phase of our ministry. Giving to Conference and General funds, to the joy and credit of every interpreter in our Conference, has risen steadily over the past four years.

(2) In the area of PUBLIC MEDIA RELATIONSHIPS we feel a stronger sense of achievement. Our studies show The United Methodist Church gets its share of coverage in the public media. Three major daily newspapers of the state give special attention to our Annual Conference session. Two wire services accept and carry releases by South Carolina United Methodist Communications. Television stations have shown total cooperation, and we annually feed news of our session to a 40-plus chain of radio stations. Six volunteers in our Public Media work have professional level competence in this area. The Reverend Marion Crooks, Mrs. Peggy Huddleston and the Reverend Bill Williams have given extraordinary service.

(3) In the area of PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION we have established a Printing Center and a Media Center for the production of printed and audiovisual resources. Mrs. Jeanette Mack, manager of the Printing Center, has provided outstanding guidance and service in both development and maintenance of the Printing Center, which now produces over 1,000,000 impressions yearly and is growing steadily. In this area we can handle, through in-house or sub-contract work, everything from a church bulletin to a billboard.

The W. Grady Newman Media Center, so named for our beloved, longtime Conference TRAFICO leader, is a professional quality recording studio and visuals production area. From this Center has come filmstrips, tape-slide interpretive shows, multi-image productions for three Annual Conference sessions, cassette tape duplication and taped interviews for our United Methodist Communications national radio show Connection. John George, a Columbia business man, has provided invaluable assistance in development of the Media Center and the entire program of radio ministries.

The Audio-Visual Library, now under direction of Mrs. Nancy Magers, a professional media educator, has been upgraded for resources and services. Membership in the Library is over 125 charges and film use continues to rise. Mrs. Magers is employed five days weekly during the morning hours.

This area also cooperates with United Methodist Communications in production of the Conference Program Calendar, which reached the 6000 sales mark for 1978. The Rev. Dr. Barry Lambert has served effectively as editor of the Program Calendar, and almost 10% of all Calendars distributed in the Church are placed in this Conference.

Further ministries of Production and Distribution include a mailing service, a bulk paper-purchase service and general consultation to our constituency in printing and audiovisual production.

(4) The area of COMMUNICATIONS EDUCATION has been the primary focus of my work. Four years ago there were few identifiable mass communications workers in our Conference; today we have 47 trained persons, 35 of whom have professional level skills in one or more areas of communications work. This group, The Conference Corps of Communicators, has rendered voluntary services to the Conference over the past four years worth approximately $200,000. To these persons I owe a profound word of gratitude, with special thanks going to communications education coordinator the Reverend Mike Vandiver.

There is need for wide advancement at all levels of the church in communications education; the Conference Corps of Communicators stands ready to assist in that task. Training is available in each area from basic interpersonal communication skills to impacting society through mass communications campaigns.

In all these efforts we have felt the nurturing support of Council directors Wallace Fridy and Oscar Smith, the daily encouragement and helpful suggestions of the Council staff, the total cooperation of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate, the wise guidance of the Committee on Communication under leadership of the Rev. Harlan Wilson, the counsel of Bishop Edward L. Tullis and the cabinet, the enabling sense of teamwork by South Carolina United Methodist ministers and laity and the energizing, compelling flow of the Christ in whose name we serve!

REPORT NO. 4

STAFF ASSIGNMENTS

The Council on Ministries has two basic areas of programmatic concern. One is connective ministry which allows us to join together as an annual conference to do what we cannot do independently as local churches or districts. The other is a resourcing task which enables districts and local churches to engage in ministry at that level more effectively.

The council employs a staff to facilitate the two programmatic concerns. In order to be most effective the staff operates in a manner best suited to each programmatic concern. Following is a break-down of staff functions and tasks by each staff member:

1. In order to perform the larger ministry and to develop a comprehensive Annual Conference program, conference boards and agencies join together in planning. In order to facilitate the implementation of their plans, the staff works as a team with each member providing an area of expertise.

F. Oscar Smith, Jr., manages the team, cares for administration, and facilitates development of leaders.

H. Sam Johnson facilitates the gathering and interpretation of data upon which goals and program decisions are based.

Marian A. Jones facilitates the development of ministry with youth.

Fletcher Carter facilitates the building and implementation of the Annual Conference program.

(To Be Named) facilitates the interpretation and communication of the Annual Conference program.

2. In order to resource districts and local churches and provide help as needed in specific areas (i.e. Evangelism, Worship, Social Concerns etc.) to perform their own ministries, the boards and agencies of our conference seek to develop special knowledge in their given areas of responsibility and stand ready to help when asked by districts and local churches.

In order to provide help as is needed, the staff is assigned to specific boards and agencies. The staff will be familiar with the content concerns of the boards and agencies and also with resources available from the corresponding general and jurisdictional boards and agencies. If help is needed in areas covered by the boards and agencies, it can be secured by contacting the staff person assigned.

REPORT NO. 7

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board is now organized to carry out the duties and functions assigned to it by the Discipline and the Conference Council on Ministries. We have continued to support the Missional Priority on Hunger. In the past financial year, hunger funds raised during the Lenten Season and other times were:

UMCOR $94,481.58
Hungrief $21,829.66
Hunger Missional Priority $12,842.69
Haiti School Lunches $18,359.63
S. C. Hunger Funds $2,410.92

RECOMMENDATIONS

After considering the many concerns brought before the Board by its members and our constituency, we offer the following recommendations:

1. We re-affirm our historic belief that a universal sabbath day is essential to the dignity and welfare of persons and therefore urge that present laws which safeguard such a day be retained. We further urge that United Methodists exert their influence and set an example in keeping with the spirit of the laws.
2. That we call upon United Methodists to support the farmers and farm workers of this Nation as they seek to establish a fair and equitable pricing structure for food and other agricultural products to the end that those who invest their lives in food production may be assured reasonable economic stability and security in the industry of which they are a part and which is necessary to the well-being of all persons.
3. We commend the South Carolina House of Representatives for its most recent rejection of proposals to legalize para-mutual betting.
4. That our local churches continue to support the Christian Action Council and the Alston Wilkes Society.

5. We recommend that United Methodist Churches in South Carolina maintain an active posture for reconciliation in conflicts that occur between management and labor. That local churches hold seminars or discussion opportunities that will provide for better understanding of the issues involved where all sides might be heard in a climate of respect and mutual trust. We believe that the Church is called upon to offer basic support for the principles of justice and fair play to those responsible for decisions in both management and labor.

6. That a Sunday, July 2, be set aside as a day of "Prayer for Peace in the Mid-East" in the United Methodist Churches of South Carolina.

7. That in order to extend our witness to the Father's love for all the children of His creation, transcending all boundaries of religion and nation, that the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church encourage active support of UNICEF.

8. We recommend that each United Methodist Church in South Carolina become familiar with The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church and that occasionally the Social Creed of our Church be used as an affirmation of faith in worship services.

9. Historically, Protestant Churches of the Southern "Bible Belt" have vigorously opposed government funding of parochial and private elementary and secondary level schools. Among other reasons, opposition has been based on constitutional grounds which mandate separation of religion and government as institutions of the people. There is before Congress proposed legislation that would grant tuition tax credit to students in private schools.

While we do not propose to dictate where parents shall educate their children, we feel that such governmental support would be unconstitutional, weaken public schools, and even hurt private schools. For these reasons, we express our dis-approval of such legislation.

10. This being an election year, with party primaries to be held on June 13 and the general election on November 7, we urge all United Methodists to become actively engaged in the election process by studying the issues and the candidates and then voting their conscience.

11. We affirm the rights of freedom of religion and speech for all persons regardless of their faith or lack of faith and the right of each individual to freely pursue his or her religious faith or to pursue no religious faith at all. Therefore, we oppose the bill in the South Carolina House of Representatives that would prohibit the State chartering a group promoting atheism. A legislature which would outlaw atheism could just as easily outlaw Christianity.

12. Though we express deepest appreciation for the many fine, moral, enriching entertainments provided by ABC, NBC and CBS, we express great concern about the tremendous influence of television viewing and its present degrading influence on our youth by means of distorted use of violence, sex, alcohol, and profanity. We condemn these abuses and demand cleaner and more wholesome family-type programming to the end that this powerful teaching media might henceforth become a tool to lead (rather than mislead) our country's greatest resource — our youth.

13. We express objection to the military involvement by the USSR and Cuba on the continent of Africa.

Your Board continues to be sensitive to human values as expressed in the Christian faith and affirmed by the United Methodist Church.

Respectfully submitted,
Betty Washington, Chairperson
Don Britt, Secretary

REPORT NO. 8 REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

PART I

We began this year with twenty-four members of the Board of Education. Three of the thirty have had to resign. Our committees have experienced some frustration because of the lack of person-power. Perhaps as we grow together, we shall be able to function more effectively.

Our committee reports which follow give some review of our activities over the past period of service. I am extremely grateful to the faithful chairpersons and loyal members who have worked on these committees.

I want to express much appreciation to the Reverend Oscar Smith who has given us dedicated leadership from the Conference Council on Ministries staff. He handles many details which must of necessity be administered through the Conference office.

We are thankful for the fine service of Mr. Wesley Voigt, Superintendent of the United Methodist Camp. He has been a diligent worker.

As servants of Christ in His Church we have endeavored to be about our Father's business.

James H. Nates, Chairman

PART II THE COMMITTEE ON CAMPS AND CONFERENCES

The Committee has endeavored to meet more frequently during the past year to address itself to long-range planning as well as ongoing policy decisions. The effort was made to evaluate Summershine, 1977, thoroughly before implementing for 1978 and planning for 1979.

Our summer conferences for youth continue to provide rich fellowship and growth. Youth Encounter, Impactivity Week and Come-and-Help-Us-Week draw together young people and adult counselors from all over the annual conference. Planned by dedicated volunteer staffs (in consultation with the Conference Council on Youth Ministries), these experiences in Christian living help bridge generational, racial and cultural gaps and leave participants with a hopeful vision of the great potential within the United Methodist family in South Carolina.

In an effort to attract larger numbers of young people to these activities, we have gathered leadership teams earlier in the year and tried to promote each event separately on the merits of its unique promise. We are budgeting realistically and anticipating exciting new life for Summershine conferences with the move in 1978 to Spartanburg Methodist College.

Our South Carolina United Methodist Camp continues to be a setting for significant ministry on every level of the Church's life—from conference-wide camping in the summer to local church weekend retreats. The Camp is utilized year-round and could be an even more effective resource with additional winterized facilities. To reach our constituency more effectively in 1978, we are offering a second week of summer camping for senior highs and several additional weeks throughout the summer for mid highs and junior highs.

Much of the Committee's working time has been spent studying ways to stabilize the Camp financially and to provide adequately for its maintenance and improvement. Emergencies and the wear of age hit hard in 1977! Floods destroyed bridges over Mathews Creek and damaged the Camp sewerage system. A severe winter dealt Camp roads terrible blows. The new pool required repairs and a furnace and the Camp Superintendent's car wore out. Altogether, the bill for maintenance, repair and replacement totalled over $40,000!

We managed to keep going thanks to the concern of the United Methodists of South Carolina who responded with great generosity after the disastrous flooding. Also, special appreciation is due the Council on Finance and Administration who granted the maximum emergency funds ($7,500) to assist in repairing damages. Giving on Camp Sunday and for flood relief in 1977 amounted to $55,266.36, a large increase over the previous year. But the Camp needs that much every year simply to operate and maintain its facilities properly. Still, that impressive figure represents giving from only slightly more than half of the churches in our Conference. And those churches who give on Camp Sunday average only about half of the suggested goal of $1.00 per church school member.

The Committee is having to consider significant increases in weekend fees, in fees for summer camp, and requests for subsidies from the Annual Conference. We are planning aggressive promotion across the state, focusing primarily on those churches who have not heard the Camp's story and do not support it with money or campers.

The Committee has participated in the discussions of the Special Committee to Study the Methodist Camp. Through whatever administrative structure this Annual Conference adopts, the critical needs and vital ministry of our Camp must continue to be placed forcefully before the United Methodists of South Carolina.

PART III THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Introduction

This year has been a time of transition for the Committee on Higher Education and Campus Ministry as the reorganization of a much smaller Board of Education necessitated the merger of the work of two previous committees (Senior College Committee and Campus Ministry Committee) into the present Committee on Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Since the membership of this committee is too small to effectively administer the work of higher education concerns and campus ministry as well, we have sought to include additional interested personnel to give a broader scope of wisdom and direction to the Committee. Each of our United Methodist college presidents has also been invited to select a representative from his staff to serve as a liaison between the college and the Committee on Higher Education and Campus Ministry.

Higher Education Concerns

1) Of significant interest to our Conference during this past year was the selection of Dr. Ralph T. Mirse to succeed Dr. R. Wright Spears as President of Columbia College. We welcome Dr. Mirse to South Carolina, and we anticipate our work together as he assumes this position of leadership.

2) The Office of Loans and Scholarships of the Board of Higher Education and Ministry reports that 1977 showed a significant increase over 1976 in the Student Day Offering, netting approximately $500,000. But 1/2 million dollars is a very small amount when dealing with the provision of loans and scholarships for United Methodist students across the entire Church. Interpretive information for the Loans and Scholarships program (including the new Associates plan) is available from your district director of education or the district superintendent's office. Please make use of this material, particularly the filmstrip, "Any Rabbits in Your Hat".

3) The Black College Fund continues to be depended upon heavily by our twelve predominantly black United Methodist Colleges. Their needs are even greater with rising inflationary costs. Each local church is encouraged to make this Fund a priority in its benevolence program.

Campus Ministry

Our Wesley Foundation directors and part-time campus ministers continue to work effectively with the young adults of our state despite the meager budgets with which they must operate. We are very appreciative of their skills and their commitment to this important ministry.

The Committee on Higher Education and Campus Ministry, with leadership provided by the campus ministers, has initiated during 1977 the study of a new style of ministry for our Conference that would move away from a campus-oriented, student-faculty ministry to a comprehensive young adult ministry. The need for a new model of ministry has surfaced with the continued development of community colleges and vocational and technical schools that do not have a strong campus identity. The focus of this ministry will be upon the career and life decisions confronting young adults who are dispersed in all structures of society.

An extension of this concept of young adult ministry has been the work of two of our Wesley Foundation directors with the Commission on Enlistment in the recruitment of young adults for church-related vocations. This will continue to emerge as a priority for our campus ministers.

A Financial Word

The unfortunate decision by the 1977 Annual Conference to decrease the apportionment percentage for the support of our senior colleges and campus ministries (Senior College Fund decreased from 4.5% to 4.25%; Campus Ministry decreased from 1% to .9352% of total giving) has placed a severe financial burden upon our Wesley Foundations and has subtly communicated to our senior colleges our decreasing concern for higher education. It is the hope of our Committee that the 1978 Annual Conference will take action to restore adequate financial support for our campus ministries and colleges. We do not want to be forced into the position of having to decide which of our Wesley Foundations must be closed, nor do we want to jeopardize the mutually beneficial relationship that the South Carolina Conference has traditionally had with Wofford, Columbia and Claflin Colleges. Please give these matters your careful consideration as we set our priorities for the future.

Respectfully submitted,
Marion B. Crooks, Jr., Chairman

PART V CLAFLIN COLLEGE

Claflin College continues to be grateful to Bishop Edward L. Tullis, The Cabinet, ministers and laypersons of the South Carolina Conference for the support given to higher education in general, and the Claflin Challenge in particular. The response to this cause has exceeded our expectations.

In addition to the District Rallies, the President and/or Choir have received many special invitations from churches across the Conference. In each instance we were well received.

As of January 15, 1978, over 18% of the pledged goal had been submitted to the Conference treasurer. It is my hope that by the time the South Carolina Conference convenes in June we will have had the ground-breaking ceremonies for the new Health and Physical Education Center. The students, faculty, staff and trustees join me in these words of thanks.

The financial position of the College remains stable. Recession and constant escalation of costs make it difficult to retain this position and operate within a balance budget.

Those who have kept abreast with the trends on testing in areas of higher education agree that there has been a decline on test scores made by students in institutions of learning throughout the United States. Claflin is endeavoring to respond to this situation by improving all areas of the curriculum. Non-credit remedial courses are now mandatory for students found to be deficient in English and mathematics. These students will be identified before registration by the Admissions Office on the basis of SAT and ACT scores, as well as high school transcripts according to the established guidelines. Such remedial courses will be satisfactory completed before students may enroll in regular English and mathematics courses.

The religious life activities continue to be encouraging. A large number of young men and women have expressed interest in full time Christian service. Several young men are serving as student pastors.

We ask your continued prayers in all of our endeavors.

H. V. Manning

PART VI

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA COLLEGE

It is with appreciation for the continuing interest and support of the United Methodists of South Carolina that this report is submitted on behalf of Columbia College to the 1978 Annual Conference.

The Church continues to be important to Columbia College as it has been across the years, with its spiritual influence, its economic support and its assistance in student recruitment. The College continues to be appreciative of this important and significant relationship.

For the first time in twenty-six years a new name will appear at the conclusion of this report. Therefore, it seems appropriate at this time to express appreciation for the leadership which Dr. R. Wright Spears gave to Columbia College during his distinguished twenty-six year tenure as President. Columbia College stands today as a monument to his dedication both to the church and to Christian Higher Education. It will be the purpose of the new administration to continue the same close and mutually beneficial relationship between Columbia College and the South Carolina Annual Conference that has existed over the years.

In his 1977 report to the Annual Conference, Dr. Spears spoke eloquently of financial needs of Columbia College, complicated by deficit operating budgets over the past three years and a small endowment. Columbia, like all small, privately supported colleges, has continuing financial pressures. The support of the Church is crucial to her future welfare.

However, there are encouraging signs. Enrollment has increased again this year and the 1978-79 enrollment promises to register still another increase. Financial support through gifts and grants has been low for Columbia College as compared with colleges of similar size and reputation. However, gains were registered in 1977, largely through increased alumnae, corporate and church support.

Plans for 1978, include an expanded effort on the part of the college to increase support through annual giving, increased endowment and deferred giving on the part of all the major constituencies of the college.

Academically, Columbia College continues to enjoy a well-deserved reputation for quality education. The Faculty and Administrative Staff are outstanding; students are bright, attractive and responsive. The new Music-Arts Building provides a splendid new academic facility that has been greatly needed. New and improved programs in several areas are in process. Masters programs in Music, Education and English are being developed.

The Board of Trustees has been supportive and helpful to a new administration. The Board is providing invaluable leadership in financial support, academic planning and concern for student life.

The following brief paragraphs comprise the conclusion of my Inaugural Statement on February 4, 1978. It seems appropriate to use them in concluding this report.

As a college there can be no question that ours is a Christian heritage or that today ours is a task that finds purpose and meaning in terms of Christian values. I do not, I cannot agree with those who today advocate what they call value-free education.

I submit that the college campus is the arena of the future. It is on the college campus that the current generation of young people and of generations to come will make the most important, far-reaching decisions of their lives—decisions about who they are, what they will do, how they will invest their lives. In such an arena the witness to Christian values must be heard clearly and unmistakably.

I submit further that the church which in the main was responsible for the beginning of higher education in this country, will have difficulty surviving unless religion survives as a vital force in higher education. There is a very definite relation between religion in higher education and religion in the rest of society. The church needs the private, church-related college; the college needs the church.

I believe that the church today is serious about making the world a better place, in part through preparing young men and women capable of creating a more humane environment and peaceful world. Therefore she must also be serious about the ministry of higher education and about the institutions which provide that education—institutions which are free to fulfill an academic mission consistent with a Christian understanding of life and its purpose.

Let me close by saying that I believe in Columbia College and the things for which she stands. I believe in her potential for growth and significant service in the field of higher education and I commit myself without reservation to the task to which I have been called—I look to God for strength and wisdom and I look to you for counsel, friendship and support.

PART VII

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF WOFFORD COLLEGE

Those of us associated with Wofford College appreciate the spiritual, economic, and student recruitment support which the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church gave to Wofford during 1977. It is apparent to me that the contributions of the supporting church, both tangible and intangible, have increased in the last two years.

I am especially grateful for the high quality of the trustee leadership which you have provided the College. The selection of trustees, both clerical and lay members, has been a major factor in the continuing strengthening of Wofford.

The reports of the officers of the College which follow are presented by Dean B. G. Stephens, academic affairs; Dean Michael J. Preston, student affairs; Mr. Russell Picton, development affairs; and Mr. Edward E. Greene, financial affairs.

Academic Affairs

The major new development in the academic area for 1977-78 is the establishment of a cooperative education program. The program, which is funded by a five-year grant from the Romill Foundation, provides alternate work and study periods for students who choose to participate. The goal of the cooperative education program at Wofford is to provide career-oriented work experiences for students regardless of majors or course of study.

Wofford College is committed to the liberal arts because we feel that in a world characterized by change a liberal education is the most practical education of all. The cooperative education program should therefore reinforce this ideal by providing work experiences for eligible students who are majoring in any subject at Wofford. We have high hopes for the program and are confident that it will provide significant experiences for a hundred or so students. Mr. Jerry Paschal is the director of the program; he holds degrees from Central Wesleyan and Clemson.

The faculty was strengthened during the 1977-78 academic year by the presence of the following full-time professors: Dr. William Mount in religion (B.A. degree from Northwestern, Ph.D. degree from Yale); Dr. Lee Hagglund in mathematics (B.A. degree from Gustavus Adolphus College, Ph.D. degree from Duke); Mr. Don Castillo in chemistry (B.S. degree from Belmont Abbey College, Ph.D. candidate at Clemson); Mr. Stanley Levine in foreign languages (B.A. degree from Reed College, Ph.D. candidate at Stanford); Dr. John David Wilson, on a one-year assignment in history (B.A. degree from Wofford, Ph.D. degree from Emory); and Mr. Richard Wallace, also on a one-year assignment in economics (B.A. degree from the University of South Carolina, Ph.D. candidate at the University of South Carolina).

Dr. Victor Bilanchone, assistant professor of fine arts and director of the Glee club, received his Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Miami in December. Professor William Scheerer, chairman of the physical education department and director of intramurals, retired at the end of the 1976-77 academic year after serving loyally for thirty years at the College.

In the area of academic administration, Dr. M. Elton Hendricks, director of admissions at Wofford, was elected dean of the college at Randolph-Macon in Ashland, Virginia, effective September 1977. Mr. Charles Gray, a native of Laurens and a graduate of Wofford, succeeded Dr. Hendricks.

Student Affairs

There is an increasing concern for academic success among students. Student morale is high and interest in campus organizations such as student government, club sports, fratenures and responsibilities which began to twelve years ago continues.

We continue to maintain the stress on student individual responsibility in campus living and it seems that students are responding more positively to this approach than ever before.

Two new persons are serving in the area of student affairs this year. They are Mrs. Sharon Dunn and Mr. Tom Wheeler who are assistant deans of students. Their responsibilities cover the broad range of student life from recreation and club sports to dormitory living and campus discipline.

Donald West, the Campus Minister, offers Christian religious services on a continuing basis as well as serving in his regular counseling role. Students continue to demonstrate an interest in religion as evidenced by the growth of diverse religious organizations.

Development Affairs

The development program for Wofford College completed a successful year in 1977. The Annual Fund, perhaps the most important aspect of gift support, increased approximately $22,000 from $248,740 in 1976 to $505,670 in 1977. Increased alumni support was the largest component of this growth but the United Methodist Church support played a very significant role in making this a record year. The South Carolina Annual Conference gifts totaled $162,577 nearly one-third of the total Annual Fund support, which represented over a 25% increase from last year. We are grateful for this most important contribution which assists the College in maintaining the quality of its programs and in providing financial aid for needy worthy students.

During 1977 the College undertook a special effort to raise funds for a vitally needed campus life building. By the end of the year the advanced gift phase had produced gifts of cash and property totaling nearly $1.7 million. The first half of calendar year 1978 has spent money to raise the more than $1 million additional revenues necessary to complete the funding of this facility.

Financial Affairs

As a result of the trustees' continued responsible financial policies and tight management practices, Wofford's financial position remains strong. At August 31, 1977, the book value of College assets was $2,152,000. Liabilities totaled $3,548,000, of which $35,000 was accounts payable, $230,000 was prepaid tuition, fees, and similar items, and $3,283,000 was mortgage indebtedness in residence halls and other income-producing properties.

For the 1976-77 year enrollment was somewhat above budget, and, as a result, current operating fund income was $100,000 above expenses. This operating surplus was used to offset accumulated operating deficits carried forward from prior years. At August 31, 1977, only $12,000 of such accumulated deficit remained to be covered. However, a small deficit is forecast for 1977-78 operating fund income because of a slight drop in the number of day students.

The effect of inflationary pressures on operating expenses continues to be a real problem. While increases in gifts for College operations, including gifts from United Methodist churches, are extremely helpful, most of the increase in College costs must be passed on to students and their families. Fortunately, there are substantial funds available from College, other private, state, and federal programs for student financial aid, thus making it possible for us to confidently encourage prospective students to apply for such assistance.

Wofford is continually grateful for its relationship with the United Methodist Church and appreciates the value which this relationship brings to the College. It is the desire of those responsible for College operations to make Wofford a positive force in sustaining and developing the very best traditions of the United Methodist Church.

Tullis were the speakers. Three workshops were held on Sunday morning. Mr. Harold Scipio, Vice-chairman of the Board, serves as Program Chairman of the Laity Convocation.

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

REPORT NO. 1

With the structure change of the South Carolina Conference, the election of officers for the council, boards and committees was postponed until July of 1977. The Board of Health and Welfare elected the following officers:

Chairperson: Augusta E. Willis, M.D.

Vice Chairperson: J. C. Bull, M.D.

Secretary-Treasurer: The Rev. Bundy Bynum

The Rev. George Riser is Chairperson of The Golden Cross Scholarship and Medical Assistance Programs.

The Rev. Jack M. Bozard, Jr. is Chairperson of the Retired Ministers Home

The Rev. B. G. Waddell is Chairperson of the Nominating Committee for the Boards of Trustees for Greenwood and Orangeburg Methodist Homes and Epworth Children's Home.

GOLDEN CROSS:

The Syfan Home in Abbeville and the Davis Home in Conway were sold this year and the funds from their sales have been placed in a savings account until sufficient funds are available for a new dwelling.

The Bell Home in Walhalla is for sale. It is now rented to a lay person.

A lot is also for sale in St. Stephens.

The following homes are assigned to:

Alice Kay Home—Honea Path—Rev. W. Grady Newman

Anna Gregory Taylor Younger Home—Olanta—Rev. R. A. Hughes

Glover Home—Walterboro—Rev. J. H. Owens

Inabinet Home—Murrells Inlet—Rev. George A. Baker

Seaside Home—Beaufort—Miss Candide R. Du Beau

Walker Home—North Augusta—Rev. L. E. Pope

Ham-Bryan Home Duplex—Orangeburg—Mrs. Ross A. Pickett

One of the Duplex Apartments at the Orangeburg Home has been vacant for some months. This vacancy has been advertized in the Advocate. When this Duplex was built it was the opinion of the Health and Welfare Ministries that a modern apartment would furnish better and more desirable living quarters than the individual homes, most of which were old and difficult to maintain. This vacancy makes it apparent that research is needed to determine where and what kind of housing our Retired Ministers need and desire.

Seven Scholarships in Nursing were granted. Six is the usual allotment but there were two extra available from special gifts. Seven will be available for the coming year.

Sixteen persons have received medical assistance. This assistance is given when there is a real need which is not covered by insurance or other means.

The Nursing Scholarship and Medical Assistance programs are a part of our Golden Cross programs. The maximum given in the past has been $300.00 per scholarship and $300.00 per person for medical assistance. Both of these have been raised to maximum of $500.00. This makes it necessary that Golden Cross Sunday be given more promotion. This year there was a feature story in "The Advocate" showing the Glover Home in Walterboro with its occupant, The Rev. Owens. Assistance from each Minister is requested in training the local Health and Welfare Chairperson and in educating his congregation as to the needs and benefits of Golden Cross. Golden Cross Sunday in 1978 is in December.

The Board of Health and Welfare has participated in the Conference Audio-Visual program. This shows the Golden Cross and other programs and particularly the work of Epworth Children's Home, The Greenwood Methodist Home and The Orangeburg Methodist Home.

A population shift to the southeast in labor and Senior Citizens prompts the Health and Welfare Board to plan its ministry in serving the human needs of their communities.

Bankruptcy of the Pacific Homes has caused our South Carolina Methodist Homes to carefully examine their financial status and their insurance programs. In reviewing the financial status of the Greenwood and Orangeburg Methodist Home and of Epworth, it is very gratifying to know that Epworth and the Greenwood Homes are debt free. Although there is indebtedness at the Orangeburg Home it is within the means of the Home's income and payment is on schedule.

None of the Homes offer "Life Care Contracts." "Life Care Contracts" were thought to be a contributing factor in the Pacific Homes bankruptcy.

Epworth now has about 20 mentally retarded children on campus and is involved in a study of needs with Rural Life Mission on Johns Island.

The Orangeburg Methodist Home has completed plans for two units, each housing 30 persons, for residential care. This arrived after the Health and Welfare Board meeting in January and will be submitted for approval at the Health and Welfare Board meeting May 29, 1978, and, if approved, will be submitted as an amendment to the Conference Agenda.

COMMENDATIONS:

The Past Chairperson of this Board, The Rev. Roy Butler, has done a tremendous job and all of the Health and Welfare projects have grown under his guidance. We express our appreciation and gratitude to Roy! He has spent unlimited time and effort in maintaining the Homes for Retired Ministers and in building the new duplex at Orangeburg Methodist Home.

Dr. Allan R. Broome retired in December from the Epworth Children's Home and although we expressed our gratitude previously, we would like to say "thank you" for making Epworth the wonderful institution that it is now and to wish him Happiness and "God Speed" in his retirement.

It is also with pleasure we observe that the Epworth work is being capably carried on by Mr. Charles Hutchins.

Appreciation is given to The Rev. Ted R. Morton and the Staff at the Greenwood Home and Mr. Raymond P. Masneri and the Staff at the Orangeburg Home for the capable and loving services rendered those who live there.

The Greenwood Home is to be commended on their new building program and ground has been broken for the first unit for their residential apartments (Heritage Hills).

Respectfully submitted,

Augusta E. Willis, Chairperson

REPORT NO. 2

GREENWOOD METHODIST HOME

It is our high privilege to submit to the South Carolina Conference this annual report concerning the life and work of this special agency of the Conference. It is our conviction that the Trustees of the Home and the Staff have rendered faithful and effective service and that the stewardship which we have practiced has been soundly Christian in every respect.

We anticipate that 1977 will be reflected in our history as the last year in which only one basic service (nursing care) was offered by the Greenwood Methodist Home: construction on our first residential care facilities finally got underway in late February 1978!

The death of our architect, P. Connor Lee, AIA, late of Charlotte, NC, in May, 1977, imposed a significant delay in implementing the construction of our first residential care unit, an apartment building. J. Alison Lee, AIA, of Greenwood (not related to Connor Lee), was engaged to complete the plans. Bids were received in early February, and construction was underway before the close of the month.

Residence Building "A" will contain twelve (12) apartment units, ranging in size from an "efficiency" model up to units with two (2) bedrooms and two (2) full baths. As of the writing of this report, all but three (3) of the apartment units have been assigned. Since the financial plan adopted by the Board of Trustees is based on constructing the apartment units with funds donated by the apartment occupants, it is recognized that development of the eight (8) apartment buildings provided for in the "Master Plan" will require a longer period of time than would have been the case had construction funds been secured through a mortgage plan. The recent major financial difficulties (including bankruptcy and defaulting on bonds payments) experienced by other homes for the aging across the Nation have served to strengthen our conviction that it is better for us to "pay as we go." The Greenwood Methodist Home has no debt, and it is the desire of the Trustees to maintain a debt-free status.

In addition to providing for the construction of the first apartment building, the $869,000.00 contract awarded to G. E. Moore Company, Inc., Greenwood, also provides for the construction of a grounds/garden care building, grading and paving related to both buildings, and major utilities required to serve these buildings as well as Residence Buildings B, C and D. December, 1978, has been projected as the completion date for the first phase of construction, and it is hoped that construction of a second apartment building will be underway early in 1979.

The Nursing Center continues as the "anchor" of our care and service to older persons. A "Waiting List" that seems always to grow longer is our single greatest frustration. A patient census study completed in late 1977 revealed that almost 20% of those presently being served were admitted during the first year of operation (May 1971-April 1972)! We believe that the longevity of our patients is directly attributable to the exceptionally high quality of care they receive from a thoroughly professional geriatric team.

Medicaid patients are currently 40% of the patient census; Medicare patients will average around 1% of the census. The remaining 59% of the patients are "private" patients, that is, patients who are not served under one of the government programs. Twenty-five percent of the "private" patients received financial aid provided through the Support Fund and the Home's Endowment Fund. The Support Fund provided approximately $32,000.00 for the year, and the Endowment Fund provided approximately $38,000.00 from investment income.

The Home received its second largest Bequest during 1977, the sum of approximately $240,000.00 provided by Mr. Leland L. Larrabee, late of Spartanburg. This Bequest will be used in the development of the Home's residential care facilities, "Heritage Hills." The Home's largest Bequest was received under the Will of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lipford, late of Greenwood, and was used to establish the Endowment Fund in 1970. Another significant gift in the form of real estate was received in 1977 from Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bailey of Greenville and is valued at $40,500.00. We acknowledge with deep gratitude all special gifts, whether large or small, because we recognize that the Home's development of a greater capacity for service must issue from such gifts!

In June, 1978, nine of our Trustees will rotate off of our Board. These persons are: Lay Members—Dr. James A. McQuown, Hiram W. Sandlin, Brooks S. Stuart, Bruce R. Sigmon, W. H. Nicholson, Jr., and Cleveland S. Harley; Clerical Members—M. J. Patrick, John M. Younginer, Jr. and W. Harvey Floyd, Jr. Each of these persons has rendered effective service and three of them have service pre-dating the creation of the Home's Board of Trustees: Dr. McQuown and Messrs. Stuart and Sigmon were elected to the Building Committee in 1967 and worked in the development of the Nursing Center. Mr. Stuart has served as Treasurer since 1967, and Mr. Sigmon has served as Chairman of the Finance and Investments Committee almost for the same period of time. We express gratitude for each of these persons who have rendered exceptional service to the Home.

Let us conclude this report with a brief comment on the Church-relatedness of the Home. We are deeply grateful for the many forms of support directed to the Home by "the people called Methodist" in South Carolina. The Annual Conference elects our Trustees on the nomination of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries; local Churches help to provide the monies for the Support Fund, 100% of which is directed to the provision of financial aid for those unable to pay the full cost of their care; individuals provide generously for capital needs through Bequests and special gifts; the clergy and the laity alike make referrals of persons they believe need the services of the Home; and throughout the year we have the privilege of opening the doors of the Home to many visiting Church groups.

We endeavor to give a "return" on this generosity by maintaining the highest standards of excellence in the care we render and by being good stewards of the gifts directed to us for the special ministry of caring and healing which we offer in the name of Christ and of the United Methodist Church in South Carolina. We are pleased to announce that the Certification Council of The United Methodist Church in 1977 awarded the Home "Certification" status as further evidence of the Home's unique character as a Conference agency. We are here to serve the ever-growing needs of the aging, and we covet your prayers and solicit your continued support that our strength may be equal to the demands of tomorrow!

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

REPORT NO. 3

At the close of the year 1977, Epworth Children's Home experienced a change in executives after twenty-five years. Dr. Allan R. Broome retired from the position and Mr. Charles A. Hutchins became the eighth Executive Director of this fine institution. Mr. Hutchins had served on the staff as the associate executive director for several years. He is an outstanding Methodist layman and enters the position after years of training and experience as a social worker and in the field of administration.

During the year Epworth continued its broad service to dependent children and their families. The following information gives an indication of the extent of the service in various fields.

Over three hundred children received services from Epworth during the year. Children came into care from 42 of the 46 counties of South Carolina. Every district of the United Methodist Church had several children and families receiving service. In addition, many other families with children receive help in counseling in an effort to keep children in their own homes.

Epworth responds immediately to all calls for needed services. Ministers or laymen of the United Methodist Church, making referrals, always receive priority and prompt attention.

Two items need special note in the above service. During the year, Epworth provided services to more than twenty retarded children in residential care. This is a new program, instituted only two years ago and this record shows significant advancement in this field. In addition to these, there were additional services to families with retarded children but without residential care.

The other notable item is the great number of requests for service received by Epworth. A ready response was given to all of these, even though it meant that most of the facilities were taxed to capacity much of the time. The services of Epworth are in great demand and it is evident that this continues to be on the increase.

In 1977, two buildings of long time use were removed from the campus. One of these was the old Coleman building which had been in service for more than eighty years. The significance of this building is that it was here that Epworth began. It was the first building on the present campus and for some time the only one. On January 20, 1896, Dr. Waddell, the Superintendent of Epworth Orphanage at that time, received the first two children into care. The building served as a residence for the Superintendent, office, residence for the children, school building, as well as dining room and kitchen. Gradually Epworth grew from this beginning and spread over the campus while the Coleman building served, after the early years, as a cottage for girls and later as an administration building.

Every effort was put forth to save old Coleman and rebuild it for further use, but the addition of the structure made it unreasonably expensive to reconstruct it.

The other building removed was the old McCleod building, built originally in 1897 as campus infirmary. It served in this capacity until the new infirmary was constructed in the late nineteen forties. Then McCleod was rebuilt and served as a cottage first for girls and later for boys. In its last years it became a utility building to house children while other cottages were removed and new ones built.

These are the last two buildings of the old Epworth to be removed from the campus. The buildings remaining are of comparatively recent construction, all except two having been erected during the building and expansion program which began in the early nineteen thirties.

Epworth continues to render service in a dozen areas: These areas include:

SCHEDULE OF SERVICES AVAILABLE THROUGH EPWORTH

FAMILY SERVICE PROGRAMS

1. FAMILY SERVICES are provided by Epworth to help parents in developing appropriate plans of care for their children. This service continues to be available to reunited families who have had children in Epworth's care.

2. FAMILY COUNSELING provides professional counseling services to troubled families, children and youth.

GROUP CARE

1. DAILY RESIDENTIAL CARE is provided children and youth. Epworth's goal is to work with the family in attempting to alleviate the circumstances that made separation necessary, supporting the reunion of the family.

2. EMERGENCY CARE features immediate care when no other placement is available and is limited to 14 days.

3. TEMPORARY CARE is available for a 90 day period in cases where children are temporarily deprived of adequate care, and must wait until a crisis has been resolved before planning can be completed.

4. SPECIAL EDUCATION goes beyond public school training in providing special students the opportunity to learn, develop, and improve basic skills.

OTHER SPECIAL PROGRAMS

5. CONTINUING EDUCATION affords an opportunity for students to pursue an education to the fullest extent of their ability, including college vocational, technical, and

8. LEARNING DISABILITIES help is available to a number of children and youth, including those who are retarded. Currently, Epworth is serving a number of children and youth on campus who are designated as educationally mentally retarded. Epworth is working with congregations who request help in organizing day care and other special programs for retarded persons in their communities. In addition, Epworth offers direct services to families who request help, including referrals to appropriate resources.

9. EPWORTH PINES is nature's playground for Epworth children and is maintained in order to fulfill the total developmental needs of special children in the home's care.

10. FOSTER HOME placement is provided when a child's interest can best be served in a family setting rather than in group care.

Contributions from the churches have held up well during the year. The total income exceeded the $1,500,000.00 mark, including income from several sizable estates which was directed to the permanent funds of the institution. The South Carolina Methodist Churches had a good share in this fine record. Even though the giving from churches was down somewhat from the previous year, the contribution still amounted to $394,484.49. This represents about 38% of the operational budget for the year, with the additional 62% secured from sources other than through the local churches. It can readily be seen that the Church makes the big difference in this program of quality services at Epworth.

At the 1977 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference, there was a request from the floor that Epworth Children's Home provide information concerning the total assets owned by the home. It is, and has been for many years, the policy of Epworth to share any information concerning its operations with those who are interested. In keeping with the request and the policy of long standing, Epworth has through the years sought to share this information in many ways. Attached to this report is a statement prepared by the Epworth auditors of the entire assets of the home. The only items not listed are some real properties which are not actually in the possession of the home at this time, but are in the process of settlement in estates. These will be added whenever they are clear and actually in the hands of the children's home. Where there are additional questions concerning the accounting, the officials of Epworth will be delighted to provide information to those individuals who desire to address an inquiry to the Executive Director or the Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

The officials of Epworth cannot pass this opportunity without an effort to express to the Methodist people of South Carolina and the many friends of Epworth Children's Home their great appreciation for all of the assistance given to this program of the Church. Without this fine support and understanding of the work of the Board of Trustees, the staff and the Executive Director, their efforts would be fruitless. However, the splendid cooperation which Epworth receives not only has developed its present state, but also guarantees a bright future for long and extended services to countless numbers of needy children and their families. Through Epworth, the Church demonstrates so many of the Christian principles of Christ-like services to people.

REPORT NO. 4

THE METHODIST HOME, ORANGEBURG

Our Home is a service agency, an arm of the Church. We are constantly striving to make life rich, full and meaningful for all of our residents. Dedicated staff members use their various skills in providing meaningful service for our people.

The several levels of care—Residential, Personal, Intermediate and Skilled Nursing, make it possible for us to administer to a broad range of needs. However, I would like to take this opportunity to stress to the Methodist of South Carolina the importance of filing an application for admittance into the Home in advance of anticipated needs. It seems lately that more and more people are contacting us only when a person can no longer function at home or care is already needed. We currently have over 400 people on our waiting list. It takes about three years for a person to be admitted into the Home from the time the application is filed. The residents of the Home are given preference whenever a bed is available in our medical units. This makes admissions directly into our medical units even more difficult, because we usually have someone already at the Home who needs this bed. The philosophy of the Board of Trustees is that the Home is primarily a retirement home and the medical areas are for the residents use. We will admit directly into the medical areas only when a bed is not needed; however, most of the time the medical beds are filled from within. We presently have the same number of beds as was reported to Annual Conference last year.

The Home presently participates in the Medicaid program and is in the process of making application to participate in the Medicare Program. Essentially, the Medicaid program is for residents who are medically indigent and not able to pay the charges for intermediate care or skilled care. The State determines eligibility and benefits are provided through the State with Federal matching funds. The Medicare program covers primarily persons over 65 in a skilled care facility regardless of financial ability. This is a Federal Program handled by the Social Security Administration.

In addition to our four levels of care we have, located adjacent to the main complex, a duplex apartment and cottage development area. At the present time we have four (4) duplexes completed and a fifth one under construction. Each duplex contains two apartments with two-bedrooms, bath, kitchen, dining and living area. Individuals may construct one-half of the duplex for approximately $27,000. Their portion of the duplex would be donated to the Home and they would have the use of it as long as they could function in it. This area will be provided with a paved loop road, underground utilities, street lights and landscaped. We hope to have these improvements completed shortly. For more details, contact Rev. Marion C. McClary, here at the Home.

The Board of Trustees have approved plans for providing additional Residential accommodations. Plans are to construct one residential care building which would accommodate an additional 30 residents, with plans for the construction of a second similar building following completion of the first. We presently have in savings, or money that will be received within the year, enough money to construct one building. The second building would be constructed by refinancing our current indebtedness back to the original amount and this can be accomplished without increasing our current mortgage payments. The construction of these buildings will help to reduce our current waiting list. Funds for construction come from contributions and special gifts made to the Home by individuals through memorials, Birthday Club, Wills and bequests. We appreciate these gifts and also wish to express our appreciation to all the other people who supported the Home in any way. Our growth over the past twenty-four (24) years has been achieved only because of your help and support. Your continuing support will make it possible to improve and expand upon our ministry to older South Carolina Methodists.

I wish to personally thank all the members of the Board of Trustees, but most especially those who will be rotating off — (Rev. George Cannon, Chairman, Building and Grounds — Rev. Edgar A. Fowler (deceased) Chairman, Development and Publicity Committee — Mr. Joseph O. Rogers, Jr., Chairman, Finance Committee — Mr. Lloyd B. Williams, Jr., Chairman, Board of Trustees) for their moral and financial support, their time and energies that they have given of freely to the residents and staff of The Methodist Home.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Board of Missions meets twice per year, usually in September and January. The Executive Committee meets in December and just before Annual Conference.

The only major change in the Board's structure is the combining of the Urban Work Committee and the Town and Country Committee as per paragraph 729.5 of the 1976 Discipline. This committee is known as the Parish and Community Development Committee, and has some other responsibilities in addition to urban work and town and country.

Reports following are the reports of the Committees of the Board of Missions.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION COMMITTEE

The Church Extension Committee is the administrative committee for the Church Extension Partnership in Mission. In addition, the committee acts as a liaison between the local church and the General Church in securing loans and donations. The Committee also has the responsibility of investigating applications for Ethnic Minority Local Church funds.

In 1977 six churches were selected from fourteen applications for Partnership in Mission funds. They were:

|--|---------------------|
| Letter Call: Dutch Fork (Columbia) | $9,564.80 |
| —new congregation | |
| Prospect (Florence) | $4,099.20 |
| Conference Call: Mt. Olive (Rock Hill) | $5,720.50 |
| Goose Creek (Charleston) | $5,720.50 |
| Advent Call: Church of the Convent (Spartanburg) | |
| —new congregation | $4,560.00 (approx) |
| Little Rock Parish Parsonage (Marion) | $6,840.00 (approx) |

There are approximately 2,500 members of the Partnership. The committee in the Fall of 1977 made on-site inspections of eleven churches in seven districts who applied for funds in 1978. Applications for Partnership funds are due in September in order to be considered for funding the following year. In 1978, and hereafter five (5) percent of funds received will go into an emergency fund.

In the Fall of 1977 the committee began making plans for district and local programs to promote awareness by the local membership of church extension needs in South Carolina. These programs will include an audio visual, new printed materials, and persons from the committee to explain the Partnership in detail and answer questions.

Two churches in the Conference received funds for building programs from the Board of Global Ministries (National Division) in 1977. They were:

|--------------------------|------------|
| Prospect (Florence) | $4,000.00 |
| Goose Creek (Charleston) | $5,000.00 |

Two churches received Ethnic Minority Local Church funds from the Board of Global Ministries (National Division) in 1977. They were:

|--------------------------|-------------|
| John Wesley (Greenville) | $25,000.00 |
| St. James (Charleston) | $3,000.00 |

REPORT NO. 3

REPORT OF THE PARISH AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

In accordance with the 1976 Discipline the Board of Missions established a Committee on Parish and Community Development. The Committee has formed two sub-committees through which it will carry out its responsibilities; Congregational Development and Specialized Ministries.

The Committee on Congregational Development shall include as its responsibilities encouraging and supporting the development of new and established congregations; conducting research studies and community surveys that plan for and assist with developing innovative strategies for mission; and reviewing, evaluating, and making recommendations for loans, donations, and grants from the National Division.

The proposed program of the committee is to develop churches as functioning mission stations by making available teams of trained consultants to assist the pastors and local church lay leadership with mission analysis and program development. The consulting teams will include both laity and clergy. They will be trained in local church research and analysis, community needs, surveying, and consulting skills. In the first year we would have a minimum of twelve persons constituting six teams. Each team will conduct consultation with a minimum of two churches. Following an application process coordinated through the District Superintendent, the consultation would include:

First — a 2 1/2 hour workshop with the pastor and local church leaders to identify research needs in the church and community, train the local leaders in research methods, and make specific research assignments to be done by the local church leaders in the weeks following.

Second — a weekend consultation with the pastor and local church leaders to analyze congregational and community data which they will have gathered, study and biblical images of the church as a servant community, develop objectives and goals, design program, and plan strategy for implementing program.

Third — a half-day evaluation session with the pastor and local church leaders six months after the weekend consultation to check progress and amend or extend objectives as needed.

Fourth — an intentional effort will be made to recruit additional consulting teams from the churches served by this program thus providing a leavening effect to extend this ministry to more churches.

The work of the Committee on Specialized Ministries shall include:

A: Working in areas with under 50,000 population (Town and Country); consulting with the Bishop and Cabinet in the development of policies for cooperative parish ministries, and in the initiation and strengthening of these types of ministry, and working with funding sources to provide support for staff personnel who serve in cooperative types of ministries. The committee has requested funding for 1979 for support of the following cooperative and larger parish ministries: Oconee Parish, Chesterfield Cooperative Parish, Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Group Ministry, Marlboro Parish Cooperative Ministry, Port Royal-Laurel Bay Cooperative Ministry, Rural Missions, Inc., and Migrant Ministry in South Carolina.

B: Mission development for metropolitan communities with over 50,000 population, with special emphasis on such program areas as metropolitan strategy and action, urban parish development, local church community outreach, issue oriented ministries, churches in transitional communities, and the impact of oppressive systems upon urban people and communities. The Committee recognized and helped to fund urban agencies meeting the conference adopted guidelines and requirements. These urban agencies are in Greenville, Anderson, Columbia and Spartanburg. The Committee also is the agency through which funding is channelled to Columbia and Spartanburg Bethlehem Centers. Salary support for members of the Annual Conference serving as Directors of Urban Agencies comes through the Committee budget. At present there are two directors who received $6,500.00 each (Harlan Wilson and Marvin Lare). The Committee on Parish and Community Development has requested $500.00 for research and development of an Industrial Chaplaincy.

The SUMMER INVESTMENT PROGRAM (S.I.P.) is the program of the Conference which selects young adults (ages 18-24) and the mission fields in which they are assigned to work for two months. S.I.P. brings together young adults who wanted to experience the act of giving themselves in mission and the calls from certain areas which need dedicated persons to invest themselves for a summer of intensive mission.

S.I.P. missionaries are expected to give themselves in full dedication to the work to which they are assigned. Periodically, they gather for corporate sharing, goal clarification and celebration. Weekly they maintain community through a newsletter. At the end of the summer they evaluate in depth.

During the two month period, they receive room and board. At the end of the period, they receive a lump sum honorarium of $600.00.

S.I.P. is sponsored by the Conference Board of Missions, and supervised by a special committee elected by this Board.

S.I.P. is administered by the full-time campus ministers of the South Carolina United Methodist Conference. Administration includes: publicity and recruitment, mission site development, placement, contract building and supervision.

The mission sites must be missional in nature representing expenditure of human and material resources with no obvious "return". At each mission site there is a local committee which established policy and responsibility for facilitating the work.

The S.I.P. missionaries must be United Methodist (although occasional exceptions are made), between 18 and 24 years of age, and they must display strong leadership gifts and interpersonal skills, as well as special strengths in particular areas. They must be grounded in the Christian faith and be able to articulate a strong sense of mission and ministry.

For 1977, S.I.P. placed missionaries at the following mission sites: North Myrtle Beach - Helping Hand, Camden Summer Enrichment Project, Greenwood Cluster Mobile Ministry, Greater Spartanburg Urban Ministries, Bluff Road United Methodist Mission and the Killingsworth Home.

Sinclair E. Lewis, Chairperson

REPORT NO. 4

REPORT OF THE EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION COMMITTEE

The Education and Cultivation Committee is responsible for helping the churches of the Conference to be aware of the missional needs of the United Methodist Church. The committee attempts to do this through the quadrennial Conference publication "Travel With Missions". In addition mission study material packets are available through the Methodist Center.

Specific Committee functions in 1977 included:

1. Supplementary material was published to update "Travel With Missions", a brochure publicizing the Advance Specials for the South Carolina Conference.
2. The Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference on Christian and the Youth in Mission Conference at Lake Junaluska in July were attended by the committee.

REPORT NO. 7

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE

Thank you for the privilege of reporting to the United Methodists of South Carolina on the accountability of Spartanburg Methodist College. Those of us who serve through this institution know we are very fortunate persons by being a part of a missional institution in a servant church. The year 1977 brought a mixture of heavy responsibilities to the institution and also the indescribable benefits of being a part of the church. Responsibility and resource made SMC a more creative and dynamic helping agent in our world.

How does one report on a complex institution involved in the needs, hopes, fears, and dreams of over 1,600 persons each year? Cold statistics provide some understanding of the college's contribution. The enrollment rose to an all-time high of 1,182 during the fall semester of 1977 in the following programs:

|--------------------------------|-------|
| Liberal Arts | 803 |
| Business Education | 46 |
| Criminal Justice | 128 |
| Early Childhood Education | 68 |
| Supervisory Management | 103 |
| Special and Transient Students | 34 |
| | 1,182 |

These persons were on the campus at one time, but really in the previous academic year SMC served actually 1,613 different persons in a variety of programs.

As a two-year private college, Spartanburg Methodist College offers a unique variety of programs to help persons. Still a majority of our students are involved in a Liberal Arts program parallel to the first two years offered in a four-year college or university. Recent studies on the success of our graduates show a high success rate in four-year institutions.

Operating out of its mission to help persons through education your college has moved out from the traditional college program into a variety of other programs to meet the needs of special groups. Ten percent of our students are involved in special freshman programs to increase their advanced learning skills. Almost 30 percent of our students are working adults in two-year career degree programs. Many of these persons enter meaningful careers with the two-year Associate of Arts degree, but many do go on for a baccalaureate degree. In each career program, SMC provides a Liberal Arts foundation for the technical training. A church college has a mission to provide more than just skills for a job. Life is more than making a living.

Two new career oriented programs will be added to the curriculum in the fall. Interpreters to the Deaf and Parks and Recreation programs will be scheduled for both traditional students and working adults. Severe social needs will be met by these programs, and also excellent work opportunities will be provided.

Two very extensive outside evaluations affirmed the strength of our programs during the past year. The federal Bureau of Postsecondary Education through its Title III program accepted your college into its Advanced Institutional Development Program. The analysis before acceptance into the five-year program was very rigorous. In fact Spartanburg was the only private two-year college in the nation among 29 selected grantees last year.

During the last year the college has completed also its Institutional Self-Study required by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The Visitation Committee of ten persons from other colleges across the southeast evaluated the college February 19-22. The preliminary reports from the Committee indicated SMC's accreditation will be reaffirmed on schedule when the Association meets in December 1978. In many respects the programs of the college were commended for their strength and contributions to the lives of persons.

These evaluations not only confirmed the strength and value of the college but also how the general public and the higher education community view and respect the mission and contribution of the United Methodist Church. This college has not backed away from the value system of the church, the mission and concern of the church nor the ethics of the church. This forthright stance with our church has strengthened our proposals asking for resource to be a stronger agency in human development. The deep abiding respect and trust in the church has helped this college of the church. We in this part of the church thank you for involving us and equipping us for mission and ministry.

Your college must thank you for the generous and strong financial support during 1977. The churches of the Conference gave $168,790.13 in Operational Support and provided $8,229.32 in continued payment on the Capital Fund Crusade pledges. Your concern and support make the future ministry of the college look brighter.

Spartanburg depends heavily upon gift support from United Methodists because of our mission to serve many disadvantaged students. South Carolina still has pressing social, economic, and educational needs. Your concern and support make the future ministry of your college more hopeful of meeting these challenges.

The new buildings constructed in the last few years created a new level of academic strength. Yet pressing needs for renovation of older buildings was revealed in a recent study. In fact $200,000 will be needed each year to finance the upgrading of older facilities. The college Trustees and administration will present these needs to all friends of the college for support. Full acceptance and payment of the Operational Support Fund by each church will enable SMC to meet the needs of present students and also prepare for future service.

The academic programs, a high priority at Spartanburg, have received vast new resource for strengthening and development. Special grants and college funds have provided faculty opportunities for professional development. Three specialized counselors have been added to the staff. New faculty members have been added to lessen the size of classes. Faculty and staff have been provided study and professional development opportunities.

SMC is ready for greater service. Call on us to help the persons of your churches and communities through education.

REPORT NO. 8

UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

In an effort to create more opportunities for meaningful participation in the life of the church by its laity and clergy, the Board of Missions of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church in 1971 structured a short term volunteer service committee (now, UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION). It is the function of this committee, working closely with the newly-organized Jurisdictional Coordinations office for UVMIM in Atlanta, to develop a continuing program through which some of the needs of the world can be met by the volunteer, short-term service of laity and clergy acting in the name of Jesus Christ. This program of volunteerism has been promoted and executed with a minimum of expense to the church by encouraging persons, where possible, to provide their own travel expense. In some cases, sponsoring churches have assisted with travel and other costs. This entire program is operated under the close supervision and with the cooperation of the United Methodist Committee on Relief. There are eight (8) basic areas of involvement in which UVMIM of South Carolina has been actively engaged:

(1) Medical Projects — Under the able coordination of Dr. Michael Watson, Chairman of UVMIM in South Carolina, countless numbers of physicians, nurses, and other paramedical personnel have rendered volunteer service overseas in the last eight years. Teams of medical volunteers have immunized more than 60,000 persons in Haiti; have provided basic medical care in Anguilla, a Moravian Hospital in Nicaragua, and have served on emergency medical teams in Central America in the wake of earthquakes and other natural disasters. A personnel readiness bank of volunteers is kept up-to-date who are prepared to respond within 48 hours to any medical emergency anywhere in the world.

(2) Construction Projects — Under the leadership of the Reverence Needham Williamson, Coordinator of UMCOR projects, and new construction coordinator, Mr. Pat Garrett of Greenville, six major construction projects have been completed in Haiti and Central America in the past seven years. Under the leadership of the Reverend Jim Rush, coordinator of projects for Brazil, two major building projects have been completed in Brazil. All South Carolina volunteer building team work closely with native personnel on each project. Over $100,000 has been given to date by South Carolina United Methodists for overseas construction projects within this program.

(3) Agriculture — Under the coordination of Mr. Joe Cal Watson, agricultural engineer of Ridge Spring, South Carolina, numerous agricultural projects have been begun in Haiti, including the introduction of various South Carolina crops which are helping eliminate some of the dietary deficiencies of the Haitian people. Mr. Watson advises in warm weather agriculture and makes several on-site visits to Haiti annually. Other related projects with which UVMIM has assisted are: digging of fresh water wells; road construction; provision of veterinary supplies and medications; and veterinary visits.

(4) Ophthalmology — Dr. Hal Crosswell of Columbia, South Carolina coordinates the "eye care" program of UVMIM for our conference and UMCOR nationwide. Six to eight teams of eye surgeons rotate each year in the eye clinic built by South Carolina volunteers in 1971 in Jeremie, Haiti. Volunteer ophthalmologists also make annual visits to the island of Anguilla, which is without a resident eye specialist. These volunteer surgeons provide basic eye care, including the fitting of thousands of pairs of used eye glasses donated through UVMIM's "Share-A-Pair" program. Cataract and related surgery is also performed and other eye diseases treated. UVMIM opticians and optometrists assist with collecting and cataloguing eye glasses for shipment overseas.

(5) Dental Teams — Dr. Kent Bridges in Greer, South Carolina and Dr. K. B. Baker in Leesville, South Carolina have served as coordinators for dental volunteers. Four to five teams of dentists and assisting personnel rotate through the Jeremie, Haiti clinic each year, providing basic pain relief dentistry. Dental equipment has been donated by South Carolina dentists in recent years and is now in use in the Methodist clinics in Haiti, valued at several thousand dollars.

(6) Medical Collections, Packaging and Shipments — Under the guidance of pharmacist James R. Mitchell in Leesville, South Carolina and Mr. Joe Cal Watson, more than 200,000 pounds of life-saving and sustaining drugs, medications, and hospital supplies have been collected, repackaged, and shipped to Haiti since 1972. Sample medications are collected at Cayce United Methodist Church which are donated by physicians and drug companies and are packaged for overseas shipment in Leesville, South Carolina. Church World Service now helps with the cost of these shipments. Dr. Mitchell also is in charge of shipping all supplies for UVMIM's eye surgical and dental programs. Presently, some 500 sterile "midwifery kits" prepared by United Methodist Women in South Carolina are being shipped to Haiti in addition to several hundred pounds of school supplies.

(7) Foreign Student Scholarship Program — UVMIM in cooperation with Columbia College is providing scholarship support for two Haitian Students at Columbia College who are in training to become teachers in the schools of the Methodist Church of Haiti. Plans are (funds permitting) to maintain at least two foreign students in this program for the next several years. Scholarship help from churches is greatly needed.

(8) Conference Projects and Local Disaster Relief — Under the direction of the Reverend Morris Thompson, South Carolina Conference Disaster Relief Coordinator, a readiness bank of volunteers is kept up-to-date to provide immediate assistance in the event of any disaster within South Carolina where such help might be needed. The program is a part of, with training provided by, UMCOR and is part of a nationwide network of volunteers.

The Salkehatchie Summer Service Project sponsored by the UVMIM Committee and Youth Service Fund, this is a volunteer youth work camp for mission work in South Carolina. Some 25 young people will be involved in this venture June 17-23, 1978.

In conjunction with the Hunger Committee, the UVMIM Committee received over $20,000 for the School Lunch Program for Haiti.

Any correspondence or questions can be addressed to Mrs. Doris Chambers, Secretary for UVMIM, South Carolina United Methodist Board of Missions, 1420 Lady Street, Columbia, South Carolina 29201. Funds, for the support of each of these programs, and volunteers are continually needed. Donations should be sent to the above addressed and marked UVMIM, Account '830.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING 1978

The Commission on Career Planning and Counseling had a fruitful year in 1977. We are proud to announce the following accomplishments:

1. We helped in a Career Day for a cluster of three churches in Columbia District.
2. We helped to resource a District-wide Workshop in the Florence District and a District-wide Workshop in the Hartsville District which were designed to train the local church secretaries of Career Planning and Counseling.
3. We began the process of the selection of a church for our pilot project. This process has been continued over into 1978.
4. We have maintained our register of persons interested in church-related occupations.
5. Our Commission designed and provided worship resources for all churches in the Annual Conference and suggested a special worship in February, or some other more suitable time, at which church-related occupations would be highlighted.

The Commission also recommends the following projection for 1979:

1. To establish a local church as a pilot project of recruitment in our conference
2. To offer career development opportunities which include a special worship to emphasize church-related occupations in February, to resource college career days, district career days, and local church career days if possible.
3. We plan to design a specific plan of recruitment of minorities for our annual conference.
4. We plan to establish a specific register of minority persons in our conference who are interested in church-related occupations.

As a Commission we would like to thank the Conference staff for their help in our work during this past year.

Louis D. Jamison, Chairperson

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

1977 was a year of reassessment and reorganization for our Commission as we identified interests and skills of the new membership. In our evaluation of the previous work of the Commission there was a reaffirmation of the commitment to serve as prophet, as reconciler, and as interpreter to the South Carolina Annual Conference on the issues which challenge women and the Church at this point in history. We continue to believe that this commitment can best be served by offering our Commission as a resource to the Conference and by continuing to communicate our concerns through all the channels available to us.

During the past year the Commission on the Status and Role of Women

- 1) Continued vigorous support of the Equal Rights Amendment by contributions of time and money to E.R.A.-S.C., personal contact with legislators and education offered to local churches
- 2) Offered information and printed material in our booth at the Conference Resource Center during Annual Conference, which included:
 - a guide to all the audio-visual resources in the AV Library that relate to women's issues (the film strips and movies were shown in the Resource Center)
 - samples of non-sexist liturgies
 - bibliographies on feminist theology, women in the church, women in church history, and liberation theology explanations of consensus style of working
 - PLUS, we gave out dozens and dozens of homemade cookies which got rave reviews. Liberated women are good cooks!
- 3) Advocated the appointment of a woman to the presidency of Columbia College
- 4) Participated in planning a state-wide ecumenical conference on Women-in-the-Church-in-the-Future on invitation of the Christian Action Council
- 5) Began planning with the Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry for the 1978 Pastor's School. This particular school will address the issues of women in the Church: Ministry TO, BY, and WITH Women.

It was encouraging to us that the South Carolina Annual Conference voted to make Reformation Sunday a day when churches would be urged to fill their pulpits with women. The Commission would like to see this opportunity continue until women in pulpits are no longer a novelty.

Respectfully submitted,
Diane A. Moseley

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORSHIP REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A tremendous amount of activity has been taking place within the Section on Worship of the Board of Discipleship in Nashville, to provide not only scholarly, theological and biblical groundwork for the present liturgical "renewal" going on in our churches, but to provide practical models as alternatives to the liturgies and rituals we have been using—in whatever form and fashion. Happily, a new "consciousness" is raising itself within our South Carolina churches as a result of growing use of The Sacrament of Holy Communion: An Alternate Text (1972), the increased purchasing of Word and Table: A Basic Pattern of Sunday Worship (1976), growing interest in A Service of Baptism, Confirmation, and Renewal: An Alternate Text (1976), and the curiosity (and study!) of Ritual In A New Day: An Invitation (1976). The congregations whose worship reflects the use of any or all of these in some way are not only on a "cutting edge" of the renewal, but are sensing a shift in the general mood of worship from "spectator sport" to a more enlivened pastoral lay activity. These new rituals and services strive to re-identify the context of the "priesthood of all believers" in grammar and form contemporaneous with the times—not merely by 'pruning' the language and rubrics—and re-emphasizing the traditional and theological foundations from which our 'modern' worship experiences have derived and deviated.

Taking our "cue" from the Board of Discipleship, our commission has endeavored to raise the 'worship consciousness' of the conference in workshops and in projects which have used the new resources from the Board. Thus, the commission's agenda continues to expand beyond planning annual conference worship services:

Various workshops have included One Great Day of Training events in many of the districts and sub-districts, where the commission has had opportunity to provide input toward local church worship planning: evaluation and re-vitalization of present forms, and providing resources on every aspect of worship; The Marion District had a unique workshop at Little River United Methodist Church on Music and Worship in the Small Church; The Florence District had a Sunday seminar at Highland Park United Methodist Church centering on Worship In the Home—Seasonal Emphases.

The South Carolina Pastor's School, the theme being Worship In A New Day, provided seminars and workshops planned and staffed by worship commission members.

As a result of the plenary proceedings at RENAISSANCE 75 at West Virginia Wesleyan College three years ago, a national Society for Worship was founded to serve and inspire clergy in much the same fashion as the Fellowship of United Methodist Musicians serves the choir directors and organists in our churches. While both organizations are studying the possibility of a merger, our own conference has already begun to appreciate the coordination of worship and music. In its winter workshop each year, the S.C. Fellowship not only provides professional clinicians in training seminars and reading sessions of the latest in church music, but the climax of the weekend is a closing service of Holy Communion in which the musical, visual and liturgical come together in a truly celebrative way. This year's workshop, held at Washington Street United Methodist Church, featured Mr. John Yarrington, Director of Music at McFarlin United Methodist Church, Norman, Oklahoma. Present were 130 musicians and clergy. Dr. Will Willimon, Associate Professor of Worship, Duke University, led the service of Holy Communion.

For Annual Conference:

members of our commission assisted the Board of Ministry in their preparations of the ordination services;

the Memorial Service is the new Communion of Saints, available from Discipleship Resources, Nashville;

we have prepared an alternate ritual for the Admission of Ministerial Candidates;

we have prepared a ritual to be included at the time of the reading of appointments as a meaningful Sending Forth;

we have tried to provide meaningful visual emphases for the services and proceedings, which are available on loan by the commission, to any church;

we have prepared devotions and services of Holy Communion which we hope will serve the annual conference in a truly inspirational way; we have attempted to involve some of our conference's gifted speakers and personalities.

Another arena of activity for our commission is in the preparations of services and a workshop during the Congress on Discipleship, which is to be held October 20-21 at College Place United Methodist Church, Columbia.

We have tried to look ahead into the coming full year, both in possibilities for different types of workshops and events, and in providing models for local congregations to evaluate and re-organize (if necessary) their existing modes of worship. Our "looking ahead" was in the form of questions:

Why not have hymnology workshops where the theology and language of hymns—and not necessarily the music—are the themes?

Why not encourage the use of the traditional One Great Day of Singing as a time of exploration into the meanings of our favorite hymns and music?

Why not re-instate festivals such as All Saints to be a time of merging proclamation, color, music, drama and pageantry in celebration—as well as emphasizing other existing festivals: Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Pentecost? (This would be an excellent time to expose local 'hidden talents' in the fine arts, as well as expose a long-forgotten—but important—festival of the church year.)

Speaking of the church year, why not have a series of workshops on the meaning and use of the lectionary—not only in preaching, but—in music and worship in the home?

Why not have seminars which introduce and explicate some of the new rituals being written by the Section on Worship?

We realize that it is not possible to deal with all the needs and desires, to answer all the questions, and to clear up all the problems of practical and practicable worship at any one workshop. Sometimes "follow-up" is desirable; 'before-hand' study is often necessary. In most instances, conversation and inquiry centers in on the "basics" of worship, in terms of form. Because of these, our commission has been at work with the Conference Council on Ministries to provide such "basic" information in model and step by step forms. We have found that many congregational worship forms are pruned of important elements or are overgrown with "outside" emphases, when what is lacking is a context for the hearing of the Word and many opportunities for making appropriate responses. The 'basic information' is an effort to affirm existing good qualities of local church worship—fruits—and to encourage further examination into the possibilities of creativity inherent to the particular congregation—gifts.

Such is the work of our commission. We are thankful for all the opportunities which come our way through ministers and ministries of our conference. We are eager to work with other commissions and boards (such as the involvement already mentioned). And we are especially appreciative of the interest and affirmation that Bishop Tullis has shown in our endeavors. It is largely by his genuine concern and encouragement that we are able to expand our efforts far beyond each previous year. Above all, our joy and satisfaction in serving on this commission comes from the evidences seen within our churches where so many people bring so many gifts and graces to the same Lord!

Bruce A. Sayre

REPORT OF ECUMENICAL AND INTERRELIGIOUS AFFAIRS

The 1976 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church (paragraph 729.4b) lists one of the functions of the work area of EIC "to provide leadership for specific experiences and to stimulate conference participation in ecumenical missional programs." This has been the philosophy we seek to follow and we seek action which will benefit the total program of the annual conference.

The Commission continues to participate in the Conference on Christian Unity. The Chairperson represented the commission at the 1977 meeting which was held in Nashville, Tennessee. Plans for this coming year include greater commission member involvement.

Two specific goals were adapted by our commission from the goals of the Conference Council on Ministries for the 1977-78 year.

The first goal is program No. 11: "Develop a talent bank of S.C. United Methodist leaders in the business and professional world who do and/or can exert influence in shaping public policy." We have followed the guidelines listed under Goal 3.a of the South Carolina Annual Conference 1978-'80 Objectives and Goals and are well within the timeline laid down by the Conference.

We also felt that the next program (goal 3.b.) "Identify specific priorities for public policy needs re. judicial reform, child advocacy, ecology, etc. and discover allies," came under the framework of our commission. We have identified these needs and see the following three as having the greatest priority: Public Education, Land Use, Regional Planning—Public Involvement in Policy.

We propose the union of (a) and (b) at a meeting of the leaders (program 11) to be held between October 18-22, 1978.

Recommendations:

We unanimously affirm and recommend the Lund Principle as the basis for annual conference program planning. The principal states, "to do together everything which conscience does not compel us to do separately." This places ecumenism in the planning stages rather than afterthought.

We propose a dutch "Ecumenical Breakfast" at the 1979 session of Annual Conference at which time needs and concerns related to ecumenism can be emphasized.

We urge each local church to engage in some ecumenical endeavor during 1978-79.

We plan to compile a complete listing of local church ecumenical activities (by districts) which are now being carried out by the United Methodist Church and urge support of local pastors and chairpersons in obtaining data.

Respectfully Submitted,
R. Hilton Johnson, Chairperson
(Mrs.) William Wesson, Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The progress of merger in our conference must be measured in terms of evaluations of goals and intent. To some extent such evaluation is subjective and reflects the perspective of the one making the assessment.

When viewed historically, merger efforts in South Carolina Methodism have been faithful in reflecting inclusiveness in election of Blacks to boards, agencies, commissions and as delegates to Jurisdictional and General Conference. Cabinet appointments have also reflected appropriate regard for Black representation.

Last year, a team from the General Commission on Religion and Race visited the state and conducted a hearing on merger status and perspectives. Affirmative words were shared by church leaders, including our Bishop. Words of caution were also shared pointing out the need for persistence and patience in efforts to continuing progress.

Your conference commission feels that recommendations adopted by the conference two years ago are worthy of continuing considerations by district and local churches. These recommendations listed below offer specific resources and activities which can strengthen understandings and involvement of Black and White United Methodists.

They are recommended once more in the hope that we will become more alert to the unique opportunity which is ours as a conference to offer singular testimony to God's inclusive love incarnated in persons committed to inclusiveness in fact as well as in faith.

1. We recommend that Consultations on Racial Understanding be held which will provide opportunity for leadership in all churches to participate and that feedback from these consultations be shared with the Commission on Religion and Race for further planning within ten days of the consultation.
2. We recommend a course on "Toward Racial Understanding in United Methodism" be included in Christian Workers Schools where possible and that local churches avail themselves of this teaching resource.
3. We recommend that members of the Commission on Religion and Race meet with the District Council on Ministries to schedule workshops for local churches in these meetings, insight into resources will be made available for planning and implementing an inclusive educational ministry in the church.
4. We recommend that Conference Boards and Agencies utilize the Commission on Religion and Race in whatever ways can be useful to promote inclusiveness within boards, commissions and agencies.
5. We recommend continued updating of the survey on institutional employment practices in the conference and that the findings of this survey be published in the Advocate, listing each institution.
6. We recommend that leaders be trained to identify and work with church agencies and organizations which can enhance understanding of the black experience of self, culture and church.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

This has been a year of transition for the Conference program of pastoral care and counseling. But before we cite the changes that have taken place, let us briefly summarize the accomplishments of this Office during the year.

1. A counseling program for ministers and lay persons was maintained at the Pastoral Counseling Service, 800 West Evans Street, Florence, on a full time basis. The Director also counseled with ministers and their families on Mondays at the Pastoral Counseling Service, Trenholm Road United Methodist Church, 3401 Trenholm Road, Columbia. A total of 1802 sessions was held with 457 lay and clergy persons. Of this total, 577 sessions were held with 153 different clergy persons and family members. These figures represent an increase of 84 sessions with 34 more clergy persons than were seen during calendar year 1976; 1647 sessions were held with 355 lay persons while in 1977, 1225 sessions were held with 305 lay persons. This reflects a growing involvement with the Conference phase of the program.
2. The Reverend Ingram Parmely, Ph.D., and the Reverend Lloyd Birch, Ph.D. continued to serve effectively on a part time salaried basis in the Florence office. Ms. Belva High, Ph.D., also counseled on an hourly basis.
3. The Conference Director helped to organize a new Pastoral Counseling Service, Asbury Memorial United Methodist Church, Columbia, and maintains a supervisory relationship with its Director.
4. The Conference Director maintained a consultant relationship and served as a member of the boards of the Pastoral Counseling Service at Trenholm Road United Methodist Church, Columbia; Spartanburg District Pastoral Counseling Service; Pastoral Counseling and Personal Growth Service, Trinity United Methodist Church, Greenville; Pastoral Counseling Service, Asbury Memorial United Methodist Church, Columbia.
5. The Conference Director served as a consultant to the clergy of the Conference as an aid to their ministries.
6. The Conference Director participated in a program of pastoral care and family life education at Lake Janaluska during ministers' week; with Dr. John Miller conducted a workshop on family relations for the Cabinet and their wives at Myrtle Beach; conducted family life education programs in several churches across the Conference.
7. The Conference Director served on the Board of Diaconal Ministry; the Board of Trustees, Wofford College; the Florence District Committee on the Ordained Ministry; and the Conference Council on Ministries.

Now let us look briefly at the changes which had to be undertaken. In the waning months of 1977, the Committee was faced with a financial crisis which necessitated several major changes in its program. After exploring a number of options the following action was taken: (1) the Committee secured a loan for $5,000.00 to meet its financial obligations for the remainder of calendar year 1977 (this note, secured at 9 percent interest, is being repaid at the rate of $150.00 per month out of the budgeted amount this Committee receives through General Finance and Administration); (2) The Committee secured the services of the Conference Director on a contractual basis. This leaves the Conference portion of his responsibilities unchanged but does mean that counseling with lay persons through the Pastoral Counseling Service, Florence was discontinued as of the end of 1977. (3) The Committee discontinued the services of the two salaried counselors and the secretary in the Florence office, with deep appreciation for services which had been rendered.

Duties of Conference Director of Pastoral Care and Counseling (Calendar Year 1978):

1. The Conference Director of Pastoral Care and Counseling shall be the executive officer of the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling of the South Carolina conference and shall be responsible for carrying out its policies and for initiating new programs, subject to the approval of the Conference Committee.
2. The Director shall maintain offices in Florence and Columbia and, on a scheduled basis, shall be available for counseling with United Methodist clergy and their dependent family members, as well as with lay people who are full time employees of institutions related to The United Methodist Church. Great care must be exercised to protect the confidential and privileged nature of communications between counselor and clients. Fees will not be charged for this service.
3. The Director shall serve as a consultant on counseling to the Cabinet, the Board of the Ordained Ministry and to individual clergy in their pastoral relationships. No charge shall be made for this service.

4. The Director shall interview and test ministerial candidates for the Board of the Ordained Ministry and for the District Committees of the Ordained Ministry. A fee of $15.00 per candidate will be charged for testing to defray the cost of testing materials.
5. The Director shall be an ex-officio member of committees on pastoral care and counseling related to local churches, groups of churches, or districts, and shall be responsible for the maintenance of professional competence and high ethical standards of staff persons.
6. The Director shall continue to encourage and provide guidance for the establishment of pastoral counseling services in areas of the state which do not now have such services. REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Youth Ministries put into effect the approved structure on September 3, 1977. The Council presently functions with an executive council and 5 standing committees. Other committees will be activated as needs develop. The standing committees are Youth Service Fund, Communications, Missional Outreach, Project Review, and Activities and Program.

What Have We Done?

1. Youth Service Fund has become once again a vital ministry to the lives of young members across the state of S.C.
2. A strong attempt has been made toward youth representation on all boards and agencies of the Church.
3. South Carolina CCYM has participated in connectional events—SEJ Caucus and National Youth Ministry Organization.
4. Designed a state wide Youth Rally for April 29 to bring together young members of the Church for a worship experience through music, drama and fellowship.
5. Worked with Board of Missions in creating and funding Salkehatchie Summer Service.
6. Worked with Board of Evangelism in creating a "youth minister to youth" Impact Program.
7. Conducted a training and planning retreat.
8. Gave input into planning of Summershine Activities.

How Do We Feel?—

1. We are not only the Church of tomorrow but more importantly the Church of today!
2. We hope to in the most loving and caring way express concerns of young members of the Church today and in turn, develop hopes into reality.
3. We have a strong sense of responsibility to each other, ourselves and to the S.C. Annual Conference. We are not just a Council—we are a team, working together for a soul purpose.
4. We seek nurture and spiritual food. Through the Impact Program, we hope to secure this care—this nurture through sharing of needs and concerns. We hope to grow in Christ and to strengthen our life commitments.

Since organization on September 3, we have had all 12 Districts represented at over 100% of our meetings. We are striving to make that 100%.

Your concern, support, and your prayers are solicited as we—young Christians, young members of Annual Conference—search for truth.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

It has been a busy, but rewarding, year for United Methodist Women in the South Carolina Conference. It has also been a year in which we have had greater participation by our women at all levels of our work. We are encouraged by the number of younger women who are finding channels for their talents and enthusiasm through the program of United Methodist Women. We believe that all our women are strengthened in their personal lives by the avenues open to them for growth in a new awareness of self and as responsible persons who are part of a larger community.

Attendance at our Retreats at Lake Junaluska was over 800; at the Conference School of Christian Mission we were filled to capacity; and at Annual Meeting in Rock Hill we registered over 600. Numerous opportunities for women have been offered through Days Apart, Retreats, leadership training and other events in each District. We were hostess to over 900 leaders from 22 states at the South Atlantic Regional School of Christian Mission at Columbia College in June. We co-sponsored a Seminar on the Role of Women in the Church in February, and held a Child Advocacy Workshop in March. The theme of the National Assembly to be held in Louisville, Kentucky in April, 1978 is "A New People For a New Age" with 150 from South Carolina in attendance.

Our financial information by Districts is contained in the accompanying report. It is significant that we pledged $206,000 to the Women's Division, Board of Global Ministries, and actually sent them $245,690.69! This is the commitment we have to missions at home and abroad. In addition to the usual mission projects we supported, we have prepared mid-winter kits for the women in Haiti, health kits for the migrant workers, contributed to the Reading Clinic at John's Island, sent over $4,000 to the Bethlehem Centers in Spartanburg and Columbia, Boylan-Haven-Mather Academy, and Killingsworth. A special offering was taken at our Retreats for the Retired Missionaries and Deaconesses.

The year 1978 marks the 100th year of organized women's work in South Carolina. As we remember our heritage, we are planning to celebrate with special activities at a two-day Annual Meeting in the Fall.

In an effort to improve communication, we have adopted new Standing Rules and Procedures this year and begun publication of a new Conference newsletter, The Mission. Most of the Districts also have a newsletter.

We are grateful for the opportunities which are available to women within the United Methodist Church and pledge our support to the missional tasks we share.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- The Board of Trustees requests the Council on Finance and Administration to appropriate for the 1979 fiscal year the amount of $25,000 to subsidize the costs of publishing and mailing the ADVOCATE for the fiscal year, 1979.
- The Trustees recommend that a designated month in 1979 be observed in all churches across the Conference as ADVOCATE CAMPAIGN MONTH with emphasis upon the All-Family Plan and the Church Leaders Plan in all congregations. Appreciation is expressed to the District Directors of Publishing Interest and to all ministers who share vitally in the promotion and support of our Conference publication on a volunteer basis.
- The Trustees recommend that the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate be sent to every resident family by the local church and that one-third of the resident membership be used as a base for the number of families and that $3.50 per family be placed in the budget, or raised otherwise, and that this money be paid directly to the Advocate on at least a quarterly basis.
- As an alternate plan the Trustees recommend that the local church seriously consider providing the Advocate to the church leaders through The Church Leaders Plan with a minimum of 15 subscriptions at $4.00 each.
- We recommend that the subscription rates of the ADVOCATE be the same as outlined in Report No. 2.
- The Trustees have elected the Reverend W. Wallace Fridy as Editor of the South Carolina United Methodist ADVOCATE, and as Manager of The Methodist Center, and respectfully request the Bishop to make the appointment.

REPORT OF THE S. C. CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

In accord with a directive from the 1977 Annual Conference, the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees called together and organized a committee on Methodist Camps and a Committee on Conference Communications on October 5, 1977. Both committees are in the process of preparing recommendations to be submitted to the Annual Conference in June 1978.

Major actions of the Board of Trustees during the Conference Year included the following:

1. Loaned Hartsville District $22,000 for the District Parsonage to be repaid in 15 years at 7% per annum simple interest on a semi-annual basis.
2. Sold Peniel Church property (Chesterfield County) for $8,000, of which $5,000 was granted to the trustees of the cemetery to be placed in trust. The income acquired is to be utilized for the upkeep of the cemetery.
3. Sold Hopewell property (Orangeburg County) for $14,000.
4. Received from the heirs of H. H. Murphy the deed to the cemetery property (Cainhoy Plantation, Charleston District).

This was a good year for the Board of Trustees, characterized by a lack of any major complications. We continue in the spirit of love and competency to do the task assigned to us.

Respectfully submitted,
W. N. Pough, Chairperson
Marian A. Jones, Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Since organization on December 4, 1976, the Conference Committee on Episcopacy has met seven times. Early in its life, the group aimed at becoming better acquainted with the bishop of our Area and his work. We have then sought for ways of interpreting the episcopacy in The United Methodist Church to our constituency in South Carolina and have been in conversation with the Conference Council on Ministries Communications office for guidance in accomplishing this. Members of the committee, living in scattered points within the State, have wanted to be available to the membership of the churches and conference for expressions and feelings about the performance of our bishop.

From the very beginning, the committee has wanted to provide a vehicle for appraisal of the work of the bishop, and one of the first steps was the formation of a sub-committee to supply it. That sub-committee is composed of Ms. Leone Young, vice-chairperson of the Committee on Episcopacy; Dr. A. McKay Brabham, Dr. Michael Watson, and Mr. Mike Morrison. In preparation for arriving at an evaluation form, the whole committee set for itself a study of the book published by the Institute of Methodist Studies at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, written by Egon W. Gerdes and entitled INFORMED MINISTRY. After individual reading we were led in a treatment of the book by Dr. Larry Jackson, a member of the committee.

There has now been distributed a form for appraisal to members of the Cabinet, heads of Conference Boards and Agencies, District Lay Leaders, and Presidents of District United Methodist Women as well as this committee.

There is on-going conversation with the bishop concerning the life of the conference in terms of giving, evangelistic outreach, continuing merger, ministerial supply, his schedule and responsibilities.

Bishop Tullis appreciates the availability of such a committee and finds the supportiveness to be of great value.

The committee, in cooperation with the Spartanburg District United Methodist Women, held a reception at Annual Conference of 1977 to provide those attending an opportunity to welcome the return of Bishop and Mrs. Tullis for a second quadrennium. There was a very gratifying participation in the reception.

Respectfully submitted,
Joel E. Cannon, Chairman
Mrs. Charles L. Johnson, Secretary

REPORT OF THE CONTINUING COMMITTEE ON MERGER

The Continuing Committee on Merger has tried to be faithful to our task in monitoring standards, agencies, and institutions to see that they are faithful in "letter and spirit" to the merger document.

While we find much to applaud about the institutions and agencies in their faithfulness to the merger, we do find that there has not been enough "intentionality" in hiring and appointing. All of our institutions should develop a more intentional program.

To illustrate our point. On February 27, 1978, the full committee made a visit to the Orangeburg Home for the Aging. While we found the Board and Administration very cooperative, we found that the long waiting list that existed at the time of merger was the "wall" that has discouraged many blacks from applying for residence. Blacks have not been able to get into the upper levels of care because priority is given to those already in residence. What should have happened at the time of merger was a goal program to put some black applications at the top of the list. After all, the date of merger made blacks "newcomers" in the home, and the old waiting lists should have been adjusted to accommodate the new "partners". The administration promised to look into this inequity and to be more intentional in the future admissions. The committee appreciated the open way in which we were received and the problems discussed.

In the next few months the committee will visit all the other institutions to see if some of these past injustices cannot be corrected. We are going to suggest that all institutions set goals for hiring and admitting minorities. There is still much doubt within the committee that our institutions have been faithful enough in hiring policies toward minorities.

Our committee also requests that the report from the General Church Commission on Human and Race be printed in the Advocate. Our conference has gained national recognition as having one of the best mergers in Methodism, and we must all work hard to maintain faithfulness to our belief that all baptised men are brothers in the one family of man under God.

Rhett Jackson, Secretary

REPORT OF THE STUDY COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATIONS AS AMENDED AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

To communicate is to impart and transmit information and common understandings. Communication is the process by which such information is made available. Communication describes the net work of services utilized to provide useful transmission of information and understandings.

The Committee to study the Conference communications network has met half a dozen times over a five month period to discuss options and recommendations for strengthening Conference communication efforts. Valuable input from interested groups has been incorporated in the report which the Committee is submitting for your consideration.

PHILOSOPHY OF COMMUNICATIONS

I. A Theological Rationale: The Conference communications network is grounded in the working assumption that God's will and purpose have been disclosed in Jesus Christ through the church for the sake of the whole world. It is therefore an imperative laid upon us to claim membership in that part of Christ's body called United Methodist that we be teachers and interpreters of the proclaimed message and vessels through which the message and its meaning and mandates may be clearly discerned and made known.

II. Functional Role: A church communications network must embrace principles of openness, voluntarism participation and cooperation between all agencies and groups responsible for sharing the Word in words as well as deeds, locally, as well as worldwide.

III. Operating Model: Any Conference communications network should work in cooperative ways with all Conference agencies and should be clear in its interpretive role. A Conference newspaper should be a vocal witness to the redemptive work of Christ and the church for the sake of the world and should address issues which shape lives and in-

PREAMBLE

WE AFFIRM the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate's historic, prophetic and interpretive role in the life of our Conference. We commend the trustees and the staff of the Advocate for their efforts to communicate the Word through printed words to the Conference and to the larger community of our State.

WE AFFIRM the role and work of the Conference Committee on Communications and express our gratitude to them for their efforts on our behalf to strengthen our communications network.

Our study points to the need for assurance that responsibility and authority for coordination of communication efforts lie with persons assigned communicative roles. It is clear that a close cooperative working relationship between the Advocate and Council staff will be required to fulfill most adequately the communication functions of the Annual Conference.

Any proposal considered seriously requires a new Conference commitment to financial undergirding. A proposal for such support is a part of this report. Any plan adopted will require willingness to initiate innovative, cooperative, and intentional efforts to empower local churches, districts, and the Conference for mission in the world.

A PLAN TO CONSIDER

This plan is based on the assumption that the present organizational structure of the Advocate and the Council on Ministries' Committee on Communication should be maintained. It provides for strengthening ways in which the present organizations exercise their assigned responsibilities.

In order to enhance the total communications functions of the Annual Conference, we make the following recommendations:

That the goal of communications in the South Carolina Annual Conference be to communicate our faith as members of the Body of Christ and as United Methodists by speaking and listening to persons both within and outside the church throughout South Carolina and to utilize all appropriate means of communication. While the responsibility to communicate is laid upon every member of the Body of Christ, there are certain functions that have been assigned to the Advocate and to the Conference Council on Ministries' Committee on Communication to be performed in behalf of all through the talents and resources at their command.

That the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate should be responsible for news-gathering, news dissemination, publication of a weekly Conference Newspaper and the interpretation and promotion of general and Annual Conference programs and benevolences within a news-dissemination framework.

In order to accomplish these responsibilities, we recommend:

That the Advocate Board of Trustees develop a clear, concise statement of purpose which both affirms the historical prophetic stances of the Advocate and allows for the interpretation of General and Annual Conference programs and benevolences through the Advocate. The Board further shall define an editorial policy which reflects the avowed purpose of the Advocate.

That a job description setting forth detailed responsibilities and duties, be written for the position of Communications Coordinator by the Conference Council on Ministries' Personnel Committee in consultation with the Conference Council on Ministries Committee on Communication.

That the Communications Coordinator strengthen the interpretation and promotion of General and Annual Conference programs and benevolences with resources of personnel and money made available by the Conference Council on Ministries and Conference.

That the Communications Coordinator develop, train, and strengthen the communications network at the district and local church levels. This person shall be responsible for assisting the Advocate in using the district and local church communications network for newsgathering and dissemination.

The Advocate Board of Trustees and the Conference Council on Ministries shall enter into a written contractual relationship in order that the communications operations of the South Carolina Annual Conference might be strengthened. This agreement shall provide as follows:

That the Advocate provide a professional capability for writing and distributing news releases to the appropriate religious and public media. It shall gather news for such releases in cooperation with the Communications Coordinator.

The Committee on Communication through the Communications Coordinator shall supply to the Advocate staff all necessary and proper information and interpretation about all Annual Conference programs, events and developments.

Provision and clarification shall be made for sharing of facilities, staff equipment, and resources of both the Committee on Communication and of the Advocate for the purpose of achieving a total and comprehensive communications operation.

Provision shall be made for the establishment of a mutually beneficial working relationship between the editor of the Advocate and the Communications Coordinator. Each shall be available to assist the other when a clear need arises. Both shall respect the initiating authority of the other in their respective areas of responsibility. Each is responsible for advising the other on matters within his/her area of responsibility which might influence the efficient and effective operation of the communications network of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

CONCLUSION

The intent of our study is to provide the Conference with an opportunity to examine ways to strengthen communications efforts throughout our membership and community. We feel that the Conference concurs in our conviction that good stewardship requires available resources to be used wisely.

As God's people with a message and a mandate, we must be engaged with one another to communicate the demands and gifts of the kingdom of God and the possibilities of life together.

RECOMMENDATIONS

We RECOMMEND that the current operations budget for communications purposes of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate, the Committee on Communication and the Conference Council on Ministries be continued at its present level of $211,734. Of this funding from the Annual Conference budget comes $63,534. Support from the Annual Conference to these agencies should also be continued at the current level.

To implement this plan, we recommend:

That the Annual Conference authorize $2,000 from the Council on Finance and Administration to be used by the Conference Council on Ministries Committee on Communication for the purpose of seeking professional assistance in implementing the plan and drafting of proposed contractual agreements between the Advocate and the Committee on Communication.

WARREN GALLOWAY ARIAIL
April 16, 1894 — December 12, 1977

Warren Galloway Ariail, the son of the Rev. James Warren Ariail and Mrs. Caroline Hodges Ariail, was born on April 16, 1894 at Mullins, S.C. After attending the grammar schools in the vicinity of his father's appointments, he graduated from St. George High School and entered Wofford College. He graduated from Wofford in the class of 1916. In 1915 he received his license to preach and on December 2, 1915, was admitted into the South Carolina Conference on trial in Charleston, S.C. He received Deacon's orders by Bishop James Atkins in 1917, and also Elder's orders by Bishop U.V.W. Darlington in 1921.

He served the following appointments: Epworth (Darlington); Early Branch; (in 1918 he was unable to serve because of impaired health and was granted the supernumerary relation in 1919, though he supplied the Early Branch Charge for most of the year). He was then appointed to Early Branch; Little River; Black Swamp; Heath Springs; Camden; Cheraw; Kingstree; Latta; Beaufort; McColl; St. George; Providence and Landrum. After serving the Conference for thirty years, he was granted the retired relation at the 1949 session of the Annual Conference because of failing health.

Mr. Ariail was married twice, first to Miss Anne E. Furse of Early Branch on Nov. 2, 1917. She lived only a few months after their marriage. He married again in 1920 to Miss Essie Smith of Mullins, S.C. To them were born three sons, Warren G. Ariail, Jr., (Shelby, N.C.), William S. Ariail, (Myrtle Beach, S.C.), and Clyde Milton Ariail, (Deceased, Sept. 2, 1977). All three were graduates of Wofford College. Of these, there are eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Upon retirement, Mr. Ariail lived in Mullins for three years, then with his sons until 1975 when he entered the Methodist Home in Orangeburg where he remained until his death, December 12, 1977. Interment services were held at Cedardale Cemetery, the Rev. James L. Correll and the Rev. Herbert C. Floyd officiating.

Brother Ariail was born into a family that has meant much to our State and Methodism. He enjoyed an enrichment in acquaintance with the great masters of literature. He was a student of the great writers of the ages. His joy was to live and inspire others with great men of the past. He was recognized through his own writings of "Sunshine and Shade" and "Nightingale" published in many magazines in America and abroad. He was also proud of his poem, "Carlisle", published in the Wofford Centennial publication. He was very able in describing the many beauties of God's great world. Truly, he has run the race of life nobly, even under all physical handicaps. He was truly a loyal shepherd of those who followed our Lord, Jesus Christ. Now that he has departed from us, we can say, "Well done, friend and brother — God gives the better appointment."

JAMES LARRY ASHLEY
June 22, 1913 — March 26, 1978

Life is a short summer, and for James it totaled 64 years; yet it was so filled with love for God and for people that it sparkled with zeal and devotion. Born June 22, 1913, son of Ira K. and Cordelia D. Ashley of Pelzer, S.C., he attended the Pelzer schools, Spartanburg Methodist College, and Furman University, earning the A.B. degree in 1944. In training for the ministry he took the Correspondence Course of Study of the Candler School of Theology, Emory University, attended Pastors' School, and read good books.

It was in the late 1930s, while James was attending Furman that the writer first knew him. He was working in Camperdown Mill and preparing for the ministry. Being a product of the Carolina hills in the up country where people believed in plain clothes, plain cooking, plain houses and churches to attend on Sunday, James knew what it means to labor with his hands, and with other "red-faced out-door men," how "to wipe little rivers of sweat from their foreheads."

In 1939 he was licensed to preach, ordained deacon in 1946, ordained elder in 1948, and admitted into full connection of the Conference in 1948 under bishop Costen J. Harrell.

On September 7, 1940, James married Miss Blanche Humphreys of Greenville, S.C. To this union were born two daughters: Cordelia Ora, of Easley, S.C., Jeannette Ruth, of New York; and one son, James Larry Ashley, Jr. A closeknit family they were, bound by ties of Christian devotion and common interests.

His appointments included: Associate, Greenville Circuit; Princeton; Choice Street-

Holroyd Memorial; North Easley; Central (Laurens); Piedmont; Orrville; Chester; Whaley Street; Easley Mill; Central, S.C.; Calhoun Falls; and Lockhart. At the June Conference of 1977, he retired a year earlier on account of ill health, maintaining residence in Lockhart where his wife teaches school.

Mr. Ashley experienced a deep joy in his work. Being a man of strong courage and conviction, he loved God with all his heart and surrendered his life to Christ as his personal Saviour. With a compassion like that of the Good Samaritan, his heart went out to the small church. Beulah Church on the Beulah-Bethesda Charge is a credit to this man's feeling for the little church. He loved people deeply, and to them he gave his best. Preaching was his chief joy; evangelism the light of his soul; prayer and Bible study his daily means of spiritual strength.

Those acquainted with Rev. Ashley knew to take him as he was; and as someone has said, he was "always full of himself," ready to make a witty remark. In the last years of his attendance at Conference, he would secure permission from the bishop to insert a light vein of humor in the business proceedings by teasing the minds of the ministers and those present. People attending his churches knew he was courageous in his preaching, and swift to wield the verbal axe on unrepentant sinners and sleeping church members.

The life of this minister ebbed away swiftly on Easter Sunday afternoon on the way to the hospital. How great to be an Easter person, and to be numbered in the family of God!

Services were conducted Tuesday morning, March 28, 1978, at Lockhart's United Methodist Church by the Rev. Ray Anderson, the Rev. James Grigsby, and the writer. Interment was in the Greenlawn Memorial Park at Easley.

PINKNEY LOMO BAUKNIGHT
May 2, 1888 — May 31, 1978

Pinkney Lomo Bauknight was born May 2, 1888, in the Irmo-Shady Grove Community, and now, ninety years later, God has called him home, the call having come just a few miles from where he was born. Having been received On Trial in the South Carolina Conference in 1918, he served sixty years as a Methodist preacher. Those sixty years were a blessing to The Methodist Church and to countless thousands of people who knew him as a faithful preacher of the Word and a pastor and friend who loved them. He and his devoted wife (Nina Mae Eleazer), who was from the same community, moved about and served in many places for the Methodist ministry as a joint career with wife and husband together serving God's people. They served: Dunean Mills, Dunean-Judson, Pacolet Mills, Aiken-Williston, Waverly, Triune (Greenville), First Church (Lancaster), Bethel (Chester), Grace (Union), Broad Street (Clinton), St. Mark's (Sumter), and Mauldin. He retired in 1953, but after that served when asked as pastor of Asbury Memorial in Columbia and Associate at Main Street, Columbia.

There are three things that, to me, characterize Pinkney Bauknight's life and ministry. The first thing is commitment; he was totally committed to the Christian way of life. All that he did and thought was prefaced by this commitment. Christ's way was his way, and he was totally committed to the Church and to the ministry. He gave himself 100% to his Asbury Church situated near the Veteran's Hospital, Columbia. This was a new church that had just organized, and he cheerfully accepted the responsibility of the pastoral leadership. In the three years that he served as pastor, the church became well established. Second, he was committed to people, and he did all that he could to help them with care, love, and good judgment; he shared their problems, their tragedies, their joys. And, finally, he was committed to preaching the Word. He was a good preacher and he was loved by his people. Every church to which he was appointed loved him and advanced under his leadership.

Pinkney Bauknight was committed to his nation and loved America and believed in the ultimate goodness of America. He loved deeply and believed that love was what our Scriptures say: it is everlasting! First and foremost, he loved God in Christ and the Church. He was always interested in — and, more than that, concerned about — the Church and its welfare. This was the thing that he dared to give his entire life for: God called him to preach, and he answered, and this answer was forever! He loved his family, and to them he was a good and devoted father and husband. A bond of love bound this family together and still binds them. He loved his ministerial brothers; there is no brotherhood exactly like the Methodist ministry and "Pink" loved "the brethren." We are brothers and we do love each other; he loved (as all of us do) to get in a bunch of fellow preachers to talk, enjoy each other's stories, and share problems and joys.

He had faith in the Church and what it stands for, and he believed, as we do, that the answer to the problems of the world and of the individual. On this faith he stood and lived his life. He had faith in the ultimate and joyful Kingdom of God. He believed, as we do, that God is a God of love and is as Jesus said, "A Father." Therefore, his heavenly Father had a permanent place for him to work and live. God is not a God of the unfinished. God does not strike us down and mark across our lives "FINISHED." Rather, God says to us "Come in, there is a place for you." He says, in effect, what Jesus described when the master said to his faithful servant, "Well done, enter into the joys of your Lord." Yes, as Victor Hugo said about his work on his 75th birthday: "My work ends one night but will begin early the next morning." Somewhere in God's great heaven, our friend, the Reverend Pinkney Lomo Bauknight, is praising and blessing God in that to which he totally committed his life and strength some sixty years ago. Somewhere he will attend another Conference with those who served with and around him: my father, the Reverend E. S. Jones, Dr. J.R.T. Major; Dr. Bob Morris; Dr. A. L. Gunter; Dr. W. B. Garrett; and others. And they shall sing, as we have so often sung and said:

"Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire
And lighten with celestial fire;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy seven fold gifts impart."

BENJAMIN BRYAN BLACK November 1, 1898 — March 11, 1978

Benjamin Bryan Black was a faithful minister of the United Methodist Church for 47 years and served with distinction as the pastor of circuits, station churches and as a district superintendent. He was born in Rock Hill, South Carolina on November 1, 1898, the son of Franklin David and Mattie Culp Black. After graduation from the public schools in Rock Hill, he attended Spartanburg Methodist College and did further work at Asbury College. He was married to Lillie Mae Wolfe of Rock Hill, South Carolina on June 25, 1924, who preceded him in death in 1962. Children of this marriage were Evangeline (Blackwell) John Clay, Helen Jean (Langston), Mary Ruth (Moorer) and Paul Bryan. On October 2, 1963, Mr. Black married Vera Louise Whitmire of Greenville, South Carolina, who was a faithful companion for 15 years and who survives him.

Mr. Black was licensed to preach in the Rock Hill District on recommendation at Kings Mountain Church in May 1919. He was admitted on trial on October 29, 1925 to the upper South Carolina Conference meeting at Abbeville. He was ordained deacon on November 27, 1927 by Bishop Mouzon and elder November 24, 1929, also by Bishop Mouzon and received into full connection on November 26, 1929. He served churches throughout up-state South Carolina in the areas of Rock Hill, Greenwood, Greer, Newberry, Spartanburg, Greenville and Anderson. He was District Superintendent of the Anderson District from 1953-59 and following his retirement served as retired supply of Lee Road Church in Greenville, Apalache Church in Greer and as interim District Superintendent of the Greenville District.

Mr. Black rendered significant service to the Annual Conference through the Board of Conference Claimants, Missions, and Temperance; and as a Trustee of the Methodist Home, Orangeburg. He gave leadership to the Conference as one of its most respected members and was a delegate to three General Conferences and five Jurisdictional Conferences.

The life of this dear brother was characterized by his closeness to Christ. He was uncompromising with wrong, had a deep love of people, especially his fellow ministers, and lived a life of unyielding integrity. He was a gentle person and his life constantly expressed his gratitude to God and his fellowman.

Funeral services were conducted at Buncombe Street United Methodist Church in Greenville, S. C. on March 13, 1978 by Dr. Bryan Crenshaw and the Reverend Joseph R. Nicholson. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery in Greenville.

CHARLES HERBERT BOULWARE November 2, 1911 — February 10, 1978

Charles Herbert Boulware was born at Ridgeland, S. C. November 2, 1911, a son of the Reverend R. C. and Mrs. Sue Watson Boulware. He attended Wofford College, earning an AB Degree in 1933. He further prepared himself for the ministry by attending the seminary at Emory University. On June 19, 1943, he married Miriam Atkinson of Gresham, S. C. They were born a son, Charles Herbert, Jr. in 1945, now a teacher and coach at Irmo, S. C.

Licensed to preach in 1938, Herbert Boulware was admitted on trial in 1940 by the South Carolina Conference. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Watkins on November 2, 1941. On November 1, 1942, he was ordained an elder by Bishop Watkins and received into full connection. During his ministry of some 37 years, Mr. Boulware served the following appointments: Jordan Charge, 1939-40; Mullins Circuit, 1940-42; Cades Charge, 1942-46; Bar Charge, 1946-50; Branchville, 1950-54; St. James-Eureka, 1954-57; Harleyville Charge, 1957-60; Wesley Chapel, Lydia, 1960-63; Summerton, 1963-67; Hemingway, 1967-69; Timmons-ville-Salem, 1971-75; Bethel and Sandy Grove, Bethune Charge, 1975-78.

He died of a sudden heart attack at Prosperity on February 10 while attending a basketball game. Funeral services were conducted Sunday, February 12, at Bethel U.M. Church, Bethune, by Bishop Edward L. Tullis and the Reverend E. M. Heape. Interment was in Salem Cemetery near Timmons-ville.

I first knew Herbert Boulware when he was sent to the Jordan Charge in 1939. His parsonage was in Manning, my home town, and so I got to know him quite well during the year he was there. Herbert arrived at his first appointment during Unification and at a time when money was still rather scarce. He had a lot to overcome, but he faced up to his problems like the Christian gentleman and minister he was. When he left the Jordan Charge, I continued to keep in touch with him, and our friendship grew over the years.

Boulware had a great sense of humor and could be very comical at times, but I never heard him tell a joke from the pulpit. In the pulpit he was all seriousness. He was a great pastor and one who lifted up a prayer wherever he went. No matter where he ever stopped for a visit, whether it was in a home, a store, or on the street, he would stay about five minutes and have a short prayer before leaving.

On the afternoon before his death, he came by to see me. He stayed longer than usual and we talked a long time. He said, "I may retire at Conference this year. I'm seriously considering it." When the news came to me a little later of his death, I couldn't believe it. This man was too full of life and good works to die; and he was so close to retirement. But could such a man as Herbert Boulware ever retire? I doubt it.

On Sunday morning, February 12, the day of his funeral, I conducted a memorial service for him at Wesley Chapel, Lydia, where he had served fifteen years earlier. There were many tears shed by his former members at the church that morning, but Herbert Boulware was still that much loved by the people he had once served. People he served never forgot him or stopped loving him. He was that kind of a man and minister.

Can the world ever be the same again without him? I doubt it, but we who knew him can let the memories of him warm our hearts and help us on to the eternal light of God.

GILES CALVIN BROWN November 11, 1895 — June 21, 1977

"The Priest of John's Island" is the name by which Giles Calvin Brown was often called by those who worked with him in church-related matters on John's Island. This was said because he was the first of our pastors of the Island that braved the conditions that existed on the Island at that time. He also led in the building of the residence for the Minister on the Island.

Mr. Brown was trained at Claflin College and Gammon Theological Seminary. He served in World War I. As a Minister of God he served the following charges of the South Carolina Conference on the Spartanburg District: Blacksburg, Spartanburg Circuit, St. James and Wellford. On the Charleston District he served Washington-Ladson; this was followed by thirty-two (32) years of service on the John's Island Charge. During these thirty-two years he worked and established connections between the then isolated inhabitants of John's Island and people beyond its borders.

As time progressed, the Reverend Mr. Brown enjoyed the confidence and friendship of those whom he served.

To those who were his colleagues he was affectionately known as "G.C.". No occasion was too grave or distant, for G.C. to come with understanding and care.

After retirement, he and his wife, Wilbie Kight Brown, moved to Orangeburg. She preceded him in death by three years.

June 24, 1977, a pleasant afternoon, at six o'clock, loved ones, many colleagues, scores of members for the John's Island charge and friends gathered at Trinity Church, Orangeburg, to console the family and celebrate his ministry and priesthood as a servant of God.

He is survived by two sisters, three brothers, and a host of other relatives.

He was born in Gaffney, South Carolina in 1885, a son of the late Reverend Mitchell Brown and Mrs. Carrie Brown.

He departed this life June 21, 1977, and his body rests in the Belleville Memorial Gardens beside that of his wife, Wilbie.

HENRY FITZHUGH COLLINS
March 7, 1898 — March 5, 1978

During the fifty years that I knew Henry Collins my estimate of his character has never lessened. He was a gifted and popular young preacher when he entered the South Carolina Annual Conference in 1923. Prior to that time he had completed his training in Law at Cumberland University and was a member of the S. C. Bar. He did his theological work at Candler School of Theology, Emory University and at the University of Chicago.

Henry was a son of Maxie C. and Olive Matthews Collins and was a native of Lake City, S. C. He served in the U. S. Army on the Mexican Border and later in France during World War I. He was given an honorable discharge as a Second Lieutenant. He was admitted on trial into the S. C. Annual Conference in 1923 and for the next 25 years served with distinction the following charges: Beulah, Georgetown, Clio, Latta, Charleston, Camden, and Walterboro. During his active ministry he served on the Board of Trustees of Epworth and several other committees. He also was active in American Legion and Masonic work. During 1948 he was on Sabbatical Leave, devoting full time to the Masonic Order. After asking for voluntary location, he served as Grand Secretary for the Grand Lodge for eighteen years and other administrative positions in the York Rite Bodies until his retirement due to failing health in 1968. At that time he was readmitted to the S. C. Annual Conference and placed in the retired relationship. During the nine years following he was quietly moving with good humor and charm among his many friends. For the last few months of his life he suffered much but was constantly comforted by his ever devoted and loving wife, the former Miss Virginia Harmon, who survives along with their children, H. F., Jr.; George Harmon; and Mary Virginia (Mrs. T. A. Shea) and four grandchildren. Henry died in the Veterans Hospital, Columbia, March 5, 1978, and was buried in Greenlawn Cemetery, Columbia, on Tuesday afternoon, March 7, with services conducted by the Rev. Dr. R. Wright Spears and the Rev. H. D. McAlister. A host of friends, including many Masons, from over the state were in attendance. As Whittier reminds us: "The stars still shine and Life is ever Lord of Death, and Love can never lose its own."

EDGAR ALLEN FOWLER, JR.
November 9, 1923 — October 27, 1977

"When we truly come together and participate in the Great Eucharist, we truly are with all the angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven . . . When my day on earth is done and you want to get in touch with me, you're going to find me around the table; and when you come around the table, we'll be together. It's an act of faith."

— E. A. Fowler, Jr. 3/12/72

On the evening of October 27, 1977, the Reverend Edgar Allan Fowler, Jr. died suddenly of a heart attack in Port Royal, S.C. Thus ended Ed's fifty-three year pilgrimage through life. Thus ended his brief, intense, and fruitful pastoral labors in the Lord's vineyards.

On the morning of October 29, 1977, several hundred of Ed's friends gathered at the communion table of Port Royal United Methodist Church to honor his life; to share the grief of his wife, Betty, and daughter, Patty; and to bear witness to the risen Christ.

Later the same day, several hundred more of Ed's friends gathered at Windsor United Methodist Church, Columbia, to praise God and offer thanksgiving for the gift of Ed Fowler. The Rev. Robert Clyburn called us together as the community of faith. The Rev. Peden Gene Curry recited the qualities of Ed's person that made so many call him blessed. The Rev. Chad Davis gave sensitive expression to our common grief and sorrow at the loss of the "man with the beard." The assembled people of God: men, women, children, young and old alike, wept from the sting of death while receiving the peace of God born out of the resurrection hope in Christ Jesus.

The memory of Ed Fowler is of a man who embodied a bold passion for the gift of life. Universal in his interests, encyclopedic in his knowledge, Ed faithfully cultivated his many talents. Along the way he became a military pilot, an artist, a musician, a draftsman, a brilliant business administrator, and a writer of poetry.

After Ed committed his life to the ordained ministry of The United Methodist Church, he was recognized by his colleagues, his parishioners, and others, as a master in the pulpit, a scholar of the Scriptures, an astute and articulate theologian, a skilled counselor, and a church administrator par excellence.

Ed's genius, however, rested not in his personal growth and professional abilities, as accomplished as these were; rather, it was in his unique "way" of exciting others from all walks and conditions of life about the good news of Christ Jesus. Few can match the enlivened evangelism that was the sum and substance of the life of Ed Fowler.

The pastorates served by Ed included Liberty U.M.C., Galloway Memorial U.M.C. (Greenwood), Windsor U.M.C. (Columbia), and Port Royal U.M.C. Ed's pastoral labors extended to active participation on a number of conference boards and agencies, as well as various civic organizations. His personal ministry encompassed all whose lives were enriched and deeply affected by this love-living, life-loving man.

Ed Fowler, the pilgrim, is dead. His fellow pilgrims continue without his warm presence. Impoverished by his absence, yet do we continually rejoice that we walked with him for awhile. In the mystery of God's grace, Ed is now and ever shall be among the angels and the archangels and with all the company of heaven present with us when we come around the table prepared by God. Amen and amen.

STEPHEN VAN FOWLER
July 25, 1886 — August 1, 1977

The Reverend Stephen Van Fowler, the son of the late Andrew and Mary Fowler, was born July 25, 1886 in Kershaw County, South Carolina. He passed from this life Monday, August 1, 1977 in Florence, South Carolina.

The Reverend Fowler was a man with a deep religious conviction. He would talk about his conversion experience in his latter years as if it were just a recent happening. He too, had an assurance as Wesley did, about his salvation. He would often say that he had a "guarantee" on Heaven.

With a thirst for knowledge, the Reverend Fowler attended the following schools: Mather Academy of Camden, South Carolina, Sterling School in Greenville, South Carolina, Morris Brown College and Clark College in Atlanta, Georgia, and graduated from Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia. He worked his way every step of the way.

He served the following charges in Georgia: Oakland, 1918-1919; Chucamoga-Cohuta, 1919-1920; Cartersville, 1920-1921; Swannee, 1921-1922; Leo, 1922-1923. In South Carolina, Rev. Fowler served Dorchester, 1923-1924; Beaufort, 1924-1925; West Anderson, 1925-1928; North Greenville, 1928-1930; St. Luke, 1930-1931; St. John, 1931-1934; Salem Wesley, 1934-1939; Minus Chapel-Wesley, 1939-1941; Chesnee, 1941-1942; Wellford, 1942-1944; Columbia, 1944-1948; Kingstree, 1948-1956 and Timmonsville, 1956-1958. The Reverend Fowler married the former Miss Alice Thornton of Atlanta, Georgia, July, 29, 1942. They had a very fruitful ministry together.

After his retirement, Rev. Fowler placed his charge conference membership at Cumberland United Methodist Church in Florence. He taught the Men's Bible Class until his health failed him.

Last rites were held for Rev. Fowler at Cumberland United Methodist Church in Florence August 5, 1977. The service was conducted by The Rev. Granville A. Hicks. The Rev. George Watson, The Rev. F. H. Ham, The Rev. H. B. Jones, The Rev. J. Herbert Thomas and the Rev. J. L. Brooks. ARTHUR LOVELACE GUNTER
March 7, 1890 — July 23, 1977

I first came to know Dr. Gunter in 1930 during my junior year at Wofford College. He was at that time pastor of Bethel Church, Spartanburg, and I became very much interested in attending his services and the Sunday School there. I attended faithfully during my junior and senior years and received much inspiration from him and from the fellowship of his church. Next, he was my District Superintendent when I served as Director of Wesley Foundation for the University of South Carolina and Columbia College and as Associate at Washington Street Church in 1936-37. He was a wonderful counselor and a true friend. I knew him across the years in many other capacities and owe many things in my ministry to him. It has been my privilege to work with him when he was raising money for Epworth Children's Home and Wofford College. In 1974 when we moved to Leesville he became one of our very closest friends, with whom we visited often. He had been retired for some time, but enjoyed his farming and brought us many fine vegetables as we visited together and talked over old times. I was with him during his final illness. He bore up bravely and well and gave a wonderful witness to Jesus Christ and kept his happy spirit despite his bodily infirmities.

Dr. Gunter was born in Aiken County, March 7, 1890. He attended Leesville College for 1½ years. He received his A.B. Degree from Newberry College and was in the School of Theology at Vanderbilt University for 2½ years. Newberry College conferred upon him the Doctor of Divinity Degree in 1931. He was married to Mary Gladys Able of Leesville. They have two fine sons, John Lovelace and Rhett. One is a dentist and the other a doctor, and they both have been most devoted and had close family ties. Dr. Gunter was licensed to preach in 1915, ordained a deacon in 1916 and an elder in 1918. He served the following churches: College Place-Waverly, 1915 (building the church at Waverly); Edgefield, 1916-19; Batesburg, 1920-21; Buford Street, Gaffney, 1922-24; Washington Street, Columbia, 1924-29; Bethel, Spartanburg, 1930-34; Columbia District Superintendent, 1935-38; Executive Secretary, Upper S. C. Conference Board of Education, 1939-42; St. John's, Rock Hill, 1943-45; Field Representative, Epworth Children's Home, 1945-46; Superintendent of Epworth, 1947-53; Assistant to the President of Wofford College, 1954-55. He served on many important boards and commissions of the church, and was twice a delegate to the General Conference and an alternate delegate once.

Dr. Gunter was a builder wherever he went. I remember that he added Sunday School buildings at Bethel in Spartanburg, but primarily the monument that he left behind is the beautiful campus of Epworth Children's Home. I lived just a few blocks from Epworth when I was in Columbia and used to walk over the campus each day for exercise. Truly, it is one of the most beautiful campuses in the state. Dr. Gunter raised well over a million dollars for Epworth, and after his retirement as Superintendent, left a very sizable sum. Dr. Gunter said, "I believe that in order to develop good character and good citizenship, four things are necessary—play, work, study, and worship. These should be properly balanced and properly integrated. All this should and must be done in the atmosphere of love and can be done better amid pleasant physical surroundings." He tried to make the surroundings all he could for the children at Epworth. He was a wonderful pastor as well as an able preacher. He loved people and people loved him. I served a church in Orangeburg before coming to Leesville where there was a couple who had been in his congregation when he was at Washington Street in 1924-29. They had remained fast friends through the years, and he went back to conduct the funerals of both the husband and wife. This is the kind of friend he was. He was an ever faithful preacher of the gospel.

His home life was happy and joyful. He was truly devoted to his wife and children. He loved the soil and loved to work in it. He loved to tell people of his experience with God, and he was a man who kept constantly on the go helping others always with a smile and always greeting you with a word of cheerfulness and encouragement. Truly he was one of God's noble servants, a builder not only of buildings, but of character and hope.

It was the writer's privilege to conduct the funeral of Dr. Gunter assisted by Dr. Will Rogers. It was truly a joy to see that so many old friends from the churches that he had served in the past were present and especially a large delegation from Epworth and representatives from Wofford. This shows that even though a man has been out of the active ministry for many years, he is not forgotten. That speaks as highly of Dr. Gunter's ministry as anything I know. Truly he was a great man, a noble person, a splendid preacher, a devoted pastor, and a most able administrator.

WILLIAM FREDERICK HARRIS
October 18, 1897 — April 27, 1978

Fred Harris (William Frederick) was one of the great men of the South Carolina Conference. When he died April 27, he had been retired from active service for nearly 15 years. During these years, he and his beloved Lorraine lived in their home in Cheraw, a place of beauty that spoke of her love of art and his love of learning and devotion to truth.

Retirement for Fred was a time for continued service and growth. Named "Citizen of the Year" in 1973, an award given jointly by the Civic Clubs of Cheraw, he was thus recognized as an outstanding community leader who had led in the struggle to create low-cost housing for the citizens of his community.

The Rotary Club of Cheraw has established in his memory the "Fred Harris Rotary Scholarship Fund", to be awarded to one of the top five students scholastically in the senior class of Cheraw High School.

Born October 18, 1897, at about the age of 70 he asked me to write his memoir when he died. "A memoir should tell something of what a man was and did—not just some flowery words," he said.

What he did was set an example of honesty and integrity in Christian ministry that was devoid of self-seeking and that showed itself in the clarity with which he faced issues, and in the simplicity with which he probed the depths of problems which faced the Church and society. When truth was at stake, there was no doubt where Fred stood. A master of the Discipline, he was a quiet counselor of bishops and district superintendents on the rules of the Conference and Church.

He had few illusions about the transient nature of earthly accomplishments. He liked a quotation from Oliver Wendell Holmes which he recited to me at Annual Conference several years ago.

"In my book where I keep the cases assigned to me to write, I find a thousand cases, a thousand cases to represent a half a life-time. Most of these were trivial and transitory.

"But, Gentlemen, this is life. We cannot live our dreams. We are lucky enough if we can give a sample of our best, and feel in our hearts that this has been nobly done."

My last conversation with this one who was both a father and a brother in Christ to so many of us in the Conference was December 8, 1977, at Epworth Children's Home, on the occasion of the retirement dinner for Dr. Allan R. Broome.

Still active and busy, I sensed that time was pressing upon him. Again he gave me a quotation to mull over:

Not so in haste my soul,
Have faith in God and wait.
Although he tarries long
He never cometh late.

His love and loyalty to his Church were demonstrated on many occasions, but never more clearly and determinedly than in his effort to support and use the South Carolina Methodist Advocate to inform, instruct, inspire, and provoke response from the Methodists of South Carolina. As trustee chairman and then as volunteer circulation director, he traveled hundreds of miles, and spent uncounted hours in the effort to enlarge the circulation. Its highest point was reached under his leadership.

Fred was a veteran of World War I, and a chaplain in World War II, reaching the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

He was born in Anderson, South Carolina, and was graduated from Wofford College and Candler School of Theology, Emory University. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lorraine Beauchamp Harris; two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Walker of Charlotte and Mrs. R. B. Porter of St. Petersburg, Florida; a son, Senator Charles Anthony "Tony" Harris of Cheraw; four sisters, Mrs. John T. Bolt, Mrs. Helen Harris Humphries, Mrs. C. W. Belcher, all of Anderson, and Mrs. John McCreight of Morganton, North Carolina; and eleven grandchildren.

His funeral was held at First United Methodist Church in Cheraw on April 29, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. It was conducted by his pastor, the Rev. Thurman Vickery.

JAMES RUFUS HOLT
May 31, 1902 — April 15, 1978

James Rufus Holt was a merchant in Union, South Carolina, and a lay member of Grace Methodist Church when my pastorate began there in 1957. As a loyal and faithful church member, whom I came to respect and admire, he disclosed his feeling that he had long ago been called to the ministry. He also revealed his certainty that his life would not be complete without responding to that call. Thus it was my happy privilege to assist in guiding him through the first steps that took him to the pastorate, which he began in 1960 at Asbury Church, Cherokee County, at the age of 58, and continued in pastorates at Ridgeville, Coward, and Lebanon until his retirement in 1972.

As a layman, and as a minister, Brother Rufus was upheld and supported greatly by his devoted wife, Eunice Parnell Holt. Their ministry together was wondrous to behold, as they conveyed love to the people they served, causing "the desert to blossom as the rose" in more situations than one. In his final illness at Trident Hospital she was his constant nurse and companion, witnessing with their children, the final victories of faith in one of God's humble and dedicated servants.

He died on April 15. Funeral services were conducted in Lebanon United Methodist Church on April 17 by his pastor, the Rev. Mac Rae Galloway, his nephew, the Rev. H. A. Spradley, and his district superintendent, the Rev. Peden Gene Curry. Burial was in Salem United Methodist Church Cemetery, Timmons ville.

Brother Holt was born in Spartanburg on May 31, 1902, the son of the late Thomas Earle and Mae Chapman Holt. He attended Wofford College and the University of South Carolina. His wife, Eunice Parnell Holt, survives, as do their children: Mrs. Marion H. White of Columbia, Mrs. James Carnes of Lancaster, Mrs. Abigail Beach of Ridgeville, and Mrs. Esther Mims of Timmons ville, and MSgt. Thomas G. Holt of Offit Air Force Base, Nebraska. He is also survived by three brothers, Wofford and Henry Harding Holt of Spartanburg, and Marvin Holt of Atlanta; a sister, Mrs. Estelle Hall of Spartanburg; and 18 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

JAMES BELTON HURT
June 7, 1921 — May 31, 1977

J. B. Hurt was a rare man who readily identified with struggling souls. It was easy, he struggled so much himself. The agonies of many were internalized in his own fragile spirit and ultimately caused his death. A few words do him no justice and many words would only cause him to smile wryly as if to say, "So, what else is new?" The legacy, then, is in the memory. Permit me a few.

In 1965, J. B. wanted me to help him prepare a resolution that could go "all the way to General Conference" giving lay pastors the right of floor and vote on matters not pertaining to ministerial items at annual conference. "It is not right," he said, "for the church to ask us to give our life without a voice in those things that matter in Kingdom business." We prepared the resolution and I was introduced to a special friend.

In 1966, J. B. was interested in some young men and women who had special educational needs. A student himself at that time and serving as a pastor, he had plenty to do without taking on new duty. Yet, he did it and forced me to join him in the endeavor. My appreciation deepened.

In 1971, one of the members of the church he served (and knowing of my special regard for her pastor) came to say, "J. B. Hurt does good things that never show, how can we help him know how great his ministry is?" My friendship and appreciation deepened to respect.

He came to minister at age 43. He brought with him an accumulation of experience and insight that few of us could recognize and fewer still ever used. Yet, he gave and he tried until he could do so no more. A decade of activity in our conference placed him in service at Appalache-Jackson Grove, Grace-Patterson Chapel, and St. James (Columbia). For a time he also served at the Babcock Center and with the Mid-Carolina Mental Health Association.

While serving, he earned his A.B. degree from Wofford College and his M. Div. from Emory University. All the while giving unstinting service as pastor, preacher, and counselor.

J. B. and Peggy were married in 1941. Their children are Harriet, Linda, J. B., III, and Barbara. All survive.

J. B. died in Columbia on May 31, 1977. His memorial services were conducted at Washington Street Church on June 3 by his brothers Chad Davis, Jim Hunter, and Jim Barrett. A congregation was there to proclaim, albeit silently, the greatness of a ministry given by a struggling soul.

ADAM MALACHI SMITH
October 17, 1887 — June 5, 1977

For those of us who were present at Pond Branch United Methodist Church on June 6, 1977, and who knew something of the life story surrounding the Reverend A. M. Smith, there was a sense of family history blending with familiar surroundings. His earthly frame was returned to the good earth, but his steady and lasting influence was all about us.

One of twelve children born to George W. and Elizabeth King Smith, Adam Malachi took a place of unique honor among a distinguished family corps. Licensed to preach in 1918 after receiving his education at Wofford College, A. M. Smith began a ministry that continued for fifty nine years. His pastorates were characterized by a natural gentleness and sensitivity that produced results for the Kingdom wherever he was sent. Unpretentious in manner, Chi Smith was always at his best when conversing with, caring for, and serving the people of his parish. Those, like this writer, who were privileged to follow this man years after, attest to his good work and effective ministry.

In his life, he was aided by a good wife of forty-nine years, Lola Catherine Crout Smith, who finished her earthly course in 1959. To that lasting union came four children. Alice (Mrs. A. F. Snyder, Jr.), Harold Wilmot, Catherine (deceased) and A. M., Jr. In his later years the children and grandchildren provided rays of light for this good man.

Born in 1887, A. M. Smith's life was to span ninety years of change, war, national depression, and unbelievable turbulence in the church and nation. Yet, he maintained a disposition given to humor and characterized by joy. We remember well his terse comments, spoken with a normal whimsy, when the moment came (and for him the moments came often). Once, after major surgery, this writer asked him to join in prayer. When the prayer was said he spoke up, "Now tell me a good story, my faith is stronger than my sense of humor."

Servant of God, a worthy inheritor of family graces, a strong friend, a good pastor . . . well done!

JOHNNIE ELIJAH SPEARS
June 9, 1921 — June 17, 1977

It is a pleasant sight to see a father, a mother, and the children coming to the house of the Lord as a group. Whenever the doors of Cumberland Church, Florence, were open, Mr. James Holloway Spears, Sr., Mrs. Louise Jenkins Spears, with their children Johnnie Elijah, Pauline and James Holloway, Jr. were usually present.

I am told no one was surprised when Johnnie expressed his desire to enter the ordained ministry. He prepared himself by completing his college work at Claflin and receiving his B.D. Degree from Gammon Theological Seminary of Atlanta, Georgia. He served his country in World War II overseas, and was an instructor in the Special Training Unit at Fort Benning, Georgia.

The life of Johnnie Elijah Spears was made richer and fuller when he was united in Holy Matrimony to Miss Genore Gray of Taylors, South Carolina. Rev. and Mrs. Spears were made to rejoice with the birth of a daughter, Juana Clarise.

In Mr. Spears' life there was seen a beautiful reflection of a sincere man, a devoted husband and father, and a minister of the Gospel in whom no guile was found.

The Reverend Mr. Spears, an ordained Minister of the South Carolina Conference, served the following appointments: Palen Church, Savannah, Georgia, and the following charges in South Carolina: Lanes Charge, Summerville; Thompson Centennial, Anderson; Centenary, Charleston; Centenary, Hartsville; District Superintendent of the Piedmont District; and as Annual Conference Statistician for eight years.

While serving as pastor of Emmanuel Church, Sumter, the Reverend Mr. Spears finished his ministry on earth June 17, 1977.

Many ministers of the Conference, relatives and friends from across the state and beyond gathered to pay tribute to him and console the family. Bishop Edward L. Tullis gave the eulogy.

The warm friendship, quiet attitude, constant service and love of this man will be an inspiration to all who knew him.

JAMES GIDEON STROUD
March 4, 1913 — December 25, 1977

On December 25, 1977, while so many celebrated the birth of our Lord, James Gideon Stroud celebrated his entrance into the Heavenly City of which he had so often preached. His District Superintendent, The Rev. C. J. Lupo, was heard to remark on how fitting it was that this servant of God should have died on a Christmas Sunday; a day that marked both the Birth and the Resurrection of our Christ.

Our Church has not known a more dedicated servant than James Stroud. He felt truly called to the Christian ministry and counted it his highest joy to "be about his Father's business." James preached with a fervor and zeal that many of us should seek to match; he was a faithful, loving, and sympathetic pastor; a kind and sincere friend. In every responsibility in life he did things right as he saw them.

The road to ordination was not easy for James but he never counted the cost too high. His pursuit of an education was co-mingled with the necessity of full-time secular employment and loving attention to his church work. Two schools he loved to his dying day, Spartanburg Junior College and Wofford College, helped prepare him academically for a ministry that was to follow. But formal education was not the end of James' pursuit of knowledge. He practiced continuing education with relish as time and opportunity provided.

The story of his life would not be as rich had it not been for his marriage to Essie Elliott. She has been an ideal wife. Much of James' success has been due to her understanding helpfulness and willingness to join him in sacrificial living as they prepared for, and practiced together, their ministry. James and Essie loved with a deep, abiding love their children, Heyward and Glenda. To have been in the presence of the four of them was to see that love reciprocated.

James Gideon Stroud was born March 4, 1913 in Union, South Carolina; a son of William W. and Orrie Clara Richards Stroud. He was licensed to preach October 12, 1932 on recommendation of our Arcadia United Methodist Church of the Spartanburg District. He served as pastor the following churches: Landrum, Tucapau, St. John (Graniteville), Startex, Judson, Mathews, Limestone Street (Gaffney), Aldersgate, Williamston, and Lowell Street. He served with distinction on several quadrennial boards and boards of trust of our Annual Conference.

Funeral services were held at Lowell Street United Methodist Church in Greenwood on December 27, 1977. Leading the service of worship were Bishop Edward L. Tullis, The Rev. C. J. Lupo, and Dr. R. Bryce Herbert. The extremely large group of pastors present indicated the high esteem in which James Stroud was held by his colleagues. Fittingly, the service was a time of rich worship and celebration. One could easily feel that James, who himself had arranged the service, worshipped along with us.

"I'll praise my Maker while I've breath;
And when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler powers."

MRS. BERNARD S. DRENNAN
December 15, 1905 — October 22, 1977

It has been said, "A person lives as long as he or she is remembered, one only dies when forgotten." Nell Drennan will never die . . . because (1) she will be remembered with a constant love by her family which included her husband, the Reverend Bernard S. Drennan, two sons, John and Richard, and a daughter, Mrs. William M. (Betsy) Gordon—because (2) of a multitude who were privileged to call her a Christian friend.

Mrs. Drennan was born in Spartanburg, S.C., into the family of John C. and Maggie Barfield Hewitt. She graduated from Spartanburg High School and Robinson Business College (Spartanburg) at which she taught following her graduation. She likewise taught on occasion in the public schools of South Carolina. For several years, Mrs. Drennan was State Cashier for the Provident Mutual Insurance Company.

On May 19, 1929, Nell married the Reverend Bernard S. Drennan. For 48½ years they loved each other, their families, and the people whom they served through The Methodist Church in South Carolina. In truth, she was "the ideal minister's wife." Her faith perfectly complimented that of her husband, thus together theirs was a totally Christ-like mission for the Master wherever the church beckoned them. Nell's involvement within the church touched all persons—especially the children for whom she was oft-times a pianist and choir leader.

Her memorial service was conducted in Trinity United Methodist Church, Spartanburg, S. C., on October 24, 1977 by her District Superintendent, the Reverend Theodore Walter, and her minister, the Reverend C. D. Williams with interment at Greenlawn Gardens.

Nell Drennan was a person of love—patience—joy—gentleness—goodness—peace—and faith in Christ. Because she was and we remember—Nell Drennan is alive forevermore.

MRS. W. WALLACE FRIDY
July 25, 1918 — May 18, 1978

There is a special quality in the life expressions of those to whom God gives unique talent. Especially is this true when those marvelous gifts are used to bring enlightenment and joy to persons who intersect their days and years. It is for this that hosts have reason to rejoice in the memory of Ellen Fridy.

As a teacher of music in Virginia and South Carolina, she influenced students. As a pastor's wife, she lent her considerable ability to local churches, districts, annual conferences, and communities. As a friend, she shared her love and her wit in countless ways. That love and wit were always pointed, honest, and disarming.

Yet, this writer is forced to conclude that her lasting gift to us was in the way she faced her last days with utmost courage and dignity. All her training in harmony, the discipline of rigorous study, and hours of patient practice combined to blend a faith that speaks of life in the face of death. Her legacy is a valiant testimony to her Master's voice, "Whosoever lives and believes in me shall never die."

Ellen Fridy was born in Lake City, Tennessee. Her college training was gained at Carson Newman College, Wesleyan College, Ferrum College, and the University of Tennessee. Graduate study at the University of Virginia and Virginia Commonwealth University prepared her for public and church service in Virginia and South Carolina.

Ellen Irwin married the Reverend Raymond C. Cardwell of Virginia in 1939. Mr. Cardwell died in 1974 and Ellen became the wife of the Reverend Dr. Wallace Fridy in 1975, moving to Columbia, South Carolina. She quickly took her place in a new state and annual conference, developing a special place in the affection of those who came to know her graces.

Her activities in her local church, Washington Street, were added to civic concerns. Such healthy mix of activity endeared her quickly to a congregation and city that already loved her husband.

When death came to translate one form of life to another on May 18, 1978, it did not come as sad defeat. Rather, faith teaches us to believe she was liberated to tune her special life of praise in a wider realm.

Her husband, Wallace; her daughter, Ann; her son, Daniel; her stepdaughters, Martha, Betty, and Prentice; her stepson, Wallace; a granddaughter and a brother all share memories in a special way. Her students and friends will not soon forget how their lives were enriched by her. Such was the mood of worship on May 20 when Bishop Edward L. Tullis and Dr. R. Wright Spears conducted the memorial service at Washington Street United Methodist Church.

She accepted what was given,
She nurtured in well,
She brought forth good increase,
Well done, favored servant,
The reward is sure.

MRS. WALTER J. SMOAK
May 28, 1917 — September 13, 1977

Eva Mae Meacham Smoak was born May 28, 1917 in Portsmouth, Virginia, daughter of Samuel Lester and Georgia Turner Meacham. She died on September 13, 1977 and is survived by a daughter, Georgiana of Atlanta and a son, Walter J., Jr. of Columbia.

I was privileged to know Eva Smoak only for the last two years of her life. The way she consciously lived out those days gave one a real hold on what living is about, whether at the beginning, middle, or end of our pilgrimage.

There was little time for pretense and game-playing about the real issues and concerns; a deep desire to be who she had been and was, to understand what was happening and why, and an interest with the needs of those whom society often overlooks. She had an amazing courage and will to live, a refusal to push her hurts off on others, yet a willingness to accept authentic load-sharing, a reaching out to the One, with hope and trust that she knew was always there, but whom she would not abuse with a piety of familiarity or presumption.

Because of her confining illness, her contacts during those last months were limited. Yet she shared with those who were nearby something deep and abiding about the love of God.

MRS. VOIGT O. TAYLOR
September 25, 1911 — October 6, 1977

Aline Sloan Holmes Taylor was born September 25, 1911 in Marion, South Carolina. She was the daughter of Nora Quinn and Cyrus T. Sloan. She attended schools in Marion and was a graduate of Brenau College. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and a former member of the Azalea Garden Club.

Survivors include her son Dr. Hal B. Holmes, step children, Mrs. Deesha Davis, Mr. Voigt Taylor, Jr., and Mrs. Chesta Diveley.

Aline made the move from being a gracious wife of a respected and loved physician in Conway to a dignified widowhood and then into the role of a supportive and gracious minister's wife. Leaving her beloved First Baptist Church, she entered into the work of her husband, Dr. Voigt O. Taylor at First United Methodist Church with her customary dedication and zeal. She endeared herself to the ladies of the Christian Service Class and to the congregation at large. She carried herself with grace and dignity and yet she had a feeling for people from all walks of life. She had many, many friends in the total community in Conway.

Funeral services were held from the First United Methodist Church, Conway, S.C. on October 7, 1977 with Bishop Edward L. Tullis, Marion District Superintendent, William R. Kinnett, Dr. S. George Lowell, former pastor, and Dr. Claude R. Harper, pastor, officiating. Interment was at Lakeside Cemetery, Conway, S.C.

MRS. CHARLES CRAWFORD THOMPSON
April 25, 1894 — April 1, 1978

"Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil . . . Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her works praise her in the gates. (Proverbs 31:10-11 also 31)

These were among some of the ways that "Aunt Alphie" or "Cousin Leila" was described by many persons on the day of her funeral at First United Methodist Church, Conway, South Carolina. She was an educator, church and community leader, first lady of the parsonage, a substitute mother in many ways to a countless host, and above all and in every way Christian in mind, body, soul, and spirit.

She was born, April 25, 1894, in the Deauford Community of Horry County (now Floyds). Her parents were Preston Briston Norton and Navey Magnolia Elliott Norton. She was a graduate of Winthrop College. She was first married to Edwin Foster Cox, July 29, 1925, and served admirably in almost every office in Camp Swamp United Methodist Church until her husband died on March 15, 1963. On January 10, 1965, she was united in holy matrimony to the Reverend Charles Crawford Thompson, the pastor of her church, and continued to make a large contribution to the Christian ministry in whatever community her husband served until she died, April 1, 1978.

She is survived by her husband, the pastor of Zoan United Methodist Church, one step-son, Armon Lamar Thompson, and two step-grandchildren.

Although Mrs. Leila had no children of her own, many children were mothered by her Christian nurture in the public schools as well as the church; they do evermore rise up and all her blessed.

For nearly eight-four years she lived the abundant life and died full of faith, hope, and love; she closed her earthly life and went to be with Jesus with all confidence in expectation of the resurrection of the dead and life eternal through Jesus Christ her risen Saviour.

MRS. ESTELLE PERRY BECKHAM
September 11, 1885 — April 6, 1977

Estelle Perry Beckham, widow of the late Reverend William A. Beckham, was born September 11, 1885, on a plantation in Lancaster County near Liberty Hill. She was married to Mr. Beckham on December 21, 1903, at Pleasant Hill (Lancaster County). She passed away at the Honorage Nursing Home, Florence, April 6, 1977.

She is survived by two children: William A. Beckham, Jr. of Macon, Georgia, and Mrs. W. J. (Kathleen) Adams of Dillon, with whom she resided after the death of the Reverend Mr. Beckham.

During the active years of her husband's ministry she made her contribution by singing in the choirs of the churches he served. One of her sayings was "Daddy put the fear of the Lord in his people this morning."

She loved the outdoors and spent much time among the flowers in her garden. She liked the quotation:

"Nearer to God in a garden
Than anywhere else on earth."

She was a life long member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and had received a 50 year membership pin.

Mrs. Beckham was the daughter of Colonel J. L. and Mrs. Mary Patterson Perry of Lancaster County.

When she was eighteen, she put her hand in the hand of her husband and walked in the ways of God.

MRS. CLAUDIUS PRITCHARD CHEWNING

Mrs. Alliene Leach Chewning, widow of the Rev. Claudius Pritchard Chewning, died in the Toumey Hospital, Sumter, South Carolina in the morning of March 23, 1978. She was the mother of the Rev. Boyd Chewning, member of the South Carolina United Methodist Conference, Mrs. Mary Lowder, of Oswego, South Carolina, and step-mother of Mrs. Iris Beaver, of Princeton, Illinois.

She was a companion in ministry with her husband for thirty-two years. Her life was a devotion to truth and beauty. This was reflected from her daily life and concerns which she had constantly for others. She served her church well and often challenged its membership to higher and more noble service through her inspiration and leadership. Chief among her concerns were the needs of people—wherever they were found. She responded and led others to respond to causes of the hungry and cold. UMCOR had one devoted supporter in Mrs. Alliene.

She lived with us in our community of Oswego and Bethel United Methodist Church for eleven years after her husband's death. The house is empty now of the two persons whom the community loved . . . but can sense the presence of them still in the memories and the work which they left behind . . . "their works do follow them."

Services were conducted, March 25, 1978, by the Rev. Charles Kirkley and the Rev. George W. Watson, in Bethel United Methodist Church. The interment was in The Old Salem Cemetery in Lee County beside her husband.

"O joy that seeketh me through pain
I cannot close my heart to thee;
I traced the rainbow through the rain,
And feel the promise is not in vain
That morn shall tearless be."

Charles Kirkley

MRS. CHARLES C. CLARK
August 28, 1918 — January 23, 1978

Mrs. Queen H. Clark, born August 28, 1918 to Mr. Boyce Hoke and Mrs. Savannah Hoke, was a faithful and dedicated member of the United Methodist Church for many years. Her husband, Rev. C. C. Clark, pastored at various United Methodist Churches throughout the state of South Carolina for over fifty years. He passed in September, 1971. Reverend and Mrs. Clark were the parents of three children, Delores, Charles, and Wayne.

Until Mrs. Clark's death, her services rendered to the United Methodist Church were within many capacities. She religiously attended local and state conferences until her health declined in 1977. During the time of her illness, she continued to support her church in a spiritual nature and through her prayers.

Her dedication and contributions will be forever remembered in the minds and hearts of those who knew her, even though she is physically no longer on this earth.

MRS. JAMES L. MILLER
April 8, 1873 — March 15, 1978

Mrs. Ida O. Miller, widow of the Reverend James L. Miller, was born in Lamar, S.C. on April 8, 1873. She was the daughter of the late John Henry Taylor and Martha W. Taylor. She was first married to the late Dr. J. B. Mims in 1892 and he died in 1910. Her second marriage was to the Reverend James L. Miller of the S. C. Methodist Conference, on April 20, 1918. They served together for twenty-four years throughout the Conference. Reverend Miller retired from the itinerant ministry in 1942 and died in 1950.

Mrs. Miller came to Columbia to live shortly after the death of her husband and at the time of her death, she was living with her grand-daughter, Mrs. Authean Shealy at 805 Howard Street.

She joined Brookland Church in West Columbia in 1959. I was privileged to be her pastor for six years from 1968-74. It was my joy to be in her home on many occasions and especially on her 100th birthday. She was very alert for her age and loved to recall the experiences she and her husband had in the various pastorates they had served. She never lost interest in the Church and loved her Lord devotedly. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Emma Jackson of Columbia and Mrs. Johnnie Formby of Gaston; a step-son, Harper Miller of Gaston; a sister, Mrs. Daisy Wright of Charleston; eight grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren, and 11 great great-grandchildren.

Final services were held at Thompson Funeral Home on March 19, 1978, conducted by the Reverend James O. Gilliam and the Reverend W. A. Jackson. Interment was in Greenlawn Memorial Park in Columbia.

When a minister is appointed as District Superintendent, his membership on any quadrennial board, council, commission, or committee shall automatically cease; provided, that this shall not apply to ex-officio membership on any board, council, commission or committee as required by the Discipline or the Standing Rule.
134. All persons shall retire from and not be eligible for further membership on conference boards, councils, commissions, and committees at the Annual Conference following their 70th birthday. Ministers who retire shall not be nominated for membership on any conference board, council, commission or committee but shall be allowed to complete their terms of service on boards, councils, commissions and committees in which they have been elected prior to retirement, provided the Discipline is not violated in their continued service.
135. All lay persons employed by the agencies of the Conference shall conform to the compulsory retirement age set for the ministers of the church. Such retired lay persons may be employed on a part-time basis without executive administrative responsibility.
136. Members of quadrennial boards, councils, commissions, and committees, whose tenure of membership is scheduled to be terminated during the 1977-80 quadrennium, shall be permitted to serve the remainder of the said quadrennium.
137. Pastors' reports to Annual Conference shall cover the calendar year (January 1-December 31) and shall be sent to the Conference Statistician so as to reach that office not later than January 15 of the year immediately following.
138. All amounts paid to or on behalf of the minister (including District Superintendents and ministers serving special appointments) to provide funds for payment of all or part of his Social Security obligation shall be reported as salary.
139. All monies to be credited to the accounts of local churches for the fiscal year shall be in the hands of the Conference treasurer not later than fifteen (15) days after the end of the fiscal year.
140. There shall be twelve (12) districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference.
141. "Moving day" for the ministers shall be the second Wednesday following the close of Annual Conference.
 - a. Where special circumstances dictate any alteration of this moving date, the affected persons and the District Superintendent involved shall be permitted to make the necessary adjustments.
 - b. Ministers shall be paid during the month of June proportionately by the charge from which they are moved and the charge to which they are moved on the basis of the percentages of Sundays actually served in each charge.
 - c. The moving expenses of the pastor shall be paid by the charge to which he is moved, not to include more than $50 packing expenses.
142. All support ministries or agencies which receive funds from the South Carolina United Methodist Conference, but which are not directly responsible to the Conference, shall submit an annual program and financial report to the sponsoring Conference agency.

IV. STANDING RESOLUTIONS

200. The Plan of Union

A. Introduction

1. The personal choice of freeing our own and other men's hearts comes to us in many ways during all of life. Seldom does a group of men and women have this opportunity to liberate themselves and countless of their fellows from the collective practice of separatism over three centuries by activating their professed belief of oneness in Christ. There have been incidents of reconciliation between individuals—and there is glory in that. Even now some of us can turn aside briefly from ourselves and see another in his likeness to us—or in fleeting moments acknowledge in him some Christ-like quality. More often than not we emphasize our differences and only faintly resist the shackles of our history. All too infrequently do we protest the compromises perpetrated within the Church against Jesus' example of brotherhood. Many vital battles of life have been fought largely outside the Church. We are charged at this juncture in time to lay claim to the victory of a meaningful relationship to God, by saying first of all to ourselves and to all who will follow that we will shore up or relationships with each other. This is great glory—and it is freedom—which comes when a group of people begins to listen, to communicate, to trust, to care, to seek solutions, to achieve, and finally to gain release from fear and prejudice that permits us to love one another.

Organization is necessary for orderliness—and perhaps to satisfy our need for security in rules. However, in implementing this our plan for the creation of a new United Methodist Conference in South Carolina, let us not obscure the loftiest rule of all—and the ultimate security that it holds: "That you love one another."

BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

- a. There shall be in South Carolina one annual Conference, to be known as the South Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, to be formed through the union of the two conferences now existing.
- b. Union shall be accomplished and the new conference organized in accordance with the provisions of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, insofar as the same applies, except in such cases made and provided for in this plan, following the steps hereafter provided.

B. Conference Structure

1. Following the creation of the New South Carolina Annual Conference, elected members of the conference boards, commissions, and committees, shall be on a ratio of the approximate percentage of members of the former conferences for the first two quadrennial. Realizing that lay and ministerial delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences are elected by secret ballot, we call upon the delegates in their election as a matter of conscience, to follow a ratio of the approximate percentage of members of the former conferences. However, nothing herein shall preclude laymen joining a church of the conference after the creation of the new conference or clerical members joining the conference after the creation of the new conference from becoming members of any board, commission or committee so long as the ratio of majority and minority groups is maintained. During this period in the election of district lay leaders and two associates for each district (who become members of the Conference Board of the Laity), at least one of the three shall be elected from each of the former conferences, where possible. This procedure would begin at the time the districts are realigned.
2. The General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates elected in 1971 shall be the delegates.
3. Until the new annual conference's standing rules are adopted, the Committee on Nominations shall consist of the two Committees on Nominations of the uniting conferences.
4. Being aware of the inherent privilege of each board, commission, and committee to elect its own chairman, and in a sincere effort to be faithful to the spirit of determination to bring into being ONE Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church in South Carolina; it is, therefore, the will of the conference that each board, commission, and committee shall elect its chairman on the basis of merit without regard to former conference relationships.

7. The South Carolina Women's Society of Christian Service, being a part of the connec-tional system of the Columbia Area of The United Methodist Church, shall be guided by the plans of the creation of the new conference established by the annual conference, the district, and the local churches. (The Book of Discipline, Pars. 1341-1344)
- a. The Executive Committee of the Women's Societies of Christian Service of the two former conferences shall set up:

1. A Committee on Nominations to prepare a slate of officers for the composition of the new society, with proportionate representation.
 2. A Committee on By-Laws and Standing Rules to draw up by-laws and standing rules for the new society; and
 3. A Committee on Finance to establish procedures for combining conference and district treasuries, clearing financial practices and policies of the former societies and to provide a clear interpretation of the directives regarding the financial policies as they are received from the Women's Division of the United Methodist Church.
6. In selection of new trustees for the boards, agencies, and institutions of the new conference, the principle of inclusiveness shall be observed.
 7. In the New Annual Conference, the Program Council and other boards, and agencies of the conference having employed staff, shall employ staff members and clerical personnel on an inclusive basis, with the proportions pertaining at the time of the formation of the new conference being observed as a guideline in future employment.
 8. We recommend that the new South Carolina Conference be divided into twelve districts effective at Annual Conference 1974.
 - a. We recommend that all District Superintendents serve the remainder of their present terms of six years on the District as is now constituted and that the Districts be reduced to twelve by attrition.
 - b. District boundaries shall be determined according to Par. 390.3 of The Book of Discipline. We recommend that the continuing committee provide guidance.
 9. The appointment of District Superintendents is the responsibility of the presiding Bishop; however, after 1975 we strongly recommend to the presiding Bishop that the structure of the cabinet be made up of nine (9) members of the former 1785 conference and that three (3) District Superintendents be from the former 1866 conference, with this structure then being maintained for at least the remainder of the eight (8) years period following union.
 10. The Program Council shall consist of the presiding Bishop; the district superintendents; two representatives of conference agencies determined by the annual conference, one of whom shall be a member of each of the former conferences; two representatives of the Women's Society of Christian Service, one of whom shall be a member of each of the former conferences; two representatives of the Board of the Laity, one, the Conference Lay Leader and the other, a member of the other conference; one layman from each district; chairman of age-level and family departments; and such additional members as to make the membership of the Council to be in accordance with the proportions pertaining at the time of the creation of the conference.

C. Standing Rules

1. In the organization of the new conference a Committee on Standing Rules shall present rules of procedure for adoption by the new conference.
2. Until new standing rules are adopted, the new conference shall be guided by The Book of Discipline and Robert's Rules of Order.
3. For two quadrennia following the creation of the new annual conference the standing rules and resolutions of the new conference shall not include any rules or resolutions that violate the provisions of this Plan of Implementation unless approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Annual Conference.

D. Financial Adjustments

1. Apportionments. Apportionments shall be made by the conference Commission on World Service and Finance directly to the churches (or charges) after consultation with the district superintendents. These apportionments should be based on a tri-part formula considering church membership, previous world service giving, and non-capital expenditures by the church or charge.
2. Minimum Salary. The minimum salary schedule in the new conference shall be uniform for all members and shall be equal to that previously in effect in the Annual Conference, 1785.

3. Pensions. The Annuity rate shall be the same for the members of both former conferences and shall be equal to that previously in effect in the Annual Conference, 1785.
4. Funding. The 1970 General conference reordered its priorities and instructed every board and agency of the church to trim budgets and programs until two million dollars from present giving could be available to fund special programs for minorities. With this precedent to guide us, and recognizing that additional costs will be involved, it is recommended that the World Service and Finance Commission of the newly created conference immediately reorder financial priorities and request all boards, commissions, and committees of the conference to trim budgets so that the financial needs of the new conference can be more nearly met as it comes into being. It is further recommended that the World Service and Finance Commissions of the two conferences involved, prior to the creation of the new conference, remind the 1972 General Conference of the amount of financial support promised by the 1968 General Conference in such situations (that is, 100% for the first quadrennium, 80% for the second quadrennium, and so forth). If the General conference of 1972 is unable to provide the funds authorized by the 1968 General Conference for this purpose from present or anticipated revenues, that the General Conference of 1972 then be petitioned to make some special provision for the funding of those additional costs to the new conference which are beyond the present financial capacity of the conference staff. We pledge our every effort to be financially responsible as we seek to increase giving in the new conference. However, without additional funds being made available from some source—our own resources and those of the General Church—it will not be possible to bring into being a “united” conference in the United Methodist Church in South Carolina that is faithful and just to everyone who will be involved in the life and work of the new South Carolina Conference.
5. Conference Home. The services of all conference homes for children, the aged, and conference claimants shall be available to all persons on an equal basis. Opportunities for employment in homes having employed personnel shall be on an inclusive basis.
6. Institutional Support. The institutions supported by the two former conferences shall be undergirded by support from the new conferences on a formula to be determined by the new annual conference, which formula shall be applied in like manner to similar institutions.
7. Insurance. The program of life insurance and health insurance for the new conference shall be based upon the insurance plan previously in effect in the Annual Conference, 1785.

E. Continuing Committee

1. A follow-up Committee on Implementation shall be elected quadrennially for two quadrennia, with representation from the two former annual conferences, to consider concerns and developments relating to the creation of the new conference which have not been anticipated or provided for in the Plan of Implementation. The Committee on Standing Rules shall determine the number to be elected and the extent of ex-officio representation.

F. The Resolution of Implementation

1. Whereas, the 1972 General Conference of the United Methodist Church will receive a report from the Structure Study Commission, which is passed, will have far-reaching effects and change in the Annual Conference Structure; and Whereas, a seven month period, or until January 1, 1973, following our uniting conference in June, 1972, will provide time and knowledge in perfecting the organizational structure for the South Carolina Annual Conference, and whereas, to conserve the values of program planning and operation of each conference, continuing leadership of boards and agencies of these conferences for a seven month period would provide such continuity; and Whereas, a nominating committee could have adequate time in recommending leadership to be elected by the South Carolina Annual Conference, we therefore recommend that the Standing Rules of both conferences be suspended in order:

- a. That for seven months, or until January 1, 1973, following the uniting conference in June, 1972, all boards and agencies will be composed of all members of these same boards and agencies from the two former conferences. The boards and agencies shall be, as recorded in the current Minutes, convened at the uniting conference in June, 1972, and organized for the seven month period or until January 1, 1973. (Officers of such boards and agencies now in office may continue to serve jointly during this seven-month period); and
 - b. That a nominating committee shall be elected and organized immediately after the uniting conference, in accord with the standing rules adopted at the uniting conference, to bring in nominations to a special session of the new conference held within the closing months of 1972, to serve for the rest of the quadrennium, beginning January 1, 1973; and
 - c. That all boards and agencies following this session of both conferences, complete their program planning, except where joint action is required, and that joint meetings of boards and agencies be held prior to the uniting conference to coordinate plans for the new annual conference, and further, where feasible, it is recommended that joint efforts be made in all planning; and
 - d. That the presiding Bishop is respectfully requested to appoint a continuing Committee on Merger to take office following this session of these conferences.
201. Election of Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences
 1. System of nomination: The following system of nomination and election shall be followed in the election of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:

District Nominations

1. Each local church may submit nominations to the District Superintendent. These nominees shall be selected by the Administrative Board, certified by the Board Chairperson and pastor.
2. A meeting of the lay members of the Annual Conference from the District shall be held, presided over by the District Superintendent, no later than January 30 of the year in which elections occur. The lay members shall vote by ballot until fifteen persons receive a majority of the votes cast. These fifteen persons shall be certified to the Conference Secretary as District nominees by the District Superintendent no later than February 10. A biographical sketch on prescribed form (prepared by the Board of Laity) is to be presented on each local Church nominee to the District meeting.

Conference Procedure

1. 150 names selected by the Districts shall be listed and presented to the Conference United Methodist Women, the Conference Board of the Laity, the Conference Council on Youth Ministry and the Continuing Committee on Merger. Each of these will select up to fifteen additional names.
2. These names with the biographical information shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary by March 1.
3. Biographical information shall be printed in the Pre-Conference Journal. The biographical information shall be randomly rotated in the Journal.
4. Provision shall be made for write-in ballots.
5. The Conference Secretary in preparing for balloting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates is authorized to utilize computerization for both lay and clerical.

Respectfully Submitted,
Douglas Bowling, Chairperson

CORRECTIONS

It is not possible to publish a volume the size of our Conference JOURNAL completely error-free. We solicit your cooperation in reporting errors which you may find. Errors which should be reported are such items as incorrect spellings, incorrect addresses, and factual errors in reports.

Readers should remember that the JOURNAL records proceedings of the Annual Conference Session and the year preceding it; any events that took place after the Annual Conference Session (such as "Changes in Appointments") will not be reflected in this JOURNAL.

Corrections reported to the Conference Secretary will be shared with the Committee on the Conference JOURNAL and the Committee on the Daily JOURNAL. A report of errors noted will be made in the next edition of the JOURNAL.
